

STATE MILITIA ON GUARD AT HOME OF GEORGIA GOVERNOR

Demonstration Last Night in Front of Executive's Residence Brings Out Soldiers

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED

Calm of Today Is in Striking Contrast to Tension of Yesterday

Atlanta, Ga., June 22.—While the militia still was on guard at Governor Slaton's country home, quiet prevailed both there and in the city today and there was no indication of a repetition of the exciting scene of yesterday and last night, which followed announcement of the commutation of Leo M. Frank's death sentence.

[Continued on Page 7.]

Fourteen Shells Were Dropped on Dunkirk; Several Persons Killed

Paris, June 22, 2.37 P. M.—The French war office this afternoon gave out a statement on the progress of hostilities as follows: "The French army has reported that Dunkirk was bombed last night by a piece of long-range artillery. Fourteen shells were thrown and some persons belonging to the civil population were killed."

State Helping City to Find Typhoid Sources

Dr. William H. Ridge, one of the physicians connected with the State Livestock Sanitary Board has been assigned by Dr. C. J. Marshall to assist Dr. J. M. J. Raunick of the city bureau of health and sanitation to inspect a number of dairy farms in the Cumberland Valley.

Munitions For Russia Flow Into Vladivostok

Tokio, June 22.—Advices reaching Tokio from Vladivostok are that munitions of war intended for the use of Russia's armies at the front are arriving at that seaport in great quantities. So heavy are the shipments that facilities to forward them by rail through Siberia are being sought.

GOING ON A VACATION?

Before you leave home don't forget to order the Harrisburg Telegraph sent to you at your home address; otherwise you'll miss something every day you're away. No matter where you go, the Telegraph will follow you and keep you posted on what is doing in Harrisburg and the rest of the busy world.

THE WEATHER

For Harrisburg and vicinity: Fair to-night and Wednesday; somewhat warmer to-night. For Eastern Pennsylvania: Fair and somewhat warmer to-night; Wednesday fair; light west winds.

WITNESSES CAN BE MADE TO TESTIFY IN HARDCRABBLE VIEW

Viewers Declare Subpenas Will Be Issued to Bring Real Estate Men to Hearings

WHARF RIGHT BY SUFFERANCE

Seitz Quickly Squelches Intimation That Assessments Were Kept Down in District

Apparent unwillingness of real estate experts and other witnesses to voluntarily testify before the "Hard-crabble" board of viewers which will compel their appearance. The first intimation that such a step must be taken developed at today's session of the viewers when several witnesses and one or two attorneys announced that they have been unable to obtain witnesses.

[Continued on Page 7.]

Bricklayer May Die From Injuries Received in Fifteen-Foot Fall

Valentine Bernheisel, aged 62, 1416 Derry street, a bricklayer, received a concussion of the brain this morning in a fall from the rear of No. 7 South Front street. Mr. Bernheisel is in the Harrisburg Hospital. His recovery is doubtful.

TWO BAND CONCERTS

Two band concerts are scheduled for the latter part of the week according to announcements made to-day by the park authorities. Friday night there will be another public concert under the management of the Harrisburg Band Concert Association, and on Thursday night there will be a concert by the Loysville Orphans' Band.

PARDON IS ASKED FOR HELEN BOYLE

Application was made to the State Board of Pardons to-day for pardon for Helen Boyle, the accomplice of James Boyle in the sensational kidnaping of "Willie" Whittle from his home in Sharon in 1899, on the ground that the sentence imposed on her was too severe.

Accomplice in Whittle Kidnaping Case Not to Become Actress, Lawyer Says

With the introduction of the new summer schedule of the Pennsylvania Railroad next Sunday will come the opening of the electrical branch between Paoli and Broad Street Station. Forces of linemen and signalmen are working overtime to get the new branch completed.

[Continued on Page 7.]

GIRLS BETTER TREE PLANTERS THAN BOYS

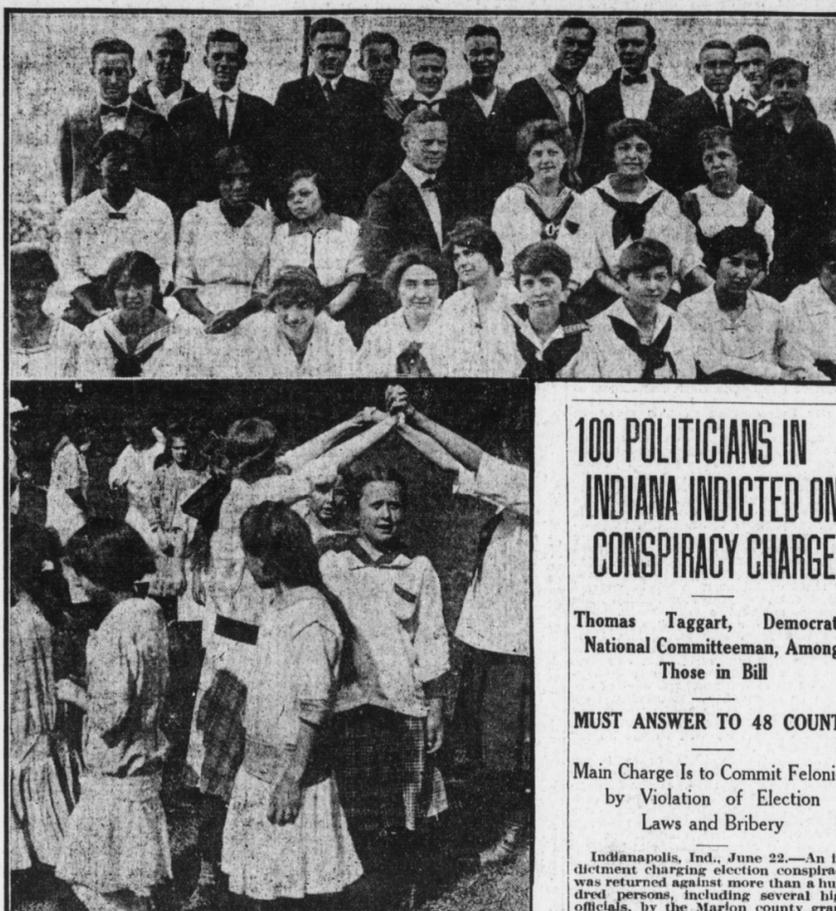

City Forester Says So Anyway in Interesting Article in Forestry Magazine

Harrisburg small boy didn't do nearly so well as his small sister as a pioneer planter of the first "municipal forest" in Wildwood. That's what City Forester Harry J. Mueller thought anyway in telling his story of the beginning of "Harrisburg's Municipal Forest" in the current issue of the American Forestry.

Descendant of Harris to Place D. A. R. Laurel Wreath on Liberty Bell

Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, asked to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce in the reception of the Liberty Bell in this city Monday afternoon, July 5, has decided to prepare a large laurel wreath tied with the colors and insignia of the chapter, which will be placed on the bell by John J. Pearson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearson, a descendant of the founder of Harrisburg.

THOUSANDS OF HARRISBURG YOUNGSTERS GATHER ON CITY PLAYGROUNDS ON SEASON'S OPENING DAY TO GREET INSTRUCTORS

Thousands of Harrisburg's youngsters gathered at the playgrounds yesterday on the opening day of the season, where they heard all about the "good times ahead from the twenty odd instructors. The picture showing the little girls playing "London Bridge Is Breaking Down" shows how fully the youngsters entered into the spirit of the day.

P. R. R. ELECTRIC IN SERVICE ON SUNDAY

Philadelphia Division Officials From Harrisburg to Attend Opening

With the introduction of the new summer schedule of the Pennsylvania Railroad next Sunday will come the opening of the electrical branch between Paoli and Broad Street Station. Forces of linemen and signalmen are working overtime to get the new branch completed.

[Continued on Page 7.]

PREACHER AND ALL TRUSTEES WILL DIG

Minister and Officers of New Camp Curtin Church to Break First Ground Tomorrow

"If the preacher'll turn the first shovel o' earth we'll load the first cart!" That in brief is the proposition the trustees of the new Camp Curtin Memorial Methodist church put up to the minister, the Rev. A. S. Williams, sometime ago, when they were discussing plans for the ceremonies incident to the excavation program.

Lancaster County Farmer Trampled to Death by Mules in Field Near Litzitz

Special to The Telegraph Marietta, Pa., June 22.—John Douple, aged 30 years, a wealthy young farmer, living near Litzitz, was last evening thrown from a mule he was riding and trampled to death. His jawbones were broken, his chest crushed and he was injured internally. He had harnessed the mules to a water wagon and was driving over a field when suddenly the animals started and began to run away. The wheels of the wagon also passed over him. He was a son-in-law of Aaron Hess, who was killed only a short time ago in a similar manner. He leaves a widow and four small children and a number of brothers and sisters.

AGED WOMAN DIES FROM MOSQUITO BITE

Mrs. Mary T. Worrell, 81, of Lewistown, Succumbs in Agony This Morning

Lewistown, June 22.—Bitten on the lip by a mosquito while she was sitting on the front porch of her home with several grandchildren last evening Mrs. Mary T. Worrell, aged 81, died in the utmost agony this morning.

[Continued on Page 7.]

LAYMEN'S MISSION MEETS HERE IN 1916

Convention, Scheduled For February, Part of National Campaign Now Being Planned

New York, June 22.—About 40,000 churches are to be invited to send delegates to the convention of the National Missionary Campaign, to be held in seventy-five of the leading cities of the United States, beginning in October. All the important missionary boards and societies of the country, including those carrying on home missionary work, as well as the foreign mission organizations, are cooperating in the campaign, which is being organized by the Interdenominational Laymen's Missionary Movement of New York City.

Tin Mill to Run Into Middle of July This Year Because of War Orders

Because of heavy orders for tin plate, indirectly due to the war, the hot mills of the local plant of the LaLance-Groesjean Company will be operated until the middle of July. These mills are usually closed in June for the summer.

100 POLITICIANS IN INDIANA INDICTED ON CONSPIRACY CHARGES

Thomas Taggart, Democratic National Committeeman, Among Those in Bill

MUST ANSWER TO 48 COUNTS

Main Charge Is to Commit Felonies by Violation of Election Laws and Bribery

Indianapolis, Ind., June 22.—An indictment charging election conspiracy was returned against more than a hundred persons, including several high officials, by the Marion county grand jury to-day. The charges are based on the election of November 9, 1914, the registration of last September and October and the primary of May 5, 1914.

[Continued on Page 7.]

TEMPERATURE CAUSES HAIT

Brescia, Italy, July 21.—A heavy snowstorm has roughed the temperature down below zero on the summit of Monte Altissimo making necessary a suspension of military operations.

TWO FIREMEN KILLED; 14 OTHERS INJURED

Fire in Philadelphia Results Fatally For Battalion Chief and Alderman

Philadelphia, June 22.—Two firemen were killed and fourteen others were injured to-day fighting a fire which destroyed one of the buildings of the Thomas Potter Sons Company, oilcloth manufacturers, at Second and Erie avenue. The dead are William James, a battalion chief, and John Hillman, Jr., a ladderman.

[Continued on Page 7.]

FREE JITNEY RIDES FOR HOSPITAL NURSES

Three Owners Offer Cars to Give Girls Rides During Recreation Hours

Throughout the rooms and corridors of every hospital in Harrisburg to-day a queer little stir made itself felt that not even "rules and regulations for the maintenance of quiet" could quite dampen. And all because of the word passed around this morning that free

Final Attempt to Save Becker From the Chair Will Be Made This Afternoon

New York, June 22.—The first move in the final attempt to save Charles Becker from execution for the murder of Herman Rosenthal was made to-day. Martin T. Manton, Becker's chief counsel, went to Albany to discuss with Governor Whitman, Becker's proposed appeal for executive clemency. It was understood that Mr. Manton intended to ask the governor to set the date for the hearing, possibly to ask Mr. Whitman to allow Lieutenant Governor Schoenck, of Syracuse, to decide whether Becker's plea should be granted.

FALL OF LEMBERG IS NOW EXPECTED WITHIN 48 HOURS

Austro-Hungarian Headquarters in Galicia Attribute Success to Superiority in Artillery; Petrograd Concedes Retreat From Grodek Lakes; German Submarines Again Active; Turkish Vessels Sunk by Russians

Four more vessels have been sunk by submarines and in the case of one of them, the British steamer Carisbrook, thirteen men of the crew are unaccounted for. The Carisbrook, which was engaged in transatlantic trade, was sunk by gunfire from a German submarine. A large Turkish steamer and two Turkish sailing vessels were torpedoed in the Black sea by Russian submarines.

SIX YEARS FOR DE WET Bloomfontein, Union of South Africa [Continued on Page 7.]

Newspapers Grip Nation Says Advertising Man

Chicago, Ill., June 22.—"Present-day newspapers are a better advertising medium than ever because they have a more gripping national power—a power that should be studied by every thinking advertiser." Joseph H. Finn, of Chicago, told delegates attending the annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World here to-day.

Mr. Finn spoke of the "Newspaper, the Advertiser, and the Advertising Agent." "I believe in the efficiency of newspaper advertising," said Mr. Finn, "because I have seen what it can do in such a variety of ways that the possibility of luck or accident must be eliminated from it."

GERMAN PAPER MUST SUSPEND

Berlin, June 22, via London, 1.30 P. M.—The German authorities to-day informed the administration of the Berlin Tages Zeitung that it would have to suspend publication for an indefinite period on account of the recent article published by this paper on the subject of German-American relations from the pen of Count Von Reventlow.

PROTECTION FOR FOREIGNERS

Aboard U. S. S. Colgrado, off Guaymas, Sonora, Mex., June 22.—Fifteen hundred Villa troops under General Sosa were promised as protection for foreigners in the Yaqui valley in a meeting held to-day between Admiral Howard and his staff and General Leiva, military commander at Guaymas. General Leiva said that the landing of American marines might be misinterpreted by the masses of the Mexican people.

GOVERNOR EXTENDS CENSORSHIP

Nogales, Sonora, June 22.—Governor Maytorena, extended the censorship to-day to the entire territory dominated by him. Censors were placed in the telegraph offices. Newspapermen were denied admittance.

FRANK NOT YET AT WORK

Atlanta, June 22.—It is likely that Governor Slaton will remain in seclusion until he is called on to make his farewell address to the Legislature on Saturday. Word received from the prison farm at Milledgeville to-day was that Frank was not yet in physical condition to take up active work.

SEND CRUISER TO HAITI

Washington, June 22.—New revolutionary activities in Haiti to-day caused the Navy Department to order Rear Admiral Caperton and the cruiser Washington, now at Vera Cruz, over to Cape Haiytian with 700 blue jackets and 200 marines.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Michael William Jacobs, Jr., and Maude Edith Robertson, city. Andrew R. Gemmill and Mary Frey, York. William A. Kleindorf, Middletown, and Marie G. Esack, Gettysburg. Moses M. Neushaus, Shippensburg, and Nellie Kuhn, Greenburg.