RUSS CAPTURE GERMAN STAFF

[Continued From First Page.] cavalry, not knowing how large a force might be opposing them, also retreated, many troopers falling under the Russian fire. The Russians were ordered to follow on foot into the village. They came upon a large estate, and through the windows of the mansion made out the figures of German officers. Half of the force of scouts made for the mansion while the other continue their pursuit of the retreating troops. Enter Headquarters A rush for the doors of the mansion was made by ten Cossacks, the account continues, and so quick was the progress of events that the German officers did not have time to secure their coats and furs before they were hustled outside. By this time the other division of the scouting party had returned and searched the mansion, which proved to be a division staff headquarters, and secured valuable papers. The whole incident took place in less than fifteen minutes. Get Two Generals With these prisoners the scouts began to retire. The German cavalrymen meanwhile had reformed and attempted to cut off the Russian retreat. The prisoners were sent back under convoy, however, it is declared, and the retreat covered by the bulk of the scouts, who also succeeded in returning to the Russian lines with small losses. It is stated that the captured staff included two generals, one being a division commander, seven staff officers and several Red Cross physicians. One colonel was killed in attempting to escape. London, Dec. 11.—German troops are reported at the Greek border. With the Anglo-French lines reforming almost within Greek territory, it is believed here Greece cannot postpone much longer a more definite revelation of the stand she expects to take should the arena of hostilities be transferred to her soil. Colonel Phallis, of the Greek army, is now conferring with the entente commanders, but the Paris press expresses fear that he is not authorized to take the full steps necessary to safeguard the interests of the Anglo-French troops. The interview given by King Constantine to the Associated Press is attracting a great deal of attention in Germany, where the opinion is general that he has given good reasons in justification of the attitude of his country. To Take Offensive The plans of the French and British troops in the Balkans are still a mystery. The continued landing of reinforcements lends color to the theory that an aggressive campaign is contemplated. At the same time the steady withdrawal of the troops from their advanced positions leads to the belief that for the present the occupation of Saloniki for a base of operations at a later time forms the extent of their determination. With only three days left for the test of Lord Derby's plan in England for recruiting, enlistment officers are being overwhelmed with men who wish to volunteer under the group system. Last night many recruiting officers worked until after midnight. Bulgars Lose Although the Bulgarians have been vigorously attacking the new lines made by the French in Southern Serbia, they have made no impression on the French defenses and have sustained heavy losses under the accurate fire of the French artillery, Saloniki advices declare. Serbian soil has been entirely cleared of Serbians with the exception of a small district near Ochrida Lake, in the southwestern part of the country, occupied by the remnant of the Monastir army, according to Berlin advices. WILSON IN OHIO By Associated Press Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—President Wilson will leave Washington to-night for Columbus, Ohio, where he will make two addresses to-morrow—one before the Chamber of Commerce at noon, the other at night before the Commission on Church and Country Life of the federal council of Churches of Christ in America. He will reach Washington Saturday afternoon on his return. LEAVES $7,000,000 TO FOUND HOME FOR AGED IN NEW YORK New York, Dec. 9.—Andrew Freedman's will, made public yesterday, leaves an estate estimated at $7,000,000, to be used eventually, with the exception of a few small bequests, for the establishment of a home for the
