PERRY CO. HAS LIVE SOCIETY

Christian Endeavor Organization Has Been Increased by Fourteen New Bodies

Perry county has one of the most active Christian Endeavor organizations in the State. It is doing practical missionary, reform and modern church work and many new live wire workers are hustling in all parts of the county, striving to organize new societies in every church in the county.

Norman W. Kines, of Duncannon, has been president of Perry county during the past two years. He is an active and aggressive worker and has organized fourteen new societies during his administration, making a total of 38 societies in the county. He is a member of the United Brethren society at Duncannon, and has served the county union as recording secretary during the year 1912. He is a member of the State executive committee and also an active Sunday school worker. The following new societies have been organized recently: Church of God, Duncannon; United Brethren, of Reard; United Brethren, of Phoutz Valley.

During the past year $90 was raised for the Christian Endeavor headquarters building fund at Boston. The County Christian Endeavor and Sunday school workers are doing excellent work through the temperance committee. Perry county was "dry" for several months prior to the last election.

NOTED RESCUE MISSION WORKER TO ADDRESS RALLY HERE DEC. 2

JAMES W. BARKER, President of Mission Board.

A most inspiring religious gathering will be held Thursday afternoon, December 2, in the Grace Methodist Church, State street, and in the evening of the same day in the Technical High school auditorium at 2:30 and 7:45 respectively.

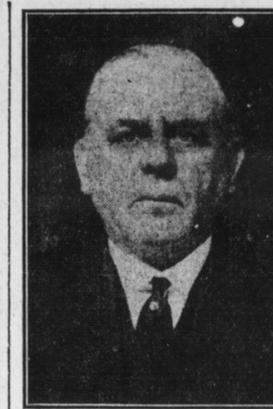

It is the annual rally of the "City Rescue Mission," and will be addressed by the brother of "Mel" Trotter, George W. Trotter, superintendent of the Market Street Mission, Third avenue and Market streets, Pittsburgh.

Mr. Trotter is a noted rescue mission worker, like his brother, and will doubtless thrill his hearers with the possibilities of the work in this city. "The Stoughton Choir" under the leadership of C. F. Clippinger, will sing.

At 5:30 o'clock, Thursday evening, in the large mission room, 107 1/2 South Second street, a "businessmen's dinner" will be given to Mr. Trotter by a hundred of the city's businessmen. This will follow the afternoon meeting in the Grace Methodist Church.

Since the work opened in this city January 1, 1915, 8,550 persons attended the meeting, 221 men professed conversion, 1,861 meals were served to men, and 185 pieces of clothing and shoes were given out.

The doors are open day and night throughout the year. It is a standing invitation to men and women who have fallen to come in and be lifted back up to character, courage and career. The mission stands in a peculiar place in the city's moral and religious life, and men of every evangelical denomination, and of the highest standing are preaching the Gospel every night during the year.

IS THE COUNTRY CHURCH DYING?

Plan Big Conference to Promote Ways of Saving It From Passing Out

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 27.—One out of every nine country churches have been abandoned in recent years. Only one-third are increasing in membership and two-thirds have either ceased growing or are dying. Eighty-three per cent. have less than 100 members; 21 per cent. have less than 25; 27 per cent. have between 25 and 50; and 34 per cent. have between 50 and 100. Only 6 per cent. have individual preachers, while 26 per cent. share ministers with another church; 23 per cent. have one-third the time of a minister; 27 per cent. have one-fourth time; 14 per cent. have one-fifth time; 5 per cent. have one-sixth time.

A large proportion of preachers receive about the same pay as a day laborer. Less than 40 per cent. of the rural population are church members.

These facts, however, undertaken, but the campaign not only for surveys but also for speedy reforms to make churches community centers as well as houses of religious worship, is to be carried into every part of the country within the next year.

The Ohio survey is considered the most thorough ever undertaken, but the campaign not only for surveys but also for speedy reforms to make churches community centers as well as houses of religious worship, is to be carried into every part of the country within the next year.

The causes which the country church of the near future must promote in order to save itself according to a much-discussed report by President Kenyon L. Butterfield of Massachusetts Agricultural College, ready for presentation to the Commission are: good roads, better farming, encouragement of agricultural education, extension courses, community beautification, public health and recreation, temperance, better schools, Saturday half holiday for agricultural laborers, community athletic clubs, collection of religious and patriotic holidays and homecoming weeks, community planning and contentment with farm life.

The church must become the social center for the community, with its minister leading in a variety of interest, and religion thereby will become a strong appeal, says the Butterfield report.

AT ZION LUTHERAN The Rev. S. Winfield Herman, pastor will preach at both services tomorrow. DURING the next four weeks—the season of Advent in the Christian Church; allow your soul to seek the higher things of life. So many are the things of a material nature which crowd into those weeks that we are apt to lose sight, until the last minute, of the Birthday of our Saviour. Let the thought of the coming of the King be a part of your life during Advent. Christmas and the Christmas season will mean much more to you, if during this season you GO TO CHURCH. This advertisement has been authorized and is being paid for by the Associated Churches of Harrisburg.

Father Huntington to Conduct Big Episcopal Preaching Mission Here

Visiting ministers to this city tomorrow will include the Rev. Harvey Officer, a father of the Order of the Holy Cross, West Park, N. Y., who will preach three sermons during the day. He is coming here in order to make preliminary arrangements for a popular preaching mission which will be conducted in St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal church the latter part of January by the Rev. James O. S. Huntington, father superior of the Order of the Holy Cross.

Father Officer will preach in St. Stephen's church to-morrow morning; in St. Paul's in the afternoon and in St. Andrew's in the evening. He will remain here during the early part of the week so as to consult with Episcopalian clergymen and laymen regarding the approaching mission.

Plans for the mission were first considered by the local parishes a year ago, and early this year the subject was taken up with Father Huntington. Since that time the chief officials of the Protestant Episcopal church have inaugurated a nationwide preaching campaign and the local mission will be a part of it.

Nearly all the services of Father Huntington's mission will be held in St. Stephen's church, but he will preach in St. Paul's and St. Andrew's at least once each and possibly oftener.

Father Huntington is well-known to many Harrisburgers as he has preached at St. Stephen's church several times, chiefly during Lent. He has not been here recently, however. Many Harrisburgers who have attended Princeton university also know him, as he has preached there many times, with the reputation of being one of the best preachers who visits the university. He is regarded as among the leading speakers in the Episcopal church.
