AMUSEMENTS

PAXTANG PARK NEXT WEEK

The headline attraction at the Paxtang Park Theater for next week, will be Willard and Bond, in the laughing craze, "Detectiveism. A blackface travesty on Bertillon's measurements used by the police department of all large cities. The act serves as a medium for the funmaking talents of Joe F. Willard and Harry V. Bond, two recognized negro character actors, who among the foremost negro impersonators now appearing in vaudeville and in their travesty they have an act which is heralded as one of this season's big successes. Five other well known acts will also appear on the comedy bill at the park.

IRENE FENWICK IN "THE COMMUTERS," AT THE REGENT TODAY

Irene Fenwick, in James Forbes' enchanting comedy, "The Commuters," at the Regent today. Five happy reels of chuckles and smiles—a joyous story, charmingly told with that intonation of "Sammy" Charles Judels, in the role of the suburbanite and his night off—a news item and a moment of weakness when the French orchestra is invited to exclusive Auburn Manor for a special night—and then there's a morning after an "Are You a Mason?" Mr. Barrymore portrays the character of Frank Perry, a dashing young married man whose chief desire in life is to have him become a Mason. Every man has the opportunity it affords for staying out every night, explaining his numerous absences in honor by the logical statement that he is spending his evenings at the Masonic lodge, undergoing the trials of initiation.—Advertisement.

AT THE COLONIAL

For the first time in the history of the Colonial, the orchestra, patrons and tune of "Auld Lang Syne," the management has, as usual, booked a show that is well above the standard in every respect. The Williamses, the Popes, the Under the Sea are above the average and handle their parts to the time of the taking of these films, could hardly realize that such an endeavor was possible, so that the Williamses Brothers for their undaunted efforts and success. The California Orange Packers are creating a new sensation in the nimble way in which they handle the hammer and nails and pack the orange for shipment. This is both interesting and sensational. The Famous Minstrels themselves the "Hickville" minstrel are creating screams of laughter from every patron. Seldom has the Colonial, a laughing hit as these boys are. Aunt Belinda's Legacy is pleasing from start to finish.

"THE WHITE SISTER" FOR THE LAST TIME TODAY

The Victoria Theater presents that finest of dramas, "The White Sister," in her greatest success. "The White Sister" for the last time to-day. Disinherited, her lover reported dead in Africa—her broken and weary of the world—The White Sister, devoting her life to good and the service of the Master. She loves him more than she loves her life, but refuses marriage because of her dispensation that will free her from every patron. Seldom has the Colonial, a laughing hit as these boys are. Aunt Belinda's Legacy is pleasing from start to finish.
