An accumulation of this year's styles, mostly in black that bore prices upward to $10. Excellent hats to finish the season at a nominal cost.
BOWMAN'S—Second Floor

Summer reading will be shortened, summer messages must be condensed. This evening lettergram to certain men tells how other men are availing themselves of the opportunity to save a few dollars on a new suit to replace the one that is beginning to look shabby. Here's the substance: Suits that were $12.50 and $13.50 are now going out at $8.75, and suits that were $15 and $16.50 are selling for $10.

Palm Beach Suits are gaining in popularity daily; they are $7.50.

In the window now.

AMUSEMENTS

PAXTANG PARK

Before the week is over everyone who believes in getting his money's worth should take in the vaudeville show at the Paxtang Park theater. The bill for this week is one of the best ever seen. Willard and Bond, the headlines on the bill, in their funny negro travesty, "Detectivism," are alone worth the price of admission. Willard and Bond were the late stars of the "Rose Maid" company, and their ability as funmakers has won them recognition by the press and public from coast to coast. The balance of the park show is made up of such standard acts as the Carolina Duo, Guth Bros., trained bears, Frank Harley, novelty musician, and The Sheldons.

The success of the park fireworks displays has caused Manager Davis to announce another big pyrotechnical display for next Thursday evening.

"THE MELTING POT" TODAY AND TOMORROW AT THE VICTORIA
It is doubtful if any Gentile could have written "The Melting Pot." It is the work not only of a master of literature, but of a man whose birth and breeding fitted him to understand to the utmost the tragedy of the average Hebrew's life in Russia, and the opportunity offered the flouted Jew of new life and boundless liberty in the land beyond the seas. Also Zankwill shows with an unerring skill, how inevitably the traditions and beliefs of the past must be eliminated or modified to keep pace with the growth of the younger Hebrew generation in this country.

No mere stage production of "The Melting Pot" could drive home the lesson of the evils of race prejudices as the picture play does where it was possible to show the charging Cossacks and brutal soldiery hunting down and slaying the hapless Jews. The furious charges, the wrecked homes, the silent bodies of the mutilated victims lying prostrate in the streets of Kishineff, under the red glow of their burning houses, furnished a mass of horrible details destined to live long in the memory of the spectators. The photo production is not only a work of art, but a moral lesson of terrible significance, thrilling with human interest and alive with thrilling action.—Advertisement.

HOLBROOK BLINN AND ALICE BRADY IN "THE BOSS" AT THE REGENT TODAY ONLY
"The Boss," founded on the William A. Brady stage production of the same name, at the Regent this evening, Alice Brady and Holbrook Blinn are the stars of the production. Michael Regan, the Irish bred boy, who fights his way up through penury to a position of political and financial power. He marries a girl, who becomes his wife in name only, the daughter of a man who is Regan's business opponent, and it is to save her father that the girl contracts in marriage. To-morrow, one day only, "Bartered Lives," featuring Marie Hesperia. This is a very striking and unusually executed subject, in which one actress plays two roles, that of herself and her sister, and appears in many of the scenes in the dual role. Miss Marie Hesperia is the artist who portrays herself and her sister, Pierette, through four enchanting reels of love, intrigue and adventure in the high social life of London, Paris and Rome. Charlie Chaplin, in "Mabel's Strange Predicament," will also be shown.—Advertisement.
