CHILDREN GIVE LITTLE PLAYLET

Open Air Performance to Raise Money For the Industrial Home

Several small girls who are greatly interested in the Children's Industrial Home decided to make a donation to that institution, securing the money for their gift by producing a little playlet called "Thorn Rose," which is really the story of the "Sleeping Beauty" that everyone loves.

The youngsters made all the arrangements themselves and sold tickets for 2 and 3 cents each, according to the desirability of seats, and gave an open-air performance in the yard of the Louis Moog residence, 226 Bond street at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The stage settings were complete even to the curtain which rolled back and forth without a hitch. The children sang and danced and took their parts just as well as grown-ups. When the treasury was opened and all bills totaled, the net was just $1.40 to give to the Home.

The cast for "Thorn Rose" included, Queen, Edith Mary Bell; Princess, Anna Margaret Moog; Prince, Clarence Baum; Nurse, Christine Goudy; Witch, Mary Swartz; Fairies, Cecelia Tausig, Blanche Tausig, Mildred Claster and Sara Moog.
