

DEMOCRATIC PEACE RALLY

Club Tries to Overcome Fritchey Banner Soreness; "Pass-Key" Night

Democratic bosses last night lined up the Democratic candidates for county offices that they could get hold of and held a meeting in the rooms of the Central Democratic club in an attempt to overcome the bad effect caused by stringing of a banner from the club windows declaring for Dr. C. Albert Fritchey for recorder and no one else. As there were several candidates present they helped materially to swell the crowd. The rooms have a capacity on sandwich nights or when gubernatorial candidates come around of something like 157. There was plenty of standing room left last night and the "utmost harmony" prevailed regarding seating accommodations.

Candidates, men who wanted to be candidates and some men who want to be candidates some other time relieved their minds. It was the latest day in a campaign in which the opening Democratic meeting has ever been held in the county and it was freely commented upon around town last night that if the blunder of throwing out Fritchey's banner had not been committed there would have been no meeting as scant encouragement has been given to the sandwich fund this year and some top liners, who visited the club last year, have not been around since 1915 began.

It is understood that the club set aside its rule against admitting any one not a Democrat and not holding a pass key in order to squeeze in a couple of the fusion gangsters' candidates, but they were not cordially received except by the bosses, some of the candidates, two of the defeated candidates and a half dozen of the hope-to-be candidates. Verily, the issues of the campaign from a straight Democratic standpoint were set forth, but not in the speeches.

Miss Bertha Cofrode Dies From Typhoid-Pneumonia

Special to The Telegraph Dauphin, Oct. 21.—Word was received here this morning of the death of Miss Bertha Cofrode at her home in Johnstown, Pa., from typhoid-pneumonia. She was a frequent visitor to this place and was widely known both here and through the surrounding country.

Miss Cofrode usually spent the greater portion of the summer here with her aunt, Miss Cora S. S. Cofrode and grandmother, Mrs. Mary Cofrode. Soon after returning home less than a month ago she was stricken with typhoid. Later pneumonia developed and for the last two weeks physician despaired of her recovery. In addition to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Cofrode, survivors are a sister, Mrs. Edward White, and brother, William, of Johnstown. Mrs. Walter Speece, of Speeceville, and Mrs. C. W. Welker, of Dauphin, are aunts.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

To Reinspect Meat Stands in November Reinspection of the stands of meat dealers in the city markets will be made November 10 and November 13 by Drs. William V. Hughes and G. A. Zimmerman, city food inspectors, together with members of the State Livestock Sanitary Board, when warning will be given all dealers who have not complied with the new State law requiring them to keep their products properly screened from insects. The mass meeting held yesterday in Courtroom No. 2 resulted in the appointment of a committee to arrange a date for a second meeting. The committee consists of E. Grant Patton, chairman, Charles Stauffer, H. C. Koons, Benjamin F. Moses, T. F. Shetter and J. A. Rishel. The committee will present a report offering suggestions of methods to be used by the dealers to be used in screening the meats and in keeping people from handling the products. Another meeting will probably be held November 3. MEMBERS PLAN FOR NEW YEAR'S PARADE Members of the Harrisburg Mummies' Association met last night and discussed plans for New Year's Day. The president, R. Ross Seaman, was authorized to name committees. The canvass of the city for contributions will start early next week. Letters were read from Mayor John K. Royal, John C. Kindler, fire chief, and many organizations promising support. To date acceptances have been received from forty-five organizations. The mummies hope to raise $1,000 prizes. FARM IMPLEMENTS FOR BRAZIL Special to The Telegraph Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 21.—This week the Emerson-Brantingham will ship a carload of farming implements and three carloads of tractors and implements to Rio Janeiro, Brazil.

CRITICISES TREND OF EDUCATION Dr. MacCracken, New Lafayette College Head, Delivers Keen Address Special to The Telegraph Easton, Oct. 21.—Addresses of vital interest to everyone were delivered by several of the most prominent residents of the State at the ceremonies incident to the induction of Dr. John Henry MacCracken as president of Lafayette College yesterday. The trend of the educational methods as they exist in substantially every college in the East was by President MacCracken in his inaugural speech. He sternly criticized the attitude of college graduates toward learning, declaring that they do not attach importance to the aims of the course of study. "Do we Americans generally prize very highly the knowledge which the college curriculum purports to impart?" demanded Doctor MacCracken. "Do we not rather all agree that the majority of college students do not know, five years after graduation, what they gave sufficient evidence of knowing to pass the college examinations?" He suggested a State University where anyone may find instruction in anything, as a solution. The address of the morning was made by Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation. The theme of his speech was an allusion to some of the tendencies of the times that are vicious and dangerous to society and to civilization and that if they are unchecked they may imperial property and life and even national government. He said that these tendencies will probably be checked in this country, first, because of the elimination by the representatives of capital of all grounds for just complaint, and, secondly, by great and worthy colleges and universities and other kindred institutions. Brumbaugh Addresses Students The inauguration was followed by a luncheon given under the auspices of the women of Easton and Phillipsburg. Six hundred guests attended the luncheon. A number of speeches were made by the recipients of honorary degrees. Governor Brumbaugh attended the exercises and spoke at the luncheon, and in addition made an address to the students of the college. He told the students that in the long run it was not the contact with books that makes men, that it was the contact with spirits, fine choice spirits, and that in these small colleges in Pennsylvania they will find men in the faculty of concentrated purpose who live almost beggarly lives, just because they believe in the spirit of the institution for which they are giving their lives.
