Figures Made Public Today Show Value of Goods to Be $2,768,600,000

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—The United States for the first time in its history now leads the world as an exporter.

Figures made public to-day by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce show that American exports in the fiscal year ended June 30 last totaled $2,768,600,000, compared with $2,170,100,000 for the United Kingdom, the next largest exporter. American exports included domestic products valued at $2,716,200,000, against $2,239,700,000 in 1914, and foreign exports, $52,400,000, against $34,900,000 in the preceding year. British exports included British and Irish produce, $1,744,100,000, against $2,557,200,000 in 1914, and foreign and colonial produce, $426,900,000, compared with $526,500,000 in 1914.

Frank L. Polk Gets Place Palmer Expected

Special to The Telegraph

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—President Wilson will tender the appointment of Counsellor of the State Department in a few days to Frank L. Polk, corporation counsel of the city of New York.

Secretary Lansing is understood to have selected Mr. Polk for the counsellorship.

This disclosure, which comes from a high administration authority, shows clearly that the friends of ex-Representative A. Mitchell Palmer have realized the inadvisability of further urging him for the counsellorship.

Until a few days ago, when disclosures were published regarding a mysterious White House visitor who was described by the initials "M. P." and who apparently got information from the President which was passed on to agents of the German Government, Mr. Palmer was believed to be under favorable consideration for the counsellorship.

Mr. Palmer himself has issued a statement denying emphatically that he was the "M. P." referred to in the newspaper disclosures.

MOTOR TO THE SEASHORE

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Keffer and Miss Nancy Keffer of Woodbine street, Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Trout and Miss Helen Trout, of 2143 North Second street, are planning an automobile trip to Atlantic City next week, remaining there over Labor Day and the week-end.

The Rev. H. W. Hartsock, pastor of the church, presided over the session and after a song or two heartily given by the sixty guests the Rev. Dr. Silas C. Swallow spoke, telling of a great meeting held by the Rev. Dr. Colburn and himself nearly twenty years ago when over a hundred people professed conversion and eighty of these joined in organizing the Camp Hill Methodist Church.

The Rev. Dr. R. H. Colburn, who, with Mrs. Colburn, was a guest of Dr. Swallow last evening at Crest Nest, was introduced and in a timely and clever speech congratulated the society on their interest in church and civic affairs and said he hoped they might soon have their rights with the ballot.

Then came the supper, with dozens of luscious roasting ears disposed of, with all the accompaniments. Louis Bricker, the West Shore "bread king," and Mr. Wierman, the "coal baron" of White Hill, furnished automobile transportation for all the guests.

GARRISON'S ORDERS TO BE CARRIED OUT

Secretary Takes Occasion to Comment on Roosevelt's Latest Statement

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—Secretary Garrison made public to-day Major General Wood's reply to the Secretary's telegram of yesterday directing that no repetition be permitted of the incident at the Plattsburg camp precipitated by former President Roosevelt's speech to the men in training there.

"Your telegram received and policy laid down will be rigidly adhered to," General Wood telegraphed.

"I have just read Mr. Roosevelt's statement," said Secretary Garrison in a statement to-day. "I see he blames the whole thing on me. He takes the position that it is notorious that he is in the habit of making indiscreet speeches and that it, therefore, was my duty to find out if he intended to go to Plattsburg and if so to head him off and save him from himself. Well, maybe that's so, but that is a rather large order. He is a very active man and I am a very busy one and it's going to be a pretty hard job for me to keep my eye on him all the time. The Colonel's attitude about himself reminds me of the story of the Maine farmer, who was on his way to the railroad station one morning when he met a friend. 'Where you going?' said the friend. 'Where you going?' said the other. 'I'm going down to Bangor to get drunk—and great Lord, how I do dread it!'"

Col. Roosevelt Rallies to Gen. Wood's Defense

Special to The Telegraph

New York, Aug. 27.—Colonel Roosevelt rallied yesterday to the support of his friend, General Leonard Wood, who was reprimanded by the War Department for permitting the Colonel to make his Plattsburg speech attacking the national policy. He issued a statement in which he said Secretary Garrison could not have been ignorant of Colonel Roosevelt's announced intention of speaking at the camp, and that he had made any objection to his going. Mr. Garrison should not criticize General Wood "because I was there or because I did not submit my speech in advance to the administration for approval." He said that in his speech he had not once mentioned the President or the administration.

Cleanse The Blood Banish Rheumatism

Rheumatism Due to Bad Blood. S. S. S. Your Remedy

Thousands have been made well. People in the poorest health, suffering from Rheumatism, with whom pain was constant. Who believed that their vitality was sapped beyond repair. It was proven to them that the cause of their trouble was the blood; that Uric Acid, the most faithful ally of Rheumatism, had gripped them. The poison in the blood had sapped its strength. The weakened blood had allowed poison and impurities to accumulate, and all energy was gone. They felt "poorly," were listless, pain was ever present, with poor digestion and dyspepsia. They tried S. S. S., nature's blood tonic. They gave up drugs. This compound of nature's remedies of roots and herbs did what drugs failed to do. It literally washed the blood free from poison, and with the flow of pure blood came back health, strength, vigor and happiness. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. Insist upon S. S. S. in your purchase. Yours is a long standing case, write for special advice to S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga., but begin taking S. S. S. at once.
