BEAUTIFUL GOWNS SHOW NEW STYLES

Guests at Last Evening's Dance Appear in Models Quaint and Lovely

The ballroom of the Masonic Temple, transformed last evening into an Oriental garden, made a beautiful setting for the dancers at the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Meredith.
It was interesting to notice the trend of the season's fashions, in the handsome and dignified gowns of the older women and the dainty dancing frocks of the younger set. Ruffles and puffs remind one of the Dresden shepherdesses, while stately lines and long draperies are of the Greek type. Black prevailed in many costumes with touches of gold or silver and perhaps a gay flower on the bodice.

Mrs. Payne wore Royal blue taffetas with spangled net; Mrs. John Kinley Tener, mauve velvet with exquisite lace corsage; Mrs. Meredith's costume was of mahogany velvet; her guest, Mrs. Blackwell, of Trenton, wearing a creation of black net and lace; Mrs. Henry B. Bent was in white brocade; Mrs. William Henderson, white satin and crystal trimmings; Mrs. Jesse E. B. Cunningham, black chiffon velvet with net and a necklace; Mrs. J. V. W. Reynolds, black net with gold; Mrs. Ross A. Hicks, black chiffon velvet; Mrs. John Fox Weaver, white satin with silver garnitures; Mrs. Lewis Sadler, pale blue satin with lace; Mrs. Samuel C. Todd, ruffled black chiffon with white net; Mrs. Frank D. Carney, eaded bodice with black net and lace; Mrs. Herbert Snow, golden brown satin with gold ornaments; Mrs. W. Walley Davis, black net; Mrs. H. Lindley Hofer, black net and lace; Mrs. Walter H. Gaither, white lace and roses; Mrs. Henderson Gilbert, changeable green satin with lace; Miss Virginia King, shrimp colored satin; Miss Margaret McLain, pale blue satin and chiffon; Miss Mary Meyers, white satin with crystals; Miss Dora Wickersham Coe, orange seafoam with gold; Miss Eleanor Neal Clark, pale blue taffetas with pink roses; Mrs. Frank D. Carney, green broche with black chiffon veillings; Mrs. John Crull Herman, yellow taffetas and lace; Miss Margaret Fleming, white net and lace; Miss Constance Ferriday, pale blue satin and chiffon; Mrs. Lewis E. Johnson, black satin and tulle; Miss Katharine Etter, flesh colored satin, entraine; Miss Margaret Williams, green taffetas, tiny roses; Miss Mary Williamson, rose colored satin; Mrs. Sanford D. Coe, yellow satin with gold trimmings; Miss Sarah Cooper, pale blue satin; Miss Louise Carney, pink satin; Mrs. Leslie McCreath, rose pink taffetas.

The Stouffer orchestra of Carlisle furnished the music. This orchestra, called the "Palm Beach Orchestra," under the direction of Claude M. Stouffer, played all summer for the dances held at Mount Holly Springs.

Prior to the dance, several small dinner parties were given, one with Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Carney, hosts at their Steelton home, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. John Crull Herman, who were recently married. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herman, Miss Frances Bailey, Miss Sarah Hastings, Miss Sarah Cooper, Miss Louise Carney, Mrs. Leslie McCreath, Henry M. Gross, Edward J. Stackpole, Jr., and Dr. George R. Moffitt.
