U. B. CONFERENCE PLANS EXTENSION

and several big cities are after it, is the report.

To Ordain Candidates

Three candidates will be ordained Sunday morning at 10 o'clock by Bishop W. M. Weekley, who is presiding at the conference sessions. They are: C. G. Reiter, of Harrisburg, and P. M. Holdeman, Committees on third and fourth year reading courses reported as follows: Third year course: C. L. Earley, P. M. Holdeman and W. E. Shoop advanced the Quincey Forest fourth year: C. L. Earley, retained, and P. M. Holdeman, passed for ordination.

The publishing interests report given by the Rev. Dr. S. Edwin Rupp showed an increase in this work, but the committee asked for a wider circulation. The Rev. Dr. Lowery, urged the pastor to get more subscriptions for several of the conference papers and asserted that the Conference Herald should have a circulation of at least 3,000. The Rev. Joseph Daugherty then reported on Conference Publications.

Salary Raiser Falls

The minimum salary limit of $700 was not raised. The resolution to this effect was passed unanimously and without comment this morning.

Reading Trinity United Brethren Church was authorized to sell the present site at once and rebuild at Fifth and Spring streets, that city, or at any other place which the church decides upon. The resolution calling for this action was honored by Conference Superintendent Lowery and was passed. The name of the Refton charge was changed to West Willow and Refton.

Pastors were asked to submit the important statistics of their annual report for next year at least two weeks before the one hundred and seventeenth conference opens so that a complete report can be made to the committee in charge. The report on homes was given this morning by the Rev. A. Lehman, of Palmyra. The Rev. E. A. Stiles, of State Street United Brethren Church, was appointed chorister of the present sessions.

Institutional Work

The Rev. Dr. Stinespring, of Baltimore, Md., business manager and field secretary of the Quincey Home and Orphanage, gave a short account of the work done in that institution. He B. H. Harnish, Carlisle, superintendent of the Pennsylvania branch of the World's Purity Federation, also spoke at the session.

Sessions this afternoon were devoted to mission work. The feature of the reports offered was a statement in the report of the Rev. S. Edwin Rupp, secretary of the conference branch foreign missionary committee, who said that owing to the present war in Europe trouble was experienced in getting new missionaries to foreign fields. He also reported the hindrance to the work in China due to the recent floods there.

Fells of Openings

The Rev. Joseph Daugherty, secretary of the home mission committee, gave a report showing the work done by that branch of the church during the last ten years. He urged taking advantage of present openings in Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Pottsville, Easton, Bethlehem, West Chester and a number of smaller towns, advocating the establishing of missions there. The records for the year showed 274 missions established with 27,189 members enrolled through the mission work. The total donations was $848,294.84, turned in to the conference. Of this $310,900 was paid for maintenance, showing a net gain of more than $500,000.

The Rev. Mr. Daugherty also spoke of the importance of home missions on missionary education. He approved of the work of the Women's Missionary Association and the Church Extension Society. He advocated a special season of thanksgiving during November, during which time special efforts should be made for the benefit of home missions.

Speakers this afternoon were Bishop A. T. Howard, of Dayton, Ohio, bishop of foreign mission work, and the Rev. Dr. J. S. Kendall, general secretary of the church finance commission.

Bishop Howard spoke on missionary work and the Rev. Mr. Kendall on the missions and financial system advocated yesterday by Dr. Lowery. The following were guests this morning: The conference sessions: The Rev. Dr. J. S. Fulton, conference district superintendent, of Allegheny; the Rev. Dr. J. R. Hutchison, from the Pennsylvania conference district; the Rev. Dr. W. O. Fries, of Dayton, Ohio, editor-in-chief of Sunday school literature; the Rev. A. P. Ryan, of Pennsylvania conference; the Rev. Dr. Deever, of Dayton, Ohio, and the Rev. Ellis N. Kremer, pastor of Reformed Salem Church, this city.

This evening an illustrated lecture will be given on "Publishing Interests" by the Rev. Dr. W. R. Funk. This lecture will give to show the importance of the church publications to the members of the congregations in every United Brethren church.

WOMAN'S EMBLEM CONTINUES TOUR

Bell Is Welcomed in Regal "Style by Suffragists; Hold Rousing Meeting

MRS. JOHN OENSLAGER

Who Presided at Suffrage Bell Rally

Continuing its triumphant tour of the county the suffrage liberty bell to-day invaded Hummelstown, Hershey, Highspire, Hummelstown and Steelton.

A each stop it was met by large delegations of suffragists who received the speakers with wild enthusiasm. The bell will return to the city tonight after a rally at Steelton.

Harrisburg welcomed the bell in royal style, last evening. It was met at Front and Division streets by scores of suffragists in automobiles decorated with "Votes for Women" signs and gay yellow streamers. The machines fell in line back of the truck bearing the bell and headed by the Municipal Band, traversed many of the principal streets of the city before falling out in Market Square.

2,000 in Square

Fully 2,000 persons, the majority men, packed about the truck in Market Square last evening to hear the speakers plead for votes for the suffrage amendment. Mrs. John Oenslager presided and introduced Miss Emma MacAlarney of this city, and Miss Adella Potter, of Brooklyn.

Miss MacAlarney after reminding the city of the progress made in the last fifteen years, said that Harrisburg owes much of its advancement to women. She reminded the men that the club women have ever been in the forefront in carrying out and inaugurating improvements and that they virtually initiated the movement for a better and more beautiful city.

The speaker concluded by telling that these same women who have been responsible for much of the civic advancement were asking for a share in its government and in the government of the State and she asked if any man in the crowd would question their right to it.

In the Parade

Among the women who were in the parade yesterday afternoon were: Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, county chairman; Mrs. John Oenslager, Jr., city chairman; Miss Helen C. Clark, Mrs. Frank A. HARRISBURG RAILWAYS EARNINGS $910.72

this is caused primarily by the jitneys, bad weather, the number of unemployed people, and possibly to some slight extent, but by the increased use of automobiles; but we attribute 90 per cent. of it to the operation of the jitney. Owing to the sudden and rapid growth of this business and the fact that in its early stages municipal control of it was necessarily experimental, the jitneys have been permitted to operate during the summer upon the payment to the city of a nominal license fee of $5.00, and "without further regulation, or without being required to assume any of the cost of maintenance of the streets in which they operate, or to pay additional taxes."

"The Harrisburg Railways Company has paid during the year 1914 in State and other taxes and repairs to streets and bridges the sum of $30,745. If it had not been tax any heavier in proportion than the jitneys, it would be possible to pay the usual dividend from earnings.

"The management feels that unregulated competition of this character can not be continued for an indefinite period without great unfairness to those interested in the company."

It was expected that the dividend for 1915 would be six per cent, but as one 2½ per cent. was paid in April and the second half yields but one per cent. the actual cut for the year is 2½ per cent. And the outlook for the April dividend, in view of the present distribution having been made from surplus, is said to be rather gloomy.

BRIDGE BIDS NOT IN PROPER FORM

Cunningham Rejects a Number For Errors and Gives Notice Work Must Be Done

Ninety-three bids were received by the State Highway Department this morning for the erection of 20 bridges on State Highway routes in different parts of Pennsylvania. In opening the bids, State Highway Commissioner Cunningham announced to the bidders that the policy of the department during this administration would be to require the completion of the work at the time and in the manner prescribed in the specifications. As the bids were open, the State Highway Commissioner frequently called attention to irregularities in the manner of bidding and declared with emphasis that all bids not properly made would be thrown out and that the contracts would not be awarded except to responsible bidders whose bids had been properly made out and who had agreed to complete the work at the time specified by the State Highway Department.

Inasmuch as the list of bids was so lengthy, the Commissioner announced that the awards would not be made until 4 o'clock this afternoon by which time the auditors of the State Highway Department would have completed the checking up of the bids.

The counties and townships in which the proposed bridges are to be erected are as follows:

Pike county, Milford and Dingman townships Cameron county, Shippen township (2); Monroe county, Stroud township; Center and Clearfield (county line); Wyoming county, Falls township; Susquehanna county, Great Bend township; Monroe county, Paradise township; Susquehanna county, Clifford township; Susquehanna county, Gibson township; Sullivan county, Davidson township; Wyoming county, Eaton township; Susquehanna county, Brooklyn township; Butler county, Penn township; Elk county, Ridgeway township; Monroe county, Polk township; Monroe county, Hamilton township; Monroe county, Pocono township; Beaver county, Raccoon township.

MRS. FISHEL DIES

Mrs. Emma Smarsh Fishel, aged 50, 1425 Regima street, died this morning. Death was due to diabetes. Besides the husband, B. F. Fishel, the survivors are: One son, Edward E. Fishel, and four daughters, Mrs. Glenn Hammond and Mrs. George W. Stoner, West Fairview; Mrs. J. S. Whitcomb, and Miss Rose. The funeral will take place Saturday morning. Services will be held at the Catholic church, Mechanicsburg, at 9 o'clock. Burial will be made at the same place.
