The first meeting of the new board will be held to-night when further business will be attended to and some committees appointed to care for various apartments.
Large Crowds Attending Evangelistic Meetings
Lemoyne, Pa., Jan. 4. — Evangelist

Wm. M. Davis, of Akron, O., was greeted by a large crowd at his second appearance in the Grace United Evangelical church last evening. Mr. Davis' plain and witty manner seems to have caught the fancy of the people of Lemoyne and he is sure to receive the support of a large portion of the people of the town.
Mr. Davis has announced as his subject for this evening, "When and Why the Church Falls."
In speaking of his subject for Sunday afternoon, "Booze and Booze Holders" Mr. Davis says: "I am going to give this lecture from the standpoint of one who has inside information." Mr. Davis was employed in a saloon in his youth and will be able to discuss this question intelligently and thoroughly.

The following are some epigrams brought out by the speaker last evening in his sermon on "A Famous Jail Delivery."
"The Church was not intended to serve the purpose of a cafe or ice cream parlor."
"Mr. Oyster deserves a high place in heaven. He has built many a church and paid many a preacher's salary."
"Spiritual life of the church will not long survive the breaking down of the family altars."
"When Peter was delivered from prison he went to the place where a prayer meeting was held. Would he have found you there?"
The music furnished by the Evangelistic chorus was fine, and the chorus under Mr. Sawyer's direction promises to be a big factor in the success of this Campaign.

A number of neighborhood prayer-meetings are being arranged for on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.
WEDDING IS ANNOUNCED
Special to the Telegraph
Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 4. — Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rossman, of this place have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Natalie Elizabeth Rossman, to Edgar Flaine Wine at the home of the bride, Wednesday, January 12.
