TO REAPPORTION DUTIES OF NEW COMMISSIONERS?

end of the city government might easily include the management of the health and fire bureaus.
Gorgas May Get Parks
In this connection it is said that Commissioner-elect E. Z. Gross might be made superintendent of the finance department and that Commissioner W. L. Gorgas may serve for the next two years as superintendent of parks and public property. This would, of course, include the playgrounds. Mr. Gorgas, it is pointed out, has had the benefit of two years' experience as a commissioner. Many of his friends declare that this should fit him, of course, because of his familiarity with the operation of the city government for most any of the divisions of municipal duties. Whether or not Mr. Gorgas would appoint a superintendent to handle the administration of the parks should be made head of the park department was also a subject of considerable discussion to-day.

Gorgas as Park Head
Many citizens intimated that Mr. Gorgas might probably follow the example of Commissioner-elect Gross in taking over the work himself and thereby saving the city the $1,800 or more that might have to be paid out for a superintendent's salary.
Overs For City Treasurer?
Council, of course, must elect a city treasurer at the close of the present year and rumors as to the probable candidates are general. Among those spoken of is Harry F. Oves. Another is M. Harvey Taylor, the retiring city commissioner. Whether or not the latter would seriously consider the office is a matter of conjecture, however; it is generally known that he has several offers of positions that are more lucrative and his friends say he means to retire to private business. In other city departments little change will be made, it is expected, although there will be some new faces perhaps, in clerical positions. The forces of the bureau of highways and of public safety will remain as they are now and this will probably apply to the financial end. The new office after January first will be that of city controller. This will relieve the financial department of much of its present work.

OFFICIAL COUNT NOW UNDER WAY

The results of the unofficial returns, although they will naturally be revision of some of the figures. Corrected unofficial returns show that Sheriff H. C. Wells is some 350 ahead of Commissioner-elect Gross. The minority county commissioner and that City Commissioner W. L. Gorgas has a comfortable lead over Commissioner Harry F. Bowman in the City Council fight.
The last returns to be filed with Prothonotary Holler were the results from the Second precinct of the Twelfth ward, but the board of canvassers their returns at 7 o'clock last evening.
Expense Accounts In
While the law requires the filing of candidates' expense accounts within thirty days of election, several candidates have already put in their statements. Among these was Mayor-elect Ezra S. Meals, who spent $400, the whole sum being reported to the C. C. Cumber, treasurer of the Dauphin county Republican committee. Other expenditures, all of which were less than $50, were: John W. Thompson, judge of election, Second precinct, Second ward, Steelton; William H. Ege, justice of the peace, Dauphin; Morris Wagner, councilman, Hummelstown.
Ira B. McNeal, who was defeated Tuesday in the fight for district attorney of Mercer county, is a son of R. M. McNeal, of the State Department of Public Instruction.

PETER HAS AGAIN GONE TO THE FRONT

tiresque figures of the war, has again gone to the front, as he did last year, in the hour of his country's supreme need. The energetic ruler, who is 71 years old—has been at Topola, the cradle of the Kara Georgevitch dynasty, ill and weak and according to last accounts was awaiting to retire with the remainder of his troops, menaced on three sides by the invading armies.
On the former occasion King Peter was credited with having saved the day for Serbia. Last year, when his army was being hard pressed by the Austrians the King, suffering from rheumatism contracted in the Franco-Prussian war, went to the front and, mounting a horse, rode slowly through the Serbian lines, telling his soldiers their old king had come to die with them. His actions inspired his troops who expelled the Austrians from Serbia.
"I am but a feeble old man," the King was quoted as having said last month, "but I swear to you if a new invasion shall be made upon us, of being conquered I shall not survive the ruin, but I, too, shall die with the country."

Some of the most widely known educators in the country have been obtained to speak at the sixty-third annual session of the Teachers' Institute of Dauphin county, to be held in the House of Representatives next week.
Among the instructors are Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, Washington, D. C.; Dr. J. George Becht, secretary of the State Board of Education; Dr. O. L. Warren, dean of the general faculty, Pennsylvania State College; Mrs. Alice M. Carmalt, University of Pittsburgh; the Rev. E. B. Bailey, of Berwick; Professor L. H. Dennis, chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Education; Miss Sadie M. Hunting, New York city; Professor L. E. McGinness, superintendent of schools, Steelton.
Mrs. Carmalt will speak in place of Miss Margaret Maguire, supervising principal, Gen. George McCall School, Philadelphia, who will not be present at the sessions. Section meetings will be held in the House Caucus room beginning Tuesday morning. The twenty-fifth annual session of the Directors' Association will be held Thursday. At this meeting delegates will be elected to the State Directors' Association, and an auditor will be chosen for the county institute fund. More than 400 teachers, from the various schools throughout the county, are expected to attend the institute. To-night at Bachmanville, a local teachers' institute will be held at the Hotel Hamilton. An assistant county superintendent will speak on "Motives in Education."

Nervy "Lumber King" Pulls One Across on Police Department

"Jack" Hatch, of Detroit and Reading, better known as the "Lumber King," pulled one over on the Police Department last night.
"Call the wagon for me," said Hatch to Jacob Zimmerman, the traffic officer at Fourth and Market streets.
"Do you mean it?" asked the officer.
"Of course I do," was the reply.
"What is the matter?" asked the patrolman. "No, I am not sick. I am a friend of Captain Thompson and want to call on them while I am in the city."
"Well, Harrisburg is not running a taxi service, but if you insist I will call the wagon," said the traffic officer. He did, and Hatch went to the office state of mind.
The visit was not a cordial one, as Lieutenant Warden did not take kindly to the visitor's nerve. He told Hatch a few things and suggested that he had better return to his hotel.
Previous to this visit it is said, Hatch had called the Police Department and asked for the wagon, stating he wanted to call on his friends in the Police department. Hatch makes frequent visits to Harrisburg. He is a salesman for a large lumber firm.

had carefully refrained from participating in the campaign and where it was thought the German vote might be adversely influenced if he took part, Albert C. Ritchie, Democratic candidate for attorney general, based his claims for support on national grounds. Though it was reported here to-day that Mr. Ritchie's argument had sent the German vote to the Republican side, Mr. Ritchie ran ahead of the Democratic candidate for governor and both were elected.
There is another trend, both in Maryland and Massachusetts, which worked against the Democratic ticket. This was the opposition of many to the attitude of the national administration in the Mexican situation in making no effort to prevent the attacks on priests and nuns and in recognizing Carranza, who did not restrain his soldiers in the attacks.

The Republicans made a gain in Congress, electing W. S. Bennett in a Democratic district in New York. They also made gains in the legislative bodies of New York and New Jersey. The victory in New York State outside of the city has given hope that the State will be captured by the Republicans in the presidential election next year.
Progressives Dissolving
Representative George Edmund Foss, of Illinois, passing through Washington to-day from a week's campaigning in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, was greatly pleased at the election results. Mr. Foss said:
"It's the same old story. The Republicans and Progressives are finding that they can get together on the anti-democratic issues."
"The election means plainly the popular condemnation of the present Democratic administration. The Underwood tariff bill has proven a failure as a revenue producer. Taxes under the Democratic administration are greater than ever, and applied to about everything that could be taxed. Yet the people are getting nothing out of it."
"There is a growing deficit in the national treasury. Whatever business there is has grown out of the European war. The people realize this is only temporary, and the thought uppermost in their minds is: What next—when the war ends?"

DUKE HAS $1,000,000; OWES $1,000,000

Manchester's Assets, Creditors Are Told, Consist of Jewelry and Clothing
London, Nov. 4.—The Duke of Manchester, who married Helen Zimmerman, of Cincinnati, and whose financial difficulties are now before the court, has lodged a statement with the official receiver in the bankruptcy proceedings showing liabilities in the neighborhood of $1,000,000, a little more than half of which has been fully secured. The duke states his only assets consist of jewelry and clothing valued at $1,000.
At a meeting of creditors to-day the receiver announced that the duke was now ill at Paris and would have to undergo an operation next week.
Eaton Boxall, who represented the creditors, informed the creditors that when the duke returned from abroad a proposal would be submitted which would be greatly to their benefit. The meeting of creditors adjourned to meet the formulation of this plan.

AWFUL CASES OF CATARRH SUBDUED, AND STOMACH DISORDERS REGULATED LIKE MAGIC TAPE WORMS REMOVED, COMPLETE WITH HEAD, IN A FEW HOURS, ALL PROVING THE POWERS OF THIS MOST WONDERFUL REMEDY

Yes, the Quaker Health Teacher is indeed beginning to prove the claims he made when he came to this city. His open sincere invitation to all, especially to sufferers of rheumatism, catarrh and stomach troubles is being responded to and now people from every direction are calling on him, to learn full particulars concerning that greatest of all remedies, Quaker Herb Extract. Remember, he has his headquarters at Croll Keller's drug store, No. 405 Market street. He may be seen there daily from 9 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the evening. Everybody is welcome; it costs nothing to talk to him. He proves what Quaker has done, is doing and will do and moreover he offers the remedy on a positive guarantee. Never before has it been known that help and cure was offered to the afflicted under such generous conditions. To show results, to prove merit, to satisfy the people, actual cures must be produced and to do this sufferers must call, try the remedies and then the truth will be known.
Call to-day, or to-morrow or as soon as you possibly can, obtain these great remedies on the special introductory terms. See and learn quickly whether or not this wonderful remedy will not prove a blessing to you, should you be a sufferer from rheumatism, catarrh or stomach disorders. Only yesterday Walter Carberry, barber, age 34, of Steelton, said:

"On account of an attack of rheumatism in my back and shoulders I had been unable to work for nearly three months. I surely tried nearly everything recommended to me in the way of medicine used both internally and externally, but I kept getting worse. I finally called on the health teacher and procured some Quaker Extract and Oil of Balm. They worked like a charm. I improved from day to day and I am now back to my work at the barber chair."

Is this not convincing? Does it not begin to dawn on you that perhaps Quaker Extract will do the same for you? Is it not worth a trial? So come to Keller's drug store, No. 405 Market street, ask for the health teacher and learn all about Quaker.

Special! Special! Special!

To avoid any misunderstanding let it be known that the offer to give the treatment of Quaker Extract FREE, to any person afflicted with a tapeworm is only good for the balance of this week, as thereafter the regular charge for it will be demanded. This remedy will expel tapeworms in a few hours and it is for the sole purpose of proving this fact that this remarkable free offer is made. Under no consideration will the time be extended.
