Many Attend Paxton Church Anniversary

Many people from this city attended the 175th anniversary exercises at Paxton Presbyterian Church, Paxtans, yesterday. The Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge, pastor of Pine Street Presbyterian Church, preached in the morning on "The Significance of a Church Structure." In the evening the Rev. Henry B. King spoke on "Since the Foundations Were Laid." He gave a complete historical sketch of the famous old church.

The church was prettily decorated with autumn foliage, flags and flowers, and special music was furnished by an augmented choir. Mrs. John Y. Boyd spoke before the Men's Bible Class in the morning at 10 o'clock.

MAY BE ON STAND ALL WEEK

New York, Nov. 15.—Charles S. Melton probably will not finish his testimony in the conspiracy trial of directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad before the end of this week.

"HANST'S" CRUSADE RECALLED

The death on the firing line recently of Lieut. Baron von Forstner, who gained notoriety as the result of the Zabern incident, says Cartoons Magazine, "recalls 'Hans's' cartoon fight against Germany. It was the stabbing by von Forstner of a crippled shoemaker at Zabern, Alsace, that inspired the Alsatian cartoonist in his anti-German crusade. 'Hans,' it will be remembered, was sentenced by a German court to serve a year's imprisonment, but managed to escape into France, where he is now serving as a lieutenant in the army. The Zabern affair, which occurred in 1913, created much excitement throughout Germany."

Dry Cleaning Is Play For Women

Put gasoline and solvite in a wash boiler and save $5 in an hour.

Ever dry clean at home? Well, it's so easy, inexpensive and the results so pleasing you'll be surprised. Any woman can clean and renew the brightness of silks, satines, kid gloves and shoes, furs, neckties, children's coats, suits, caps, swiss, lawn, organdie and chiffon dresses, fancy vests, woolen garments, net work, draperies, rugs, in fact, anything that would be ruined with soap and water.

Get two ounces of solvite in any drug store and put it in two gallons of gasoline where it quickly dissolves. Then put in the goods to be cleaned, rub a little and out they come looking as bright and fresh as new. You will find nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles, requiring no pressing.

Any woman can do five dollars' worth of home dry cleaning in a few moments and you can't make a mistake. Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline and the drug store will sell you two ounces of solvite which is simply a gasoline soap. Then a wash boiler or large dish pan completes your dry-cleaning outfit.

As gasoline is very inflammable, be sure to do your dry cleaning out of doors or in a room away from fire or flame, with the windows left open.

ONE OF THE FRENCH "BLUE DEVILS"

FRENCH "BLUE DEVIL" - © INTERNATIONAL FILM SERVICE

By their queer costumes some of the French infantrymen at the front have earned the sobriquet of "Blue Devils." In their assaults of the German trenches they are now discarding rifles and bayonets and equipping themselves instead in steel helmets, goggles, antigas masks, revolvers and formidable knives. As a result the modern French soldier presents anything but an inviting picture and resembles a movie highwayman.

CARTOONISTS OF YESTERDAY

Writing in Cartoons Magazine of his conferees, Joseph Keppler, Sr., and Bernhard Gillam, Eugene Zimmerman, cartoonist of Puck in the early '80's, says: "Keppler was a versatile man and a true artist at heart. Whatever he did contained unmistakable evidence of careful and artistic training. His attack upon person or party may have been ever so bitter, but there was always to be found a charming touch of humor in it. Gillam, on the contrary, was severe and rather cutting; his cartoons were powerful in the extreme and rather inclined toward the historical. Gillam was a satirist of the English school on the order of Alfred Tenniel (of London Punch), of whom he was a staunch admirer. His drawings were always carefully and almost painfully made. He was a hard worker and availed himself of little rest or recreation, for he was ever studying and reading, hunting up ideas. It is not denied by those who were intimately associated with him that hard work and worry killed him, for he was very much fatigued one day when he left the office and was overtaken by typhoid fever, which later developed into brain fever, to which he succumbed within a few days."

BALTIMORE PASTOR SPEAKS

At St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, yesterday, the Rev. Dr. Arthur Kingsolving, of Baltimore, spoke on "To-day's Challenge to the Men of the Church." He said all men should render some service to the church at some point to themselves and touched on the European war.

Count Von Bernstorff Chief Propagandist Is Charge Made by Journal

Providence, R. I., Nov. 15.—The Providence Journal says to-day: "A vast fund of money, amounting to between $25,000,000 and $40,000,000, has been spent in this country in the past four months for propaganda work against the allies, under the immediate supervision of Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, and Dr. Heinrich Albert, Privy Councillor, who describes himself to a Journal representative as the 'fiscal agent' of his Government.

"The Journal has a positive record of the receipt by Ambassador von Bernstorff and Doctor Albert of at least $10,000,000 in the time mentioned. A great deal of this money has come through the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, and most of it has been immediately transferred to the Chase National Bank and other banks in which Doctor Albert and Ambassador von Bernstorff keep a joint account.

The Journal charges that all of this money is going for propaganda work of the most unneutral description. One item alone, the maintenance of bureaus for dragging men out of munitions factories, amounts to many millions of dollars.

Brand New Fashion in Fur Draped Suit Seen at Horse Show

MRS. HUGH WILLOUGHBY

New York, Nov. 15.—Practically every woman who attended the National Horse Show which has just closed at the Madison Square Garden, has some well developed ideas concerning the fashions for the coming winter. They may not know what horses took blue ribbons, but they do know what New York society women wore to the show.

The picture shows Mrs. Hugh Willoughby, noted for her fashionable gowns, in a mustard colored gown of duvetyne, trimmed in skunk and modelled on entirely new lines. The skirt is short and was drawn in tightly at the knees with a broad band of skunk fur. The skirt flared noticeably at the bottom. Broad skunk cuffs, a chinchin collar of the same fur and a small black toque completed the costume.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath hot and stomach sour?

Harmless "fruit laxative" best to clean tender liver and bowels.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it cannot cause injury. No difference what all your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "fruit laxative" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Advertisement.
