

PERSONAL SOCIAL

ELECT FOUR GIRLS ON STAFF OF CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL PAPER

MARGARET WINGARD

SARA MORGAN

HELEN FERGUSON

LUCILE SMUCKER

Typical of the feminist movement is the election of four girls to responsible positions on the staff of the Central High School Argus.

Ever since the founding of the Argus many years back, girls have been trying for places on the school publication.

The girls with the offices they hold are as follows: Lucile Smucker, social; Margaret Wingard, exchange; Helen Ferguson, arts and Sara Morgan, circulation manager.

HOLD CORNROAST SATURDAY NIGHT

Progressive Girls' Club of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church Enjoys Outing

Walking from their uptown homes to Spooky Hollow, members of the Progressive Girls' Club of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church held a corn roast early Saturday evening with Miss Grove and Miss Saddler chaperoning the party.

They roasted corn, potatoes, apples and meat in the embers and had toasted marshmallows for dessert. The party included: Miss L. La Vene Grove, Miss Esther Saddler, the Misses Mildred Gallagher, Hazel Gallagher, Marie Wagner, Mildred Roads, Frances Forney, Helen Wise, Pauline Rife, Margaret Good, Margaret Martz, Dorothy Martz, Mary Devard, Katherine Rife, Mary Rodney, Mary Roberts, Jean Tippett, Romaine Tippett, Evelyn Wright, Margaret Romberger, Frances Burkholder, Esther Stence, Emily Smith and Elizabeth Hoyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Fry of Paxtang spent the week-end with relatives at Newville and Doubling Gap.

Miss Hazel Rosenberger is improving in health after a long illness caused by an infected finger.

Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Thorington have gone home to Ithaca, N. Y., after a short stay with their relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Barnes, in this city.

Edward Boyer, who has been critically ill at his home, 213 Pine street, for the past week is unchanged in condition to-day.

Mrs. Theodore Carl, of Chambersburg, has returned after a visit in this city.

W. J. Randall, a contractor, of Lebanon, was in the city on business Saturday.

Miss Natalie Stewart and Miss Maude Stewart of Philadelphia are guests of their cousin, Miss Nellie Murdoch of State street, for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Deane and small daughter Doris Deane, left today for their home at Rochester, N. Y., after a brief visit among old friends in this city.

Miss Helen Graves and her sister, Miss Mollie Graves, of Pittsburgh, are guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Hartman of Penn street for the week.

Miss Nelle Spangler and her niece, Little Miss May Wilson, left today for their home in Johnstown after a visit with their aunt, Mrs. Anna F. Boyce of State street.

Country Club Luncheon For Out-of-Town Guests

Miss Edith Walton and Harold Walton of East Orange, N. J., are visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Hall at Gilbert Hall, their country place, were guests of honor at luncheon Saturday at the Country Club of Harrisburg, with Vance C. McCormick as host.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted, Miss Edith Walton, Miss Esther Cleveland, of Princeton, N. J.; Miss Harriet Nauman, of Lancaster; Miss Louise Boyd, Miss Anne McCormick, Miss Mary B. Robinson, Miss Margaretta Fleming, Harold Walton, Thomas Graham, of York; Francis J. Brady, John Erickson, Carl B. Ely, Jackson Herr Boyd, and James Boyd.

Albert M. Hamer of Second and Herr streets is attending a house party for several days at Duncannon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson and son, 2005 Green street, motored to Atlantic City for a week-end stay.

Mrs. John W. Hay, of 1402 North Third street, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. McKnight at Gettysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Bent Leonard Weaver, of 1721 North Second street, have returned home after spending several weeks at Hotel Traymore, in Atlantic City.

REMOVING FROM THE CITY

Miss Laura Shaw entertained informally Friday evening at her home, 624 Keiker street, complimentary to Miss Claire Edgar, who left Saturday for her new home in Chester, Pa., and Oliver Kitchen who has accepted a position in Boston, Mass. Those present were Miss Edgar, Miss Lily Evans, Miss Shaw, Stanton Lind, Howard Kitchen and Oliver Kitchen.

Entertain the Choir of Tabernacle Church

Mr. and Mrs. John Arva of Penbrook pleasantly entertained the choir of Tabernacle Baptist church with a few of their friends at a wiener roast. The party left the city in a large automobile truck and arriving in the country built a big fire in which the wieners and potatoes were roasted. Seated about the embers stories were told and old songs sung.

In attendance were the Misses Bessie Hall, Ruth Willoughby, Ruth Weaver, Catherine Macklin, Blanche Linsey, Beryl Kawel, Mabel Hall, Ethel Wald and Evelyn Wald, John Little, Charles Short, Fred Milligan, Walter, William Swartz, Philip Arva, William Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. John Arva.

Many Household Gifts For Miss Romaine Fromm

Miss Romaine Fromm of Hummelstown was the guest of honor at a shower given by Miss Betty Belle Shunk at her home, 43 North Seventeenth street. Miss Fromm who will be the bride of Jason F. Slack of Middletown, received beautiful household gifts and receipt book filled by her friends from their own "best sellers." Music and a supper were enjoyed by Miss Carolyn Buttrif, of Carlisle; Miss Catherine Still, Miss Emily Toller, Miss Catherine Lyter, Miss Pearl Tagg, Miss Ethel Page, Miss Elizabeth Hatz and Miss Mary Shunk.

Miss Laura Dock Falls Into a Country Spring

Miss Laura Dock of Graeffensburg, a former Harrisburger and sister of Miss Mira Lloyd Dock has been spending the latter part of the summer at Homespun, Buchanan Valley, a somewhat romantic old spot in a secluded quarter of that beautiful retreat.

In procuring water from a spring near the house her feet slipped and she was precipitated into the deep water. Her muffled screams for assistance brought a maid, who was some distance away, to her help, but it was with difficulty that she was rescued.

The injuries Miss Dock sustained were not serious although at first quite alarming. A few slight scratches on the cheeks now only remain to annoy her.

EVENTS IN GOLF AT COUNTRY CLUB

Walley Davis Wins Cup; Tournaments For Men and Women Announced

W. Walley Davis won the cup offered for annual competition in the handicap medal play by Casper Dull on Saturday at the Country Club of Harrisburg. The scoring was the best nine in eighteen holes and Mr. Davis got 24 net. Casper Dull and C. B. Miller were second with 25. Frank Payne, George H. Brown and Carl B. Ely were third with 26. There were about thirty-five entries.

Next Saturday the annual elimination tournament will start at the Country Club. The winner will take the Board of Governor's Trophy and there will be two other cups. The entries will close on October 14 and should be made either to A. Boyd Hamilton or Robert McCreath of the golf committee. The drawings will be announced Friday. This event will run until October 30 when a Tombstone event will be held on the closing day.

A four days' golf tournament at the Country club of Harrisburg for women has been announced by Mrs. Walter H. Gaither, beginning next Friday and continuing the first three days of next week. Cups will be offered by Frank Payne.

The first day will be devoted to the qualifying rounds, and the participants will hand their total scores for eighteen holes to the professional, Mr. Dinan. It is intended to divide the players into three or more flights of eight, and in this manner every player will have an opportunity. At the end of the tournament it is hoped to have a mixed foursome, as the one held a week ago was so successful.

MOTOR TRIP TO EASTON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kunkel of 221 North Front street are home after an automobile trip to Easton where they visited their son, Professor Beverly Vaughn Kunkel of Lafayette College and his family who have recently removed there from the west.

Mrs. Samuel Wittenmyer of Front and Woodbine streets is spending several days with friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, 117 State street, entertained at dinner and a theater party on Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Edith Walton and Harold Walton of East Orange, N. J., who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Hall.

STORK NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Knoll of 1745 North Sixth street, announce the birth of a daughter, Emeline Ernestine Knoll, Saturday, October 9, 1915. Mrs. Knoll was formerly Miss Emille Pfeiffer of Omaha, Nebraska, and Mr. Knoll is a Telegraph artist.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Perry of 2139 Green street, announce the birth of a daughter on Friday, October 8, 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hauok, 1418 Swatara street announce the birth of a daughter, Harriet Lucile Hauok, on Saturday, Oct. 2, 1915. Mrs. Hauok was formerly Miss Grace Lesh.

BELL-ANS Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25c at all druggists.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Miss Eleanor E. Walter

Modern Folk Classic & Gymnastic Dancing

8 N. MARKET SQUARE

Bell Phone. Rooms 308-309.

THE FRENCH SHOP

MISS SWOPE

"The Reynard" 208 N. Third St.

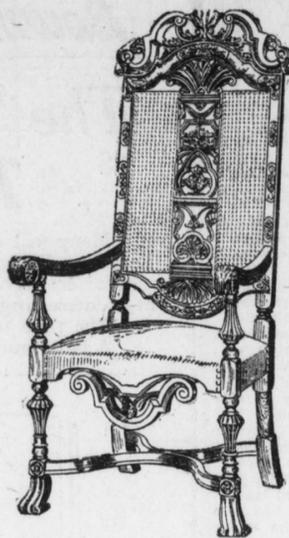

Three Minutes From Market Street

Three minutes—that's all it takes to walk from Market street to this bright, cheerful, little store for women who seek the exclusive in dress accessories.

Despite the fact that everything is "so different" prices are no greater. Out-of-the-ordinary ideas are now being shown.

Fashionable Neckwear—Evening Trimmings—Jests—Fur Bands. Handkerchiefs and Hosiery for men and women.

J. S. Belsinger Exclusive Optical Store 205 LOCUST ST. Opp. Orpheum Eyes Examined (no drops). All Work Guaranteed.

Goldsmith Furniture FALL 1915

WE OPEN the Fall Season with everything that is new, reliable and fashionable in Furniture and Draperies. Important features are the Moderate Prices and Unequaled Assortments.

DININGROOM SUITES — in Oak, Mahogany and American Walnut. Queen Anne, Hepplewhite, Adam, Jacobean, Sheraton and Colonial styles represented.

BEDROOM FURNITURE — In all the light and other woods including American Walnut, French, English and Colonial Periods.

LIVINGROOM FURNITURE — A wonderful collection of individual pieces and suites, featuring reproductions of all periods.

We Invite You to Inspect This Furniture Exposition

GOLDSMITH'S FOR GOOD FURNITURE Walnut to Locust above Second.

DERRY ST. U. B. RALLY SUCCESS

All Attendance Records Broken With 1,237; Brough's and Men's Class High

What proved to be a most successful rally day ever held by any church on the Hill was an event yesterday at the Derry Street United Brethren Church, Fifteenth and Derry streets.

The church was decorated with American flags, potted plants and pennants presenting a pleasing effect to the hundreds who crowded the church at all services. The morning service was notable for the masterful sermon on "The Sunday School and the Church," delivered by Dr. Lyter, who yesterday began his seventeenth year as pastor of Derry street.

At the Sunday school service at 2 p. m. all records for attendance was broken when the secretary announced a total of 1237 present. The entire school met together and presented a thrilling sight and great enthusiasm prevailed.

The school was addressed by Dr. Lyter, H. L. Carl and O. P. Beckley. At the evening service the address was delivered by the Rev. Warren L. Bunker of Greensburg, Pa., one of the recognized live wires of the United Brethren Church. J. E. Gipple, superintendent, presented the honors of the schools to class No. 4, taught by A. E. Brough for having the greatest number of efficiency points during the past year. The Men's Bible Class stood second and received honorable men-

FUN FOR SMALL BOYS

Russell Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wareham S. Baldwin of 2027 North Second street celebrated his seventh birthday Saturday. Mrs. Baldwin invited seven little lads to attend the motion pictures with him and they all enjoyed Charley Chaplin and his funny pranks. Afterward there were games and refreshments at the Baldwin home.

HAGY-TRICKEL WEDDING

Miss Mary M. Trickel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Trickel of Wyomissing and Elmer E. Hagy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hagy of this city, took place Saturday evening at the bride's home, with the Rev. H. E. Fasnacht, of the United Evangelical church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Hagy will make their home here, where the bridegroom is connected with the P. & R. Co.

Miss Irene Leonard of 1631 Green street, is home after a visit to Brandywine Manor.

Miss Shipley and Miss Catherine Shipley of the Misses Shipley's school, Bryn Mawr, are visiting Mrs. John C. Stine at The Reynard, North Third street.

J. Meetch Stroup TEACHER OF PIANO 1617 N. Second St. Bell Phone

TO ADDRESS ENGINEERS

O. E. Hunt, chief engineer of the Packard Motor Car Company will address the Engineers' Society, Friday, October 15, on "How Many Cylinders?" illustrating the talk with pictures. Members of the Harrisburg Motor Club will be guests of the occasion.

TWO SONG RECITALS

—by— Jane Tuttle

Dramatic Soprano and Assisting Artists

Fahnestock Hall

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING SECOND AND LOCUST STS. Oct. 11-12 (Monday-Tuesday) 8:15 P. M., 1915.

Single Admission, One Dollar

Dr. Keim Dentist

Removed to Kunkel Building Third and Market Sts.

M. MALL

Ladies' Tailor, 266 Herr St. Is showing complete Fall and Winter styles and materials for Ladies' Suits. Our prices are extremely reasonable.

Lood at the Store Windows This Week

Merchants, at the invitation of the newspapers, are joining in a mighty continent-wide window display.

They are showing the goods made familiar to the public through newspaper advertising.

They have prepared some very interesting and attractive windows, which are designated by this sign:

INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER DISPLAY WEEK We Sell These Standard Products— All Advertised in the DAILY NEWSPAPERS

The goods will interest you. The windows are attractive and the whole display is a progressive move for better business.

Spend a few minutes looking over the attractive shows our storekeepers have made ready.

Better times always begin at the dealer's counter —and Window Week is a business builder.

Newspaper Window Week October 11-16