To-morrow Baby Week Ends

But the Memory of Such a Pleasant Week With the Little Tots Will Remain With Us For a Long Time

Aside from the Christmas season and our annual picnic, we don't know of any time more enjoyable than Baby Week.

Every day brings new delights in seeing these tots and having so many around.

To-morrow this happy week will end, and therefore we'd like to see as many babies as possible and new faces, too.

Remember to have him weighed—handsome garments will be given to the six heaviest up to two years of age.

And his picture will be taken free when a purchase of Infants' Wear is made.

A balloon for every baby up to six years.

And Here's the NEW In Millinery

Following our announcement of a couple days previous, we will introduce to Harrisburg three decidedly new ideas in Millinery.

Fifth Avenue has spoken and yet before the echo has died away those new creations are shown here.

- Velvet turban with continuation crown of Maline, built ten inches high. Other Maline effects.
- Feather breasts forming a smart turban; odd colors will be found as well as white.
- Black lace hats for evening, street and cafe wear; velvet crowns.

Bowman Millinery stands alone—but always it stands in advance of the line, ready to meet the first comers of style—ready with the latest ideas for those who depend upon this source with confidence.

Prices always moderate. BOWMAN'S—Third Floor.

The Coat Season Advances; Our Coat Stock Enlarges

Promising a larger than usual showing of coats for the coming crisp days, we especially invite your inspection of the various styles to-morrow.

You'll see a host of clever creations and new ideas—you'll see models that, stylish as they may be, were designed for solid comfort.

A very recent express brought an assortment of Salt's genuine Kurltex coats, patterned over the latest models, and well lined.

Following is an illustration of the wide range of choice garments.

$12.50—A nobby plaid mixture in brown tone with half belt of brown velvet.

$15.00—Dark tone mixture, loosely belted; large novelty pockets; and mannish velvet collar.

$17.50—Coats of heavy plaid materials; unlined; collars of velvet.

BOWMAN'S—Third Floor

$22.50 — Genuine Salt's Kurltex (granite weave) Baby lamb adorns the collar, cuffs, pockets and bottom of coat; flares full from the collar.

$27.50—Black Baby lamb with full flare back; unbelted; fur collar.

$35.00—Beautiful plush; full back and semi-Russ front; quality lining; collar of Coney.

The Woman Who Appreciates Individuality in Her Suit

—will eventually come to realize that such is really a part of a store rather than the feature of an individual garment.

Individuality in the matter of suits comes through a most careful selection of garments and the showing of styles that are really out of the common.

As a whole, Bowman Suits possess a mark of distinction that is unusually found only in the most exclusive shops of larger cities, and women will note with pleasure that few bear resemblance.

This is true of the moderately-priced suits as well as the more expensive models, and from —the collection is very large and well chosen, giving the purchaser an opportunity to cater to her own desires in the question of fancies, or novelties.

$16.50 to $35

She may choose a fine broadcloth with the popular flare, or a simple tailored suit, and it is altogether her choice whether fur constitutes the trimming. Plenty with fur—fully as many without.
