MISS EBY HOSTESS TO GRANT HAWK FOLKS

Annual Fourth of July Celebration at Her Country Place, "Creek View"

A unique Fourth of July celebration was enjoyed in the little village of Grant, Cumberland county, on Saturday evening, when Miss Fanny Eby was hostess at her country home, Creek View, to more than two hundred of the townspeople, children and parents and little ones from the Messiah Orphanage. Moving pictures were given by the Pathoscope Company, of Philadelphia, the screen being hung between two trees on the lawn and the audience seated on the broad piazzas. Refreshments were served and patriotic songs sung by the children, while ascending balloons added interest to the scene. This has been an annual fete at the Eby home, ex-Mayor Eby, during his lifetime, gathering the children about him on each Fourth of July evening. The moving pictures being an added feature this year, were much enjoyed and appreciated by the guests of all ages and marked an event as this was the first time the "movies" appeared in Grant.

I know Resinol will heal this rash

I never worry if I have a little rash or other eruption break out—I just put on a bit of Resinol Ointment. That takes out the itching and burning instantly, and soon clears the trouble away. I learned of Resinol Ointment through our doctor prescribing it for my brother. Tom had been almost frantic with eczema for months but that ointment healed his skin like magic. Resinol Ointment contains nothing that could irritate or inflame the tender skin. It is an excellent healing dressing for poison-ivy, sunburn, sores, chafes, burns, etc. For trial, write to Dept. 11-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all druggists.
