MACK BUYS CRANE; IN LINE-UP THIS WEEK

Scouts Pick Harrisburg Boy as Future Major Infield Star; Reports Today

"Red" Crane, crack shortstop, who was trained on the back lots of this city, and who has been setting a record pace with Richmond, will be in the Connie Mack line-up this week. Crane was purchased from Manager Jack Dunn of the International team on Saturday.

Crane came here yesterday on his way west to join the Athletics. He is much pleased because of his jump to Major League baseball. Crane has made good with Richmond. When he came to Harrisburg with Richmond four weeks ago, Harrisburg friends gave Crane a gold watch and stick pin. His work here was highly creditable.

President Gaffney Grabs Outfielder Snodgrass

Boston, Mass., Aug. 23.—President Gaffney, of the Boston Braves, announced last night that he had signed Fred Snodgrass, the old Giant outfielder, and that he will report to the Boston Club and play in the game today.

Snodgrass has not been going well with New York this season, and last week was given his unconditional release. Two other National League clubs were trying to secure him, but he preferred to play with the Braves.

He assured Mr. Gaffney that his slump with the Giants was only temporary and that he would come around all right and do good work for the Braves.

"I have not gone by," Snodgrass said today. "The change to the Boston team will do me good, and I am confident I will be in my old-time form for the rest of the season."

George T. Stallings, manager of the Braves, who was responsible for the signing of Snodgrass, believes that he will come up to all his expectations. Snodgrass will be used by the Braves in the outfield.

PICKS PHILLIES TO WIN New York, Aug. 23.—Miller J. Huggins, manager of the Cardinals, predicts that the Phillies and Brooklyn will fight it out for the National League championship flag. "These teams are getting the best pitching and hitting is everything in baseball," said the Cardinals' manager. "Boston and New York are weak in the box. McGraw has the best team he ever assembled, barring his batteries. Big James' collapse and Dick Rudolph's failure to duplicate his 1914 record have crippled the Braves. Hitting is Chicago's forte. Good twirling will stop the Cubs."

PRaise "ZIMMIE" FOR HIS GOOD WORK

Harrisburg Has Game Bunch of Players, Says Providence Writer

That International League baseball is a great asset to a city is shown by the splendid complimentary to the club and to the city written by Providence correspondent to a widely circulated sporting paper. It reads: "Speaking of Harrisburg, I must take a minute to praise the gameness of this bunch of athletes. They are the wanderers of the league, having been transferred from Newark to the Pennsylvania Capital, but a pluckier or a gamer team seldom is seen. They won two out of five games from the champions and if their pitching staff had not been badly shot it's a question if the Indians would not have landed on the long end.

New Football Rules Show Minor Changes

Football rule makers announce that changes in rules this year will be few. They will also be of minor importance. Stugging, and other rough house tactics will be eliminated. Most of the teams will number the players. The forward pass when out of bounds will include a penalty. The rules in which changes appear follow: A forward pass is caught simultaneously by a member of the passer's side and by an opponent. Ruled: Possession of the ball belongs to side putting the ball into play.

Barney Dreyfuss Makes Charge Against Feds

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 23.—Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh National League club, claims that he has knowledge of an effort made by federal agents to take Al Mamaux, the pitcher, away from the Pirates. Dreyfuss said that it was not for the purpose of having him play in any games this season, but the rebels have offered him a large salary if he will remain idle the remainder of the year and sign up with the Federals next year to play. LLOYD GEORGE—THE MAN

Being by profession a solicitor, it is surprising to learn that Mr. Lloyd George takes a keen interest in criminal cases. He will follow the evidence of a big murder trial very closely, and will afterwards describe to you, in course of conversation, what either he would have put on the witness and what verdict he would have given if he had been in the jury. I once asked him, "Were you fond of the late Mrs. Manning's advocacy," he replied, "and, on the whole, the six years during which I practiced were very happy, although," he said, reflectively, "I do not know whether I should care to resume my former professional labors. I had one serious drawback—I never sent in any bills of costs. The result was I never had any money. But when my brother joined catch in prison, I resumed my advocacy in that respect. I must confess, however, that I hated the office work."

PAINTING MACHINES WHITE TO AID IN LIGHTING

"That good lighting in the work-shop not only facilitates the work directly, but is of the greatest indirect value because of the feeling of security and cheerfulness given the workers, is a fact that is becoming more generally recognized every day," says the August Popular Mechanics Magazine, in an illustrated article. "Indirect artificial lighting has long been in use, and recently there has developed a movement for increasing the effect of daylight by means of white enamel. For this purpose a white, oil-proof enamel that will not turn yellow if kept clean, is used, both the ceiling of the shop and the machines material. It is reported that remarkable results in the way of better lighting and the elimination of shadows are obtained in this way."
