M'GRAW PLANS CUT IN HIGH PRICE STARS

Veteran Giants to Be Sent to Minors; Will Follow Mack's Policy

Special to The Telegraph.
New York, Aug. 18.—The first of the major league managers to follow Connie Mack's policy of getting rid of high-priced players and building up a team of youngsters is John McGraw, of the New York Giants. According to authoritative information, at least seven players now on the team are booked for release or trade, and several deals are expected to be made while the Western clubs are in the East.

The first to go are "Rube" Marquard, the eccentric southpaw pitcher, who cost McGraw $1,000 when he came from the minors; "Chief" Meyers, the veteran catcher, who has been one of the leading backstops of the National League for several years, and Fred Snodgrass, the outfielder whose famous miff of a fly ball cost the Giants the world's championship in the 1912 series with the Boston Red Sox.

Marquard and Meyers are booked for the minors, according to report, while Snodgrass and two others are to figure in a trade. It is understood waivers have been secured from all the National League clubs and all but two of the American League clubs on Marquard and Meyers. Two National League clubs have put in bids for Snodgrass, and it is likely that he will go to Cincinnati.

The dispute over "Rube" Benton, the left-hander, who is reported to have been sold to New York first and Pittsburgh afterward by Cincinnati, is likely to create some trouble in the National League meeting at Boston to-day. McGraw intends to fight for Benton, as he figured on signing the Red pitcher when he decided to release Marquard.

DAUPHIN-PERRY NOTES

The result of the games of Saturday placed the five teams within a one and one-half game margin. Five of the teams have a percentage of .500 or better and are bunched within a margin of .088.

It looks like a close finish and a probable post-season series. Duncannon has one more game with Dauphin and two with Newport.

Hipple, center fielder for the Marysville team, now leads the team in batting. Saturday, he batted out three hits out of four times at bat off Regester and Wertz, of Newport.

DeHaven and Frankhouse were the only Duncannon batters who were able to touch White, Dauphin's Lebanon Valley twirler last Saturday.

Mickey, who played third base in the Tri-State League several years ago and has been playing in the South Carolina League lately, was on the coaching line for Newport last Saturday. Mickey has been secured to help with the coaching for the remainder of the season, so that Newport shall not let any chances for capturing the tag go to waste.

ROCHESTER CANS GANZEL

Special to The Telegraph.
Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 18.—John Ganzel is no longer manager of the Rochester team, of the International League. President Charles T. Chapin issued this statement yesterday: "The request of John Ganzel to be relieved of the management of the Rochester club has been granted. Ganzel, we are informed, has chosen to better himself and we have released him. His successor has not been appointed." It is understood Ganzel has an offer to go to the Federal League.

WARHOP FREE AGENT

Special to The Telegraph.
New York, Aug. 18.—Jack Warhop, who has been a member of the New York American League pitching staff since 1909, was given his unconditional release yesterday. Warhop objected to a transfer to the Richmond club of the International League, which obtained Catcher Sweeney and First Baseman Mullen last week.

Former Harrisburg Horse Breaks Leg at Cleveland

Junior Barongale, a trotter formerly owned by B. F. Ober, a local liveryman, broke his right foreleg in a race at Cleveland, O., yesterday, when he stumbled and fell in cinders which had been placed on the track. The horse had already won two heats and was leading on the final turn in this heat when the accident occurred. George Finney, the driver, escaped with slight injuries.

The horse was recently purchased by York horsemen and is the third horse they have owned. One was killed shipping and another broke its leg in a similar accident. Junior Barongale was one of the most valuable horses in this city, his sale bringing the owner $2,500. His sire was sold last year to Germany for $5,000.

Was on Pension List at Lexington Breeding Fair.
Special to The Telegraph.
Lexington, Ky., Aug. 18.—Nancy Hanks, 2:04, by Happy Medium, 2:32 1/2, out of Nancy Lee, by Dictator, a member of the famous Sophy family and world's champion trotter from 1892 to 1894, died at John E. Madden's Hamburg Farm here yesterday. She was valued at $100,000 because of her record and associations, having been the mother of many famous horses. She was 29 years old.

J. E. Madden purchased the horse several years ago to pension her until her death. She will be buried in the cemetery at Hamburg Place, where other famous horses have been buried. Nancy Hanks was foaled in 1886.

RICHARDS TO QUIT CORNELL
Special to The Telegraph.
Ithaca, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Because he has not got enough money to continue his college education, Alva W. Richards, the crack Cornell high jumper and all-around athlete, may be unable to return to the university this fall, according to a letter he has written to a friend in Ithaca. Richards says he is heartbroken over the prospect of remaining out of college, and adds that he has not got the funds to complete his education. He is now visiting his parents in Utah. Richards is the most versatile athlete in Cornell's history.

BIG DOINGS FRIDAY IN POLICE CIRCLES

Harrisburg Patrolmen Meet Reading Team; Plan Royal Entertainment For Visitors

Big doings are promised in police circles Friday. The annual police charity baseball game takes place at Island Park in the afternoon. Time, 2:30. Attraction—Harrisburg patrolmen vs. Reading Municipal team. Umpire, Alderman George Hoover.

Final practice was held this afternoon for the battle. It promises to be a fierce contest. There is a reason. Harrisburg was defeated at Reading two weeks ago, score 8 to 7. Amos Drabenstadt, the local manager is after sweet revenge.

The "Jaws" Hess, who went all around the circuit on a clean drive but was called out by the umpire is the captain of local players who want to square things. He has been drilling the team in many tricks. Inside baseball is to be a feature. The local line-up will be picked after practice this afternoon.

Entertainment For Visitors
Baseball is not the only thing on the program for Friday. Mayor Ira Stratton and other city officials, are coming with the Reading team. There will be thirty-three in the party. The trip to this city will be in automobiles, arriving here at 10 o'clock.

Mayor John K. Royal, Colonel Joseph B. Hutchinson with Captain of Police Joseph P. Thompson and the local committee will take the visitors over the city on a sight-seeing trip.

Dinner will be served at Hotel Columbus at noon. The game follows, and after the battle is over the Reading visitors will be entertained in the lower hall at the board of Trade building. To date there has been a record sale of tickets, over 7,000 having been disposed of. The proceeds of the game will go to the police quick charity fund.

Grants Transfer of the Mountain House

Judge S. J. M. McCarrell yesterday morning granted the transfer of the Mountain House, Jackson township, liquor license from H. E. McLaughlin to Abraham James. McLaughlin is now in bankruptcy.

The several cases which Judge S. J. M. McCarrell came here specially from his summer home at Eaglesmere to hear were continued because of unpreparedness on the part of the principals, so that after hearing several less important motions the jurist at once started on the trip to the northern part of the State to resume his vacation.

The case of Jacob Bucel against "Jimmie" Pavonie, was postponed because of the illness of the defendant. The matter will not be heard until September 17. The proceedings involve an alleged violation of contract. Arguments in the West-Itanna, land suit, a matter that has been hanging fire in the local courts for several years was to-day continued indefinitely.

Judge McCarrell appointed James M. Alison an inspector of erection of the eighth precinct, Ninth ward, to succeed Leroy P. Wolfe, resigned.

KNOW WHAT HE WANTED

A countryman took his sweetheart into a West End theater in London. Going up to the ticket office, the girl hanging to the sleeve of his jacket, he banded down a dollar and said: "Two seats!" "Stalls?" inquired the ticket clerk. "Look here, my man," said the countryman, rather sharply; "dinna think because we come frae the country that we're cattle! Gie's two cushioned seats!"

SECOND SPEED

"A girl talks about going from one extreme to the other."
"Oh, does she?"
"And the next minute she buttons her shoe with a hairpin."
"I didn't know you'd been married so long, John."—Purple Cow.

FINAL GAME TODAY WITH PROVIDENCE

Indians Anxious to Split Even in Series; Play Chambersburg on Thursday

Harrisburg wound up the series to-day with Providence. The Indians went after the game at Island Park hard. This afternoon "Zimny" bunch was full of ginger. Everybody wanted to see an even break. This is the last appearance of the Grays in Harrisburg this season.

The Indians go to Chambersburg tomorrow for a game with the Blue Ridge League team of that place. Chambersburg is preparing a big reception for the Indians. The Harrisburg players, officials and sport writers will make the trip in automobiles. The visit to the battle will include Gettysburg and a game with Jersey City will be played at York. Saturday Jersey City plays but one game here.

The even break yesterday gave the local fans two hair-raising exhibitions. Both games belonged to Harrisburg and but for the rulings of Umpire Harrisburg in the second battle on efforts to give Providence the breaks the game would have ended in Harrisburg's favor.

Harrisburg lacked the hitting punch at critical times, but the old-time "pep" was there in fielding. Lee weakened in the tenth in the second game after he was nagged by Umpire Harporely. The scores follow:

NEWCOMB WINNER IN NATIONAL HANDICAP

Takes Championship From Large Field of Shooters at Chicago; Hawkins High Professional

Special to The Telegraph.
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 18.—Two national championships and a special event, known as the "Chicago Overture" were decided yesterday by amateur trapshooters participating in the annual Grand American Handicap week of the Interstate Association. C. H. Newcomb, of Philadelphia, won the national singles title at 10 targets, 16-yard rise, missing only one chance for a total of 99. Guy Dering, of Columbus, Wis., led a field of 50 entries in the national doubles championship, getting 91 out of a possible 100 at 16 yards. The Chicago Overture, also at 16 yards went to H. J. Rehausen of North Platte, Neb., with a count of 98. There were 220 entrants in this event.

The professionals also were busy yesterday. J. F. Dickey, Minneapolis, led the field with 97. R. R. Barber, of St. Paul was second with 96, and then came Bart Lewis, Springfield, Ill., J. H. Hawkins, Pittsburgh, Pa.; J. S. Fanning, Wilmington, Del.; F. C. Bills, Chicago; C. A. Young, Springfield, O., and L. S. German, Aberdeen, Md., each of whom scored 95.

"How about that musical comedy you promised me?" asked the manager impatiently. "You promised to have it ready for me at 3.30, and here it's almost 4 o'clock."

"Just a moment," said the author. "I've got it all done but the plot, and that won't take me five minutes."

OLD STUFF
"How about paying me for that suit I made for you two years ago?" asked the tailor.
"You surely can't expect me to pay for that suit," said the impecunious young man. "Why, it's all out of style."
