"RED" CRANE DAY IS LUCKY FOR INDIANS

Richmond Tumbles; Harrisburg With Aid of Rochester Moves Up; Schacht in Form

"Red" Crane's return to his old home town yesterday, stirred up the baseball fans. There were other stirring incidents. The Indians won from Richmond, score 5 to 3. Up in Canada, Rochester put a crimp in Montreal's ascension. This trio of victories put Harrisburg in third place. It was surely a lucky day.

Outside of Harrisburg's good fortune, "Red" Crane held the horse-shoes. His friends took him by surprise when they handed him a gold watch and several other gifts, along with bunches of flowers. "Gee, it's great to meet a pal from your home town," was played by the Good Will band when Mayor John K. Royal stopped the game to put one over on Crane. When all was over "Red" Crane remarked, "It is also great to come home and meet your pals."

Richmond Once Dangerous Richmond was not a hard proposition for Harrisburg. The Climbers are a lively bunch of youngsters, and they play sensational baseball. They had the Indians guessing in one inning, Schacht was the hypnotizer. He had the Climbers under control all the time.

Cottrell was not able to stand the frequent jolts handed him by Harrisburg. In the sixth he went soaring, and when he was taken out he fell on the player's bench. Russell held up in good style for two innings. Richmond's support was peppery, and as a result eight Indians were left loitering on bases during the game.

In the fourth frame Richmond chalked up one run. Pick doubled to center, reached third on Aragon's single to right and scored on an error by Heckinger. With one man down in the sixth, Bates went to first on an error by Mowe. Aragon singled.

"Red" Crane, the boy from Harrisburg hit out a double, scoring two runs. A pass, sacrifice, and Tooley's single, helped Harrisburg get a man over the plate in the first. Zimmerman's triple, and Witter's sacrifice fly brought the second. In the sixth every man was up to bat for the Indians. Two men were walked, one man was hit and four singles followed in close order. Three runs were hung up, and the game went on for the Indians. The score:

NEWPORT NEWS LANDS EX-MANAGER LAUGHLIN Special to The Telegraph Hagerstown, Md., July 20.—Joseph Laughlin, former manager of the Hagerstown club, Blue Ridge League, left yesterday for Newport News, where he is under contract to play with Newport News club, Virginia League. Two hours after Laughlin had accepted Newport News club's terms he received a telegram from Mack Dunn, Richmond club, International League, saying: "Can use you, report immediately."

PROTEST AGAINST UMPIRE Special to The Telegraph Hagerstown, Md., July 20.—President Charles W. Boyer of the Blue Ridge Baseball League yesterday received a letter from the officials of the Gettysburg club, protesting against the decisions of Umpire McAfee. The letter was sent after the directors of the Gettysburg club held a meeting. The letter states that the directors do not accuse McAfee of being dishonest, but they think he is incompetent.

EASY VICTORY FOR FAMILY A. C. The Family A. C. had a walkover with the Packard team yesterday, winning by a score of 19 to 3. Gross' pitching was a feature. The score by innings:

FEDS SURPRISE OPPONENTS The Feds handed the Planing Mill team a surprise yesterday in the Lucknow Shop series. The game ended with a score of 1 to 1. McClosky of the Feds allowed but one hit.

THE GLOBE RIGHT POSTURE BASEBALL TEAM

Youngsters are a big attraction in baseball this season. The boys are real unformed players and they play a strong game. One of the local teams is pictured above. This aggregation includes players, whose ages, average from 12 to 16 years. They challenge any team their size in the city. The team gets its name from a particular brand of clothing. The Globe Clothing House is responsible for the attractive uniform work by this team. The members are: Left to right, top row—Muselman, 3b.; McWilliams, 2b.; Simonetti, 1b.; Hunter, p.; Leiby, cf. Bottom row—Wall, rf.; Hylon, ss.; Hibbsman, c, captain; McCullom, utility; Dagle, lf.

Rochester Takes Two; Montreal in Fourth Place

Rochester stopped Montreal's stride yesterday, taking two games. Both scores were close, 8 to 7 and 8 to 6. The Hustlers hit in big bunches. The Royals are now in fourth place. Buffalo handed a jolt to Toronto, score 5 to 3. The Bisons timed their bingles. Providence is still leading. Jersey City lost yesterday, score 3 to 2. This game was featured with brilliant fielding. The score follows:

Grand Circuit Races Include Many Thrills

Cleveland, Ohio, July 20.—Three favorites were returned winners, one outsider threw a panic into the talent, the fastest opening heat in the history of the grand circuit was trotted and a 2-year-old trotting track record of 2:13 3/4 was established yesterday at North Randall opening of the first 1915 clash of the grand circuit campaign. The Edward stake, for 2.10 pacers, produced the sensation of the day when Russell Boy, a rank outsider, captured the honors in four heats. Incidentally he paced the fastest mile ever made in the stake when he went the second heat in 2:03 3/4. He barely escaped the flag in the first heat, Ribley, favorite in the race, drew the place position.

Jews on the Farm

There's a labor bureau in New York where they furnish Hebrew farm hands. Often these Jewish immigrants have never seen a farm. They are most unpromising material, as far as looks count—under-sized, oldly dressed, and "green" in a ridiculous degree. Yet there is something about the Jew that impels him to "make good" wherever you put him on the job. He is intelligent, tireless, sober and kind to animals. Leonard Robinson, manager of the Jewish Agricultural Society, says he has secured farm jobs for 5,000 Jews, and "the farmer who has once tried the Hebrew laborer is certain to want the same kind again!" The children of Israel were farmers in Abraham's time, and there is some deep seated instinct in the race that causes them to turn easily from trading to agriculture.—Farm Life.

INDIANS IMPROVE; 2 GAMES TOMORROW

Averages Show Harrisburg Sixth in Stick Work; Richmond Is Second Harrisburg and Richmond played a double-header to-day and at the go-off the Indians started to cop them both. The Climbers end their series here tomorrow. Then Providence will come for four games. As Harrisburg is but seven games away from the leaders, a series of victories means much to the locals. Providence will play a double-header on Saturday. Harrisburg is showing up a trifle better in all departments, according to the averages printed by the Buffalo News. They are sixth in club batting with .247. The Bisons are hitting at .275. Richmond is second with .270; Providence, .268; Montreal, .258; and Toronto, .256. Witter is Harrisburg's best batter with .285. Zimmerman has reached the .280 mark, and Mensor, .277. Kraft has been moving up and is now at the .262 mark. Tooley, Heckinger and Callahan are following closely. The pitchers are also showing improved form. Chabek heads the list with 19 games won and four lost. Richmond—AB. R. H. O. A. E. CARRYING A DROWNING PERSON The supporting of an unconscious man or woman in a child's play. Turn them face upward, in horizontal position, take hold of the hair or the clothing at the back of the neck, or pass an arm over their chest, hand under armpit, then swim on the back or side, using the free arm and the legs to propel. A frantic person, instead, needs to be handled with the utmost caution and always from behind, as mentioned. In exceptionally bad cases, it is advisable to subdue the struggler, without violence, but thoroughly. This can be done by passing both one's arms under his, placing the hands on the back of his head and, applying pressure until he is quiet.—August Outing.

JITNEYS CARRY ADS Seeking to turn a little additional revenue into their pockets, several jitney drivers are now displaying the advertising of several merchants on the fronts of their machines. TISHA B'AB With fasting and prayer, Orthodox Jews of this city last evening and night commemorated the destruction of the first and second Temples in Jerusalem. The observance is known as Tisha b'Ab.

LITTLE DANGER OF OVER-PRODUCTION It is announced from Washington that last year's big apple crop is practically sold out. Less than two per cent of the fruit remained in the storage houses of June 1st. People need not be afraid to plant apple trees; there will also be a market, and while prices may occasionally fall below the profit mark, the average will stay on the right side of the ledger. Even last year, the man who raised good apples and graded them well in packing, had no reason to complain. Dan LeGore, Farm Life's apple expert, who won the big prize at the Indiana apple show last Fall, tells us that he disposed of his entire crop at an average of $1.25 a bushel.—Farm Life.

TEPEE TATTLERS

"Red" Crane is some popular boy. He is also a real short stop. The Good Will band handed up some popular airs that made a big hit. Crane's surprise caused him to lose his nerve for a while. When he settled down, his work was a sensation. Railroad fans cannot be excused for enthusiasm. Their efforts yesterday put a whole lot of life into the game. Mayor John K. Royal also received a bunch of flowers. Clarence Backenstoss took care of the flowers until after the game.

Aragon, the Cuban, is some hitter for Richmond. Z. E. Woodhall, sporting writer on the Richmond Evening Journal, one of the best-known baseball authorities south of the Mason and Dixon line, is here for a new day.

Manager Jack Dunn has secured the services of Ralph Crum, a former Boston University star.

"Mose" Punk There is but one, was cheer leader for the Crane boosters yesterday. He had the crowd laughing.

Schlacht is some pitcher. He is a youngster and is showing improved form daily. Callahan had an easy day in center. "Jimmy" was a busy boy in the field.

Witter was using his whip to an advantage yesterday. Heckinger had his eye on second yesterday, and there were no bases stolen.

Cottrell does not have much speed, but he can hook them over in fine style. He is a sensitive youngster, and because the umpire crossed him, he lost out.

The Harrisburg players, many of whom belong to the Brooklyn Nationals, are pulling hard for that club to win the National League pennant. The local players give Jack Coombs, the former Athletic pitcher the credit for bringing the Dodgers up in the Harrisburg boys say that Coombs taught them more baseball on the training trip than they ever learned before and that he is responsible for the development of the Brooklyn pitchers.

Dave Shean, the manager of the Providence club which plays here during the latter half of the week will be welcomed on Saturday by many of the Williamsport friends. Shean played with the Williamsport club when it was a Tri-State pennant winner.

"Red" Crane certainly got a great send-off from his friends and his playing while showing a little stage fright proves what practically every International League leader has said: "There's some classy kid that is sure to go up and stick."

"We like Harrisburg and we're going to work our heads off to make a great record on the road and try to land the International League pennant for this city," is the way one of the Harrisburg players expressed himself last night.

Harrisburg will have a chance to see Joe Oeschger, the Providence southpaw who pitched the no-hit, no-run game against Montreal last Wednesday during the latter half of the week. The Phillies to whom Oeschger belongs are already talking of recalling him to help out in the fight for the National League pennant.

Pitcher Goodbred of the Indians is big enough to go through nine innings of hard pitching and the big fellow just needs a little more spirit out there on the hill to win almost every game he starts.

SOCIETY GIRLS IN REAL RING BATTLES

Fight Three Minute Rounds With Referee, Timekeeper and Seconds; Mississippi Champion

New Orleans, La., July 20.—Regulation ring battles between the young women of Taulane University continue in spite of the ban placed on them by the faculty.

Following the publicity given to the contests in the gymnasium, the young women decided to hold their bouts in private. The regulation 24-foot ring is used, 3-minute rounds are fought and there are a referee, timekeepers, seconds, trainers and handlers.

Miss "Johnny" McDonald, a leading society girl of Mississippi, has become the undisputed champion. She has outpointed all her opponents and on two occasions has gone ten rounds.

Miss Hilda Simons, of Louisiana, is conceded to be the best boxer, next to Miss McDonald. Taulane University is patronized by the socially elect of the South and the action of the young women in staging regulation fights has supporters and opponents.

Academy Summer School Will Open Next Month

The annual summer school of the Harrisburg Academy will open August 2, and will be held for six weeks. Enrollments for the courses are being made this month.

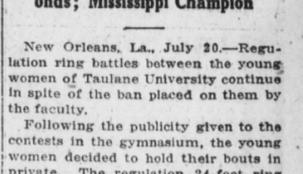

The purpose of the school is to offer a course for boys and girls who failed in subjects, or to prepare students for college entrance examinations. The school will be conducted by Sherman A. Allen, professor of mathematics; Harry Musser, instructor in Latin, and Professor F. Smith. Plans for the summer work are now being completed.
