Sale of Up-to-the-Minute Waists At Extraordinary Prices

An offering of waists that are brand new, never out of the boxes before, and in styles of such individuality that in some instances, a particular design will be shown for the first time.

These waists are not the overstock, cleaning out or rummage of a certain manufacturer; neither do they represent mistaken styles; but on the contrary, were made up purposely for mid-summer wear, and come from makers with whom we are in constant buying activity. We can vouch for their dependability.

Now as to value. We believe all women possess that sense of judgment which knows genuine value, and we deem it unnecessary to quote a series of comparative values, when quality, style and low price are so pronounced.

We invite comparison.
