COLUMBIA HOLDS FREE ROADS MEETING

Highway Commissioner Cunningham Principal Speaker at Big Gathering at Columbia

Special to The Telegraph Columbia, Pa., Aug. 20.—Columbia was arrayed in holiday attire to-day in honor of the grand demonstration for free roads, which was held in the State Armory last night under the auspices of the Columbia Automobile Club. Private dwellings and stores were gaily decorated and the public places brilliantly illuminated last night to mark the opening of the first public meeting of the people of the county in a movement to abolish toll roads. The event surpassed the most sanguine expectations of the promoters and was attended by members of the various motor clubs from Lancaster, Harrisburg, York and other points, as well as large delegations from the Business Men's Associations in the boroughs of Lancaster county. Preceding the mass meeting in the armory where seats had been provided for fifteen hundred people, there was a parade of automobiles, headed by the Metropolitan Band in an auto truck and the Columbia Mandolin club in another. Robert J. Cunningham, State Highway Commissioner, participated in the parade and delivered an address at the meeting. Frank B. Bosch, president of the Harrisburg Motor Club, was the second speaker and an address was given by D. F. Magee, chairman of the Good Roads Committee of the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce. The meeting which was the largest of the kind ever held in the county, attracted several thousand visitors and gives Columbia the distinction of having been the first town in the county to inaugurate the movement to abolish toll roads. The committee in charge comprised Chief Burgess W. Sanderson Detwiler, who delivered the address of welcome; Alfred H. Meyers, president of the Columbia Automobile Club, who presided at the meeting; Colonel E. C. Shannon, Modie Heinman and Lieutenant N. W. Zeamer, chairman of the Boosters' Committee.

Five-Foot Fungus Found on Stump at Boiling Springs

Special to The Telegraph Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 20.—A huge fungus, probably the largest found in this section, was gathered from an old stump near Boiling Springs Park by Harry S. Markley yesterday and was an object of curiosity for the crowd of people who picnic there. It measured 5 feet in circumference and 15 inches in height and closely resembled an enormous loaf of bread. Stalagmites of an interesting nature were found by Mr. Markley in a cave near the park which he penetrated for more than 125 feet and which is considerably deeper.

Small-Size Tires Made Bigger

Tires 30 x 3 1/2 — Also 30 x 3

20% More Capacity 30% More Rubber In Side Walls $317,000 Better

Note what Goodyear users get this year on tires in smaller sizes. We have added 20 per cent to the air capacity. That adds immensely to your riding comfort, combats the blowouts and overloading that came to smaller tires. We have added 30 per cent to the rubber in the side walls, where constant bending breaks so many tires. We have made new molds—changed the whole design—because of newly-discovered ways to add to the tires' endurance.
