Style Exclusiveness Marks This Showing of Fur-Trimmed and Tailleur Suits

The Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart outer garment showing for the Fall season is one that no well dressed woman can afford to miss, for the reason that the section devoted to feminine apparel has gathered an assemblage of styles that cannot be seen outside of the most exclusive shops in larger cities. The distinguishing features of this ultra fashionable showing is that the prices, even of the finest reproductions, have been brought down to a basis that will make an appeal to the average woman.

The range of cloths and styles is admirably complete; there are tailleur and braid-trimmed modes for the woman who does not fancy the use of fur and the variety of colors is broad enough to satisfy the most exacting tastes.

In the new showing for Fall are to be found many lovely dress styles in serge and taffeta or in serge and charmeuse combinations. Prices are uniformly interesting.
