David H. McCulloch Signs Contract With Government as Instructor at School

DAVID H. McCULLOCH

Special to The Telegraph
Newport, Pa., Nov. 15.—David H. McCulloch, after spending several days with his mother, Mrs. J. Emery Fleisher, left for New York on Saturday and sailed on the liner Taromima for Taranto, Italy. Mr. McCulloch, who is a graduate of the Glenn Curtiss aviation school at Hammondsport, N. Y., and himself one of the country's best flyers, has signed a contract with the Italian government to give instruction at the aviation station at Taranto. Previous to the great European war Mr. McCulloch spent two years in Buenos Aires as the representative of the Curtiss company.

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM
Thursday, matinee and night, November 18—"The Broadway Belles."
Saturday, matinee and night, November 20—"The musical comedy success, 'Me, Him and I.'"
Wednesday, matinee and night, November 24—"Some" show, Jefferson de Angeles in "Some Baby."

"ME, HIM AND I"
At the Orpheum, Saturday, matinee and night, Hurlig and Seaman present their entire big musical comedy sensation, "Me, Him and I," with an entire new cast of players headed by three of America's most famous comedians, Mack, Harris and L'Amour, considered by the theatergoing public three of the most versatile entertainers on the stage, and featured vaudeville stars in both European and American vaudeville houses. "Me, Him and I" has been unanimously conceded one of the brightest particular stars in the firmament of musical comedy. The comedy abounds in bright lines, the action is brisk, the mountings and staging excellent—entertainment.

WRESTLING MATCHES FOR ORPHEUM
The first of a series of championship wrestling matches will be presented under the promotion of Gayle Burlingame at the Orpheum, beginning Monday evening, November 22. Among the champions already engaged are such names as Abern, Zybsoo, Henderson and others. The preliminary matches will be presented. These matches are presented through contract by Mr. Burlingame, with the National Opera House forces, who have been staging the championship bouts of the world.—Advertisement.

DOUBLE SHOW AT THE REGENT TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW
The Regent offers to-day and to-morrow a double attraction, Charlie Chaplin, in his latest and best laugh-provoking comedy, "The Tramp," and "The Show," in two reels, will be shown. This is a screen from beginning to end, and most amusing.

Another attraction is presented by the Oliver Amusement Co., in which Cyril Maude plays the leading role in Henrik Ibsen's "Peer Gynt," on the Paramount program. The chance to show Peer Gynt upon a real stage, with an orchestra dancing in a real desert and the other characters in their actual environment, makes this production of "Peer Gynt" the nearest approach to what Henrik Ibsen actually saw in his own imagination that has been presented.

Banished from Gunderdalen for "bride theft," the romantic boy, Peer Gynt, begins his attraction for wandering, Prosperity worldwide him, but he lavishes it upon beautiful women, who only work his ruin. Age finds him but a spent shell of his boyhood self, and returning to Gunderdalen to die, he is called to account for his wasted life by his Maker. He is about to be consigned to the path of the fallen when he is saved by the devotion of the gentle Solveig, a boyhood sweetheart, who never gave him up and through all the years waited patiently for his return. Despite his sins, therefore, it is judged that the good in him has lived in her faith, in her hope and in her love.—Advertisement.

AT THE COLONIAL
Along with George Ade's latest comedy attraction, "Just Out of College," the Colonial this week presents an added attraction in the presence of the Von Schillos, a clever musical couple, who will present an interesting turn in singing piano and playing. The young man and woman comprising this duo are recognized Keith artists, and they will likewise give a pleasing turn to the clever, even extraordinary picture features that are booked for the entire week. The attraction for Monday and Tuesday, however, promises to be the best comedy production yet filmed. It is taken from the famous George Ade comedy production and the picturization of the play is heralded as one of the leading comedy gems in the moving picture world. Scores of clever players were secured for the big attraction and many delightful college other interesting features are included. The inimitable George Ade style keeps up interest and good humor every minute the picture is in progress.—Advertisement.

MAJESTIC VAUDEVILLE
When it comes to giving advice in love affairs, Laura Jean Libby and Renette Fairfax are such have no rival. They will be in Harrisburg to-day with nine sweethearts. Neither of the former would ever advise any one how to manage so many fair maidens all at one time, even if they were asked they would quickly say, "show frivoliouse!" And they are such a fascinating group of girls, too, that no one on earth could blame Mr. Williams for holding on to all nine of them, if you don't believe Williams and all nine of his affiliates will be at the Majestic Theater for the first half of the week when they will present one of the finest vaudeville musical comedies patrons of the Majestic have seen this season. Some of the other interesting features will include: Ruridella Patterson, the modern Venus in artistic poses; O'Brien, Moore and McCormack, three young men offering a breezy piano and singing act; Hazel and Alada, youthful pair in a splendid vocal and musical turn, and Valentine and Bell, man and woman, appearing in a novel, bicycle novelty, interesting comedy feature. Films are included in the performance as usual.—Advertisement.

AUTO ON MAN'S NECK FOR HOUR

east of Newville. The men were on their way home to this city. When the machine reached the rise and started to round the curve it skidded in the mud and rolled over and over down the hill. When it stopped both men found they were powerless to extricate themselves.

Finally after they had lain there an hour and were thoroughly drenched by the pouring rain, another autoist came along and by mere chance discovered them. He was accompanied by a woman and when his machine breasted the hill his lights shined down on the overturned machine. He stopped but thought it had been deserted and was about to start again when he heard groans. The autoist with the aid of lighted matches, found Bender gasping and choking for breath.

He took a jack from his car and started to raise the machine from off Bender's neck. Cries of pain from the other side warned him to stop and going around the autoist found Shaner pinned to the ground. He finally managed to relieve the sufferings of both a trifle, and having the car he sped to Newville for aid.

Bender, who is 25 years of age and a son of R. R. Bender, general manager of the Union Sales Company, was the most seriously injured. In addition to bruises and slight lacerations of the entire body his neck is badly strained. Shaner, aged 16, escaped with badly bruised legs. Both were brought to their homes in this city last night. Shaner this morning said that with his free arm he sounded his horn continuously for more than half an hour. A farmer living nearby heard the noise but said later that he thought it was just someone going up the hill.

SCHOOL PAYMENT IS FALLING SHORT

who announced suspension of payments last week, said bluntly when asked the reason that the money was not in hand to pay them. The bulk of the State revenue devoted to payment of school appropriations comes from the corporation taxes. These are generally collected in large sums in the Fall through the Auditor General's Department. Lavish appropriations in the face of creation of special funds from automobile licenses, hunters' licenses and escheats are also blamed for the low state of the finances.

As a matter of fact the general fund of the State Treasury was lower on October 31 than it had been for twenty years or more.

Another matter which is causing concern at the Capitol is the crowded condition of departments. The Public Service, Highway and Labor and Industry Departments are three which have offices in buildings outside of the Capitol in addition to their main quarters in the Capitol. Recently it was proposed to have the Public Service Commission take some of the rooms in the Internal Affairs Department, but nothing came of it and when it was planned to take the whole Labor and Industry Department outside of the Capitol to give the Highway Department more room it was discovered that the appropriations authorized would not permit it.

The whole question of proper housing of departments and changes to suit demands of actual work will be taken up by the new Economy and Efficiency Commission shortly.

Sappers, Buried in Mine, Dig Way Out in 61 Hours

Special to The Telegraph

Paris, Nov. 15.—An episode of the battlefield is related in a letter from the front concerning two sappers who were buried by the explosion of a German mine, but dug their way out after 61 hours' work.

The two men were entombed in a small space at the end of a counter-mine gallery. By means of knives they made a vertical chimney, only to find that it issued less than a yard from an enemy trench. Waiting until night, they dug in another direction, and after 24 hours reached the upper air. Each has been awarded a medal.

WATCH SORE THROATS

because swollen glands or inflamed membranes often affect other tissues and lung trouble easily follows.

As Nature's corrector of throat troubles the pure cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is speedily converted into germ-resisting tissue; its tested glycerine is curative and healing, while this wholesome emulsion relieves the trouble and upbuilds the forces to resist tubercular germs and avert the weakening influence which usually follows.

If any member of your family has a tender throat, get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion to-day. Physicians prescribe it to avert throat troubles, overcome bronchial disorders and strengthen the lungs. No alcohol or harmful drugs. Always insist on Scott's.
