MARYSVILLE FOLK GATHER HERE TONIGHT

Special Train Bringing Big Delegation to the Tabernacle Service

A lively time is scheduled for the tabernacle this evening, when a delegation of about 600 people from Marysville with a band of 200 singers will visit the Hillis party.

The up-river delegation will come to Steelton in a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad. They will be met at the station by a committee from the tabernacle.

At last evening's service Mrs. Hillis spoke on "The Place Where Both Ways Meet."

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Baldwin Hose Company presented Mrs. Hillis with a case in which was enclosed a $5 gold piece.

The Steelton Glee Club sang two selections.

AGRICULTURAL BOARD NAMED BY GOVERNOR

At the same time he issued the following statement: "At the present session of the Legislature a bill was passed consolidating all the different departments of the government of the Commonwealth that have to do with agricultural interests."

Under the act all the functions heretofore performed by these several agencies have been consolidated into one central bureau, whose functions are to be administered by a board of seven, under the direction of a Commissioner of Agriculture.

Under this Commission's these several bodies heretofore enumerated are to be organized under the direction of the Governor as bureaus, in order that the whole agricultural problem of the Commonwealth may be administered as a unit, and that its administrative functions may be properly carried out in the interests of the farmers of Pennsylvania.

"I have devoted much time and thought to the creation of a Board of Commission of Agriculture that would be in every respect capable and effective. I have also had in mind the diversified agricultural interests of the Commonwealth and the several geographical districts of the Commonwealth, and have resolved to appoint to this board the best type of citizens qualified under the law for service that I could find."
