Catholic Federation in Session; Report of Work Done During Year Read

By Associated Press Toledo, O., Aug. 16.—A review of the recent activities of the American Federation of Catholic Societies is contained in the report of Anthony Matre, the national secretary submitted to today's session of the convention of the federation. A recommendation that the federation adopt a resolution, urging the restoration of peace in Europe and that Catholic organizations the world over be asked to participate in a universal report for peace—but the report, which concluded with the announcement that Pope Benedict had granted to all federation members his apostolic benediction.

Affiliated with the federation, the report shows are thirty national organizations and 25 Catholic institutions.

A special committee consisting of the Rev. Richard H. Tierney and John Whalen, of New York, and Henry V. Cunningham, the report said, had called upon President Wilson and the Secretary of State and submitted to the latter certified documents disclosing many outrages committed in Mexico and under Catholic church, priests and sisterhoods. An extensive review of the federation's crusade against indecent theatrical performances, moving picture shows, pictures and post cards, also was contained in the report.

In this connection it was reported that the branch federation in St. Louis had suppressed $1,935 indecent and suggestive postcards.

Boys Now in Camp at McCormick's Island

McCormick's island camp is a "regier camp" nowadays, take it from any of the thirty-two possibly true presidents of these United States who are under canvas there this week. Up until now the camp was all right 'tis but then, mere girls camped there.

The boys, by the way, have inaugurated a new stunt or two: The spring drill for the drilling has been passed up, boyishly speaking, as a trifle too tame; the boys prefer swinging out into the stream directly from the bank via a long rope that hangs from an overhanging tree. Here are the boys who will be in camp until August 19:

Truman and Charles First, John and Anthony Wilsbach, Charles Hofmair, Harold Funk, Lester Hainshaw, Karl and Reinhold Schmidt, James and Stewart Lytle, Lincoln Shunk, Ed Emanuel, Otto Haas, Howard Mehring, Robert and Jason Snyder, Fred Olphin, Karl Mead, Lerner Myers, Blair Pasick, Gilbert Ebner, Leland Holtry, Karl Kitzmiller, John Winn, Alexander Shampam, Joseph Liddick, Emerson Beidle, John Switzer, Francis Wenrick, Isador Levin, and Samuel Sherman.

Held For Forging Father's Name on Notes For $1,115

Charged with forging his father's name to two notes and obtaining money from two banks in this city under false pretenses, George A. Redecker, of Elizabethtown, was held under $1,000 bail on each of the charges by Alderman Hovertz this afternoon.

He had taken Pennsylvania Railroad stock from his father, it was charged, and presented them at the banks, signing his father's name to the notes for loans, which were $525 at one bank and $450 at the other. He admitted at the hearing that he had gotten $140 from a third place, but no information had been made against him. His father, John C. Redecker, did not prosecute him.

Half-Baked Legislation

As an example of this "half-baked" legislation the committee has had in mind the law which is not what it was designed to be, and the La Follette seamen's law which instead of uplifting the men of the merchant marine is driving every ship of American register off the oceans. The valuation which the government has ordered to be taken of the railroads at a cost of $100,000,000, and the amount of work was cited as another example of foolish laws of a regulative nature and in this connection Senator Weeks said that unless some way is found to place the burden of the expense of the regulation that will yield a constant and certain reasonable income for the railroads many of them will pass into the hands of the government at no late date. Much regulation is necessary but it should not be such as will result in confiscation of property and the injury of the service which the public expects and the regulation which they must perform if they are to fulfill their purpose.

Criticism of Weeks

Senator Weeks severely criticized the American Federation of Catholic Societies for his attitude toward banks and said he was a type of the public official who believes his own regulations to be equivalent to legislative enactment. Such men in commissions or otherwise employed in regulative functions of government are dangerous, he thought, and he said that there is always a danger that government will be honest but mistaken men into such places.

The senator concluded with the expressed hope that the nation will do nothing that will put government control and red tape before personal initiative and enterprise.

Senator Weeks was introduced by Ed S. Herman, director of the chamber of commerce and president of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce. Mr. Herman in presenting the speaker dwelt briefly on the subject under discussion, saying that he believed in the
