

The Election of These Candidates Insures Good Government For Harrisburg and Dauphin County

VOTE FOR THEM TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd.

William H. Lynch
Candidate For City Council

Mr. Lynch has a record unsurpassed as Highway Commissioner and as the head of the city's Public Works Department has made many improvements desired by the people. His entire course has been constructive and not one official act of his has been criticised even by his most vigorous opponents.

M. Harvey Taylor
Candidate For City Council

As head of the Park Department Mr. Taylor has a splendid record for efficiency and economy; he has made many improvements and has reduced expenses all along the line. He has been responsible for many improvements in the Fire Department also, and his entire career has been marked by good constructive work.

Harry F. Bowman
Candidate For City Council

Mr. Bowman received more than fifty per cent. of the vote cast at the primaries. He has the confidence of the people. His record is one of constant achievement, having reduced the water rates twice, increased the earnings, cut down the expenses and saved everywhere along the line in the Water Department.

Charles C. Steiner
Candidate For City Council

Mr. Steiner represented the Eighth Ward in the School Board in years past and was elected and re-elected to Council, serving one term as president of Common Council. He is well fitted for the office of councilman both by ability and experience.

Ashton D. Peace
Candidate For City Controller

Mr. Peace has had years of experience in City Council and in business and is well qualified for the Controliership, with the duties of which office he is familiar.

Michael E. Stroup
Republican Candidate For District Attorney

Mr. Stroup's administration during his term now closing was praised by Democrats and Republican newspapers alike for its general fairness and fearlessness displayed in making the city clean and in driving out "loan sharks." In asking for a second term he does so on the precedent established by his predecessors for more than thirty consecutive years.

James E. Lentz
Republican Candidate For Recorder of Dauphin County

Mr. Lentz is a native of Dauphin county, a staunch but independent Republican and one of the most widely and favorably known businessmen in the county. He is fitted both by experience and personality for the office of recorder. Mr. Lentz has long been identified with the progressive movements of his home community and is a good citizen in the best sense of the term.

William W. Caldwell
Republican Candidate For Sheriff

Mr. Caldwell, as Highway Commissioner of Harrisburg, made Harrisburg the cleanest city in the country. Under his wardenship the Dauphin county jail is pronounced one of the best conducted prisons in the State, by the State Board of Charities after inspection.

William F. Houser
Republican Candidate For Register of Wills

Mr. Houser has been a working man all his life. He is the father of a large family. He has a clean record and comes before the voters fitted in every way to give his personal attention and energy to the duties of the office.

Henry W. Gough
Republican Candidate For County Controller

Mr. Gough's record as City Controller, where he saved the city hundreds of thousands of dollars by his careful investments of city funds, is only matched by his accomplishment in the new office of County Controller, which he has made pay for itself ever since his election by the savings he has been able to make.

Frank B. Snavely
Republican Candidate For Director of the Poor

Mr. Snavely has charge of the 7,000 acres of Hershey farmland in the eastern end of the county. He is a shrewd businessman and a scientific farmer and will bring to the county service a broad and sympathetic understanding of the problems of Poor Board Direction.

Fernando Loudermilch
Republican Candidate For Poor Director

Mr. Loudermilch is both a farmer and a businessman, being now engaged in shirt manufacture in the upper end of the county. He is so popular in his home district that at the primaries he got all but six votes in the precinct in which he lives. He knows the county and its needs.

Henry M. Stine
Republican Candidate For County Commissioner

Mr. Stine is well known in both business and professional circles. He served as an officer in the Spanish-American war in the insular campaign and won distinction as a soldier; he made an excellent record as County Recorder and his ability is recognized both in the city and the county at large.

Charles C. Cumber
Republican Candidate For County Commissioner

Mr. Cumber is one of the foremost businessmen in the lower end of the county and has the confidence of all who know him. His experience in large financial affairs and with the letting of contracts will make him invaluable as County Commissioner.

Mark Mumma
Republican Candidate For County Treasurer

Mr. Mumma has been for years tax collector of Steelton and has a record for efficiency there never before approached. He has made that borough one of the models of the State for prompt and careful collections. He has had a long business experience and is just the man for County Treasurer.

A. Carson Stamm
Republican Candidate For School Director

Member of the noted law firm of Olmsted and Stamm and an authority on bonds and securities; perfectly acquainted with the needs of the city and tested through years of public service that never brought him a penny of salary. An ideal man for the School Board.

Robert A. Enders
Republican Candidate For School Director

Mr. Enders is president of the Sixth Street Bank, and was formerly president of the West End Improvement Association. He has had a long experience in business and will go to the School Board an independent and unpledged school director.

Dr. C. E. L. Keene
Republican Candidate For School Director

Dr. Keene is a prominent physician of the Allison Hill district and has given special duty to those branches of medical science of especial value in school work. He is unpledged and independent and will go back to the Board with experience gained during a previous term.
