Those who already know this Live Store need no further invitation than the above announcement. To any not yet acquainted with us we will say it is a long-established rule in this and all the Doutrich Stores never to carry anything over from one season to another. We deal only in high-grade, known-quality, standard merchandise which we always sell at less than others ask for equally desirable goods. We keep our stock complete clear through the regular season, and then cut our prices deep for an absolutely complete clearance.
