TODAY'S BEAUTY HINTS

To whiten and beautify the complexion permanently we have found no better preparation than a lotion made by dissolving four ounces of surmex in a half pint of hot water, then adding two teaspoonfuls glycerin. This removes any pimples, shiny, muddy or sallow appearance, and will make anyone's skin clear, smooth and velvety. It does not show or rub off like powder; in fact, it seems a part of the skin; and for removing tan and freckles is unequalled. It is necessary to shampoo more frequently in the warmer weather because of excessive dust and the fact that the head perspires more and is usually more exposed to the weather. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers can be prepared very cheaply by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthox obtained from your druggist, in a cup of hot water. This rubbed into the scalp creates a thick lather, soothing and cooling in its action, as well as very beneficial to the scalp and hair. After rinsing, the scalp is fresh and clean, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.

LEO M. FRANK HANGED BY AN ARMED MOB

spread rapidly and within a short time hundreds of persons were crowding to the scene. No immediate effort was made to cut the body down, as Sheriff Hicks was not in town and the coroner took no action.

It is believed that the stop at the bridge over Little river, near Eatonton, was thoroughly searched, and at the time the search was being made it is probable Frank already had met death.

The crowd increased rapidly as the day wore on. By 10 o'clock many were on the bridge, and the search with the crowd at the edge of the wood where the body still hung. At that hour no effort had been made to dispose of the body, although Coroner Booth had been summoned.

Frank's body was cut down at 10:15 o'clock, but not until one of the crowd had advised mutilation of the body. Newton A. Morris immediately pleaded with the throng to allow an inquest to take its proper course. A vote was suggested and taken, and overwhelmingly in favor of allowing the coroner to take charge of the body. It then was cut down and the two-mile trip to Marietta started. The inquest was set for 11 o'clock.

At the suggestion of Newton A. Morris, former superior court judge here, the body was taken from the undertaker's wagon in which it was placed at the lynching scene and put into an automobile on the outskirts of the town. The automobile started toward Atlanta.

Souvenir Hunters Busy Judge Morris telephoned from Smyrna to an Atlanta undertaker to meet the automobile and take charge of the body.

When the body was cut down, parts of Frank's shirt were torn away by souvenir hunters. The body was roughly handled before it was put into the undertaker's wagon.

Within a short time after the body was started for Atlanta, excitement here subsided and the town presented almost a normal appearance before noon.

After a special session of the Cobb county commissioners, at which the employment of a special attorney to assist the coroner's jury was authorized, Coroner John A. Booth empaneled a jury and began an investigation of the lynching.

Newspapermen Find Trail For hours after the lynching no trace of the automobiles bearing the party could be found, but at about daylight newspapermen picked up the trail at a point on Little River, near Eatonton, Ga. J. K. Jackson, a white farmer living near a bridge over Little River, said that shortly after midnight he heard several automobiles stop there. Soon afterward he said he heard loud talking and thumping of wheels. He heard the automobiles leave in the direction of Eatonton after the firing.

Hurried search of the immediate vicinity failed to reveal anything that would indicate that Frank had met summary vengeance there.

The armed men arrived in the vicinity of the prison farm practically unnoticed over the road, and methodically to its business. All means of wire communication from the institution to Milledgeville, three miles away, were destroyed and all wires, except one telephone wire from Milledgeville also were cut.

Warden Made Prisoner Five men went to the house of Warden J. T. Smith, awakened him and made him a prisoner. At the same time a small squad of men went to the home of J. M. Burke, superintendent of the farm. Burke was forced to go with them to the gate nearest the prison.

Frank was kept. The two guards on duty there were ordered, while guns were leveled on them, to open the gates.

The party then rushed in, quickly got Frank and hurried him to one of the waiting automobiles. He was forced down into the car, while a member of the party is said to have flashed a rope in front of him.

Without delay those who had been guarding Warden Smith left him and joined the party at the gates. The automobile then started off swiftly in a northerly direction.

Communication Severed With only a limited number of guards at the prison and with wire communication with Milledgeville interrupted, immediate pursuit was impossible. Some time elapsed before word could be brought here and officers started in the direction taken by the party. None of the officers reported for several hours after they left. The first report of the route taken came from newspapermen who left Macon at about the same time the officers got started from Milledgeville.

In the absence of definite news that Frank had been lynched many were inclined to believe that possibly it was his friends and not his foe who took him away and that the display of the rope and the shooting were parts of a plan to cover the real intentions of the party. Frank was suddenly recovered from the wound in his throat, inflicted by another prisoner.

Frank's Parents Will Not Receive Visitors

New York, Aug. 17.—When Rudolph Frank and his wife, parents of Leo M. Frank, learned definitely today that their son had been hanged near Marietta, Ga., they drew the shades at all windows of their home in Brooklyn and refused to answer the door bell or telephone.

Neighbors said the Frank family had begun an eight-day period of mourning, which was customary under the Jewish religion.

Slaton Says Lynchers Should Be Put to Death

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 17.—Ex-Governor John M. Slaton, of Georgia, who as chief executive of that State commuted to life imprisonment the sentence of death passed upon Leo M. Frank, and who is here visiting the Panama-Pacific Exposition, was informed this morning that Frank had been hanged.

"The act was a consummate outrage," said Mr. Slaton, and every man engaged in the lynching should be hanged, for he is an assassin. Such an act is contrary to the civilization of Georgia and one which every good citizen will condemn.

"I could use no language too condemnatory. I believe that the governor of Georgia will use all the power of the State to punish the malefactors who disgraced the civilization of Georgia.

"Their act was one of cowardice, which belongs alone to the assassin. I am shocked and horrified beyond expression. Any man who approves of this action of the mob of murderers is unworthy to be a Georgian."

"Any man or newspaper which condones this offense ought to be driven out of the State. But the conduct of this miserable mob of assassins is the conduct of the same sort of people who shoot a man from behind a fence or murder a woman from a cowardly heart."

Caranzas forbade the mass meeting, but the posters remain on the walls.

"No active anti-foreign demonstration has been reported, but officials here are uneasy over the situation as it affects Americans and other foreigners.

"Wounded are beginning to arrive at Chihuahua from the vicinity of Torreón, which is taken to indicate the fighting between Oregon and Villa. The report adds General Villa has ordered many executions for pillaging."

Mrs. Frank Believed to Have Known That Husband Was to Die

Milledgeville, Ga., Aug. 17.—Mrs. Leo M. Frank received the news that her husband had been lynched in a manner that led those present to believe that she had been expecting it. She was preparing to go to an uncle's home in Athens, Ga., when she was told what had occurred.

Mob Thought to Have Left Girl's Home Town

Marietta, Ga., Aug. 17.—Reports that the armed party that took Leo M. Frank from the Milledgeville prison last night intended to lynch him and place his body on the grave of Mary Phagan drew a crowd to the little cemetery here early to-day. Efforts to learn if several large automobiles had left here last night brought the response from one citizen that he "noticed several of the best automobiles

GREAT BRITAIN THANKS POPE BENEDICT FOR HIS EFFORTS

Rome, via Paris, Aug. 17.—Difficulties preventing the accomplishment of the pope's plan to exchange interned civilians of nonmilitary age, says the Osservatore Romano, have been surmounted.

The British government having agreed to treat German submariners crews the same as other prisoners and the German government having discontinued special treatment of British officers, the holy see renewed its appeal to Germany to carry out the agreement already made. On August 5 the German ministry telegraphed from Lugano a favorable reply, which was transmitted to the British secretary of state. On August 12 Great Britain thanked the pope for his humane action.
