CONSTRUCTION— You will find that this Cabinet is as solid and impregnable as a battleship. The construction is of the lock-joint, framed-in type, which makes the cabinet stand kitchen steam and kitchen heat without giving a hundredth of an inch. The backs and bottoms are of three-ply, built-up stock, grooved and glued in on all four sides.

FINISH— Every surface is carefully molded and sanded to a beautiful velvety smoothness, and finished with a waterproof satin finish in light natural oak. The interior of the upper section is coated with three heavy applications of blue-white enamel. All doors are molded and sanded smooth. Every edge is rounded, and even the interiors of the drawers are carefully sanded.

MATERIAL— These Cabinets are built of selected SOLID INDIAN OAK throughout from top to bottom even to the interior of all door panels.

Crystal glass sugar receptacle and glass jar with air-tight metal lids. Sanitary metal bread and cake box, spurred steel castors. No cabinet in the world is better outfitted.

CONFERENCE ON ATHLETIC RULES

College Committees Will Take Up Question of Eligibility Within Another Week

Special to The Telegraph
Princeton, N. J., Nov. 26.—Representatives of Harvard, Yale and Princeton will meet at the Yale Club in New York early in December to confer on the question of the athletic relations of the three universities. Not for ten years have the three met for a like discussion. In December, 1905, representatives from Harvard, Yale and Princeton got together and drew up the agreement under which the athletics at the three institutions now are run. Dean McClenahan, chairman of the Princeton committee which will participate in the conference, said when interviewed to-day:

Some Action Necessary
"The representatives of Princeton, Yale and Harvard seemed to feel that some further discussion of our general athletic relations was not only desirable, but necessary. Extension must be made to meet changing conditions. This conference is for the purpose of discussing all questions of athletic relations and athletic conduct among the three universities, of which questions of eligibility are only a part."
Yale is expected to ask for a vote on the question of the eligibility of Easton, Legore, Pumpelly and Rhett, the men who for accepting board while playing summer baseball were declared ineligible under the present rule. Dean McClenahan would not discuss the possible result of this vote other than to state that probably Yale will vote in the negative if a reinstatement of the players is proposed.

The representatives of the three universities at the conference will be chosen from the committees which control the various sports within the individual colleges.

Football Star Admits He Is Married Man; Is Princeton Student

Special to The Telegraph
Boston, Nov. 26.—On returning to his home in Somerville on Wednesday Charles E. Dickerman, the Princeton half-back, admitted that he and Miss Gertrude Marie Corliss, a telephone switchboard operator in the offices of Tower & Unaywood, Boston brokers, had been married since October 15.

Several days ago the young woman announced that she and Dickerman had been married, and in response to an inquiry from his parents Dickerman wired:

"Forget about the marriage."
The bride continued at her employment until to-day.

He was married on October 19 at St. Rose's Church, Chelsea, by the Rev. Walter Quinlan," said the bride, at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Dickerman, where the young couple will remain over Thanksgiving. Young Dickerman confirmed the announcement.

The young people said they had kept their wedding a secret even from Dickerman's parents, because Dickerman desired to finish the year at college and was particularly anxious that the fact of his being married should not become known until after the close of the football season.

He will return to Princeton in a few days and finish the year at college, while Mrs. Dickerson will retain her position as telephone operator. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Corliss, of Roxbury.

Loyal Tech Alumni Will Banquet Squad at Menger's Tonight

Tech high school's entire 1915 football squad, Coach Whitney and "Train" Kelly will be guests of the alumni to-night at the annual banquet to be held at Menger's cafe. More than a hundred of the graduates are expected to attend while the squad will number twenty-six. Mr. Charles B. Fager, the principal, and other members of the faculty will attend and the former will likely be toastmaster.

The graduates of the Maroon and Gray followed the fortunes of the team this year with more than ordinary interest; this didn't abate a particle even in the face of yesterday's trouncing the warriors got at the hands of their school friends the enemy at Central. Tech's alumni turned out at the game yesterday by hundreds and the great "T" which the marching graduates formed at the demonstration that preceded the game was one of the features of Maroon and Gray's program.

In the Pigskin Camps

Pennsylvania. — Cornell, with the marvelous Captain Barrett excelling every performance seen on Franklin Field since the days of Hollenback and Stevenson, rounded out its great season, the football champion for 1915, defeating Penn yesterday by a score of 24 to 9.

Although the contest ended in defeat, the most dismal season the red and blue has known since it came into football prominence, it must be said for the Quakers that they developed unexpected strength and gave a wonderful battle to the Ithacans. Without Barrett, Cornell might have been conquered.

Lafayette. — Lafayette closed the 1915 season this afternoon in a holiday game with Dickinson, and Lafayette won it by the score of 27 to 7. It was a holiday game in every respect. Three of the Lafayette stars were not in the line-up, as they had gone to their homes to spend the Thanksgiving vacation. The team that did play took it in the holiday spirit and did not exert themselves to any great extent.

Pittsburgh. — State failed to check the onward march of Glenn Warner's great University of Pittsburgh football team in the final game of the season here to-day. The score was: Pitt, 29; State, 0. The up-State team was outplayed from the first kick-off and their only chances to score were the result of Pitt fumbles. On each of the two occasions the yesterday's victory gives the Pittsburghers further right to be classed with Cornell as the football champions of the East.

Bucknell. — Lewisburg's big eleven closed the season yesterday by losing to Lebanon Valley by 5 to 0. The field was muddy and the light Bucknell back had difficulty in keeping their feet on end runs, although during the first half the Orange and Blue swept the visitors off their feet, gaining almost at will until they reached the five or ten-yard lines where on line plays the heavier Lebanon Valley team was able to hold Bucknell for downs.

The first half the Annyville team scored only one first down, but early in the second half in a series of line plays in which Hackert and Captain Ewart were the principal gainers, the ball was carried to Bucknell's twenty-yard line from which place Hackert kicked a goal from placement. From this time on Bucknell's playing fell off. The visitors gained almost as much ground as Bucknell in the third quarter.

Fordham. — For the fourth time in three years, Villanova journeyed onto Fordham Field yesterday and scampered away with another victory. This time it was 33 to 0 that the Pennsylvania Collegians celebrated Thanksgiving in New York and if a penalty had not been called another touchdown would have figured in their total.

Muhlenberg. — In a game marked by many strenuous plays Muhlenberg this afternoon worked sweet revenge on Albright College, scoring a vic-

Army Rules Slight Favorite Over Navy

Special to The Telegraph
New York, Nov. 26.—The United States military and naval academy football teams, which meet in the annual service game here to-morrow, will each hold secret practice at the Polo Grounds to-day. Both squads reached the scene of the twentieth contest since 1890, well in advance of the main contingents of middies and cadets. The Annapolis players stopped over at Philadelphia yesterday to witness the Cornell-Pennsylvania game and reached this city last night while the West Point team and first substitutes came direct from their barracks early to-day. After practice at the baseball home of the Giants the squads will return to their respective hotels to await the call to the gridiron to-morrow.

The Army team continues to reign favorite over the navy, the wagering odds being 5 to 4. Several good-sized pools have been placed at these figures for the Middies are not without backing despite the discouraging showing of the eleven in the earlier games of the season. A number of freak bets have been made at even money including one that the Navy will score the first touchdown of the game and another that the Army will score more field goals than their opponents.

Fatal Accident in Game on Williamsport Field

Special to The Telegraph
Williamsport, Nov. 26.—Fred McGough, aged 20, of Altoona, a member of the Dickinson College Freshman football team, died in the City Hospital last night as the result of an accident in the last five minutes of the Williamsport High School-Dickinson Freshman game this afternoon.

McGough, playing left end, ran down under a punt and was blocked by a high school player. McGough fell heavily to the ground, motionless. He was rushed to the City Hospital, where it was found his skull was fractured. This was the first serious accident on the high school field.
