Mrs. Anna M. Luckey, of Cincinnati, O., Guest of Relatives at Ephrata

K. G. E. MEETING NEXT WEEK

Big Parade Will Be Held Saturday, With Frank B. Skeen as Marshal

Ephrata, Pa., Sept. 11.—Mrs. Anna M. Luckey, of Cincinnati, Ohio, arrived in Ephrata on Monday for a visit to relatives here in the East. Mrs. Luckey was born in Donegal, Lancaster county, and with her parents, moved to Ohio while she was yet a child. She visited her friends in Eastern Pennsylvania in the early sixties and now, after a lapse of more than fifty years, is again looking up her friends. Mrs. Luckey is a daughter of the late Rev. Solomon VonNeida, who in his early ministry preached for the United Brethren congregations at Myerstown, Reading and Hummelstown and in 1853 was transferred to Circleville, O., where he took charge of the "Religious Telescope," the official organ of the United Brethren Church. Mrs. Luckey is being entertained by her cousin, D. S. Von Neida, of Ephrata. The convention of the Lancaster county Castles of the Knights of the Golden Eagle which will be held in Ephrata on Saturday, September 12, will be a large attended gathering. A feature will be the parade, with Frank H. Skeen, of Fulton Castle, No. 419, of Lancaster, as chief marshal. There are twenty-nine castles of the order in Lancaster county, with a membership of about 3,000. Otto Olson, United States Government tobacco expert, and E. W. Wastler, both of Ephrata, are engaged in harvesting several fine lots of tobacco of different varieties at experiment stations at Landisville, Williamsport, Ephrata and other places.
