ROBBERS' LOOT HIDDEN IN CAVE

Railroad Officer Davis, of Lewistown, Makes Important Arrest

Special to the Telegraph. Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 18.—Railroad Officer M. A. Davis of Lewistown Junction, performed clever work in the arrest of William Shontz, aged about 22 years, of Yeagertown, on the charge of robbing the Jacob Hurwitz clothing store here last March. Davis worked on one clue after another until he secured one that led to the arrest of Shontz, at the boring mill of the Standard Steel works where he was employed.

Rheumatism

Remarkable Home Cure Given by One Who Had It—He Wants Every Sufferer to Benefit. Send No Money—Just Your Address.

Years of awful suffering and misery have taught this man, Mark H. Jackson of Syracuse, New York, how terrible an enemy to human happiness rheumatism is, and have given him sympathy with all unfortunate who are within its grasp. He wants every automatic victim to know how he was cured.

"I Had Sharp Pains Like Lightning Flashes Shooting Through My Joints."

"In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by muscular and inflammatory rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has since then I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even died with rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case. I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatism to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you use it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today. MARK H. JACKSON, No. 5525 Guyton Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y."

Believe Missing Nun Left Convent While Deranged

Special to the Telegraph. Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—No trace has been discovered of Sister Rita Vincent, known in the world as Miss Rose E. Hagerly, who disappeared on January 4 from St. Joseph's Villa at Cheltenham. Sister Vincent is the daughter of John Hagerly, 1914 Watkins street. She was undergoing treatment for tuberculosis at St. Joseph's Villa, and disappeared from the convent while other sisters were praying by the bedside of a dying nun. Her shawl and white gumpie were found on the bank of Tacony creek, and for a time the police believed that Sister Vincent wandered off while her mind was temporarily unbalanced. Cheltenham police have been searching the swamps and woods in the vicinity.

Clay Deaner and H. M. Bowman; solicitor, Samuel T. Meyer.

SENIORS TO WED

Annullville, Pa., Jan. 18.—Culmination of a romance which began as freshmen at Lebanon Valley College was reached this week when the parents of Miss Blanche V. Black announced their daughter's engagement to Victor R. Black. Both are members of the senior class at the college and are residents of Annullville. No date for the wedding has been set.

FIRE DESTROYS MEAT

Special to the Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 18.—Early yesterday morning the whistles from Frick Company's shop sounded the fire alarm and the members of the volunteer fire company responded to a blaze that was fast consuming a smokehouse filled with meat belonging to George Opal. The building and its contents, consisting of eight hams and ten pieces of side meat was destroyed.

TAKEN TO STATE HOSPITAL

Special to the Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 18.—Harry F. Bowers of this place was taken to Harrisburg, Pa., where he was placed in the institution for the insane. Mr. Bowers formerly carried the United States mail from the railroad to the Post Office, discontinuing his work the latter part of December. He has been in ill health several months.

CROWDS SHIVER IN COLD BECAUSE OF CAR TANGLE

Scores of hurrying homeward businessmen, clerks and pretty stenographers shivered in the chill blasts of early last evening as they waited for a Valley Traction Company car to untangle itself from the cross-over switch in Second street in front of the Bolton House. The front truck of the car slipped upon the Second street tracks while the rear truck remained on its own rails. Because of the intense cold it required considerably longer to bring order out of chaos.

RANCH ROMANCE OF YOUNG COUPLE

Frank C. Bosler, of Carlisle, Engaged to Marry New York Girl

Special to the Telegraph. Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 18.—Announcement has just been made to friends here of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Swank, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Swank, New York City, to Frank C. Bosler, millionaire capitalist and ranchman whose home is in Carlisle. The engagement is the culmination of a romance begun on Mr. Bosler's ranch in Wyoming.

Miss Swank attended the Denver University and was a member of the Sigma Kappa sorority and in 1911 represented the Denver chapter in the national convention at Boston. She was prominent in dramatic and social affairs in the western university.

Mr. Bosler is a graduate of Harvard, a member of the Harvard and University clubs of New York, and the Union League of Philadelphia, and the University club of Denver. Mr. Bosler is president of the Carlisle Deposit Bank, one of the county's oldest institutions, and is identified with many leading local enterprises, in addition to his western holdings. The wedding will take place the latter part of this month and the honeymoon will be an extended journey to South American points, after which Mr. and Mrs. Bosler will be at home in Carlisle.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For great relief, read the doctor's pronouncement that a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hays' Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hays' Family Pills for constipation.

Walton, W. C. Baker, W. R. Fox, J. S. Strickler, John Moyer, Joseph Burkholder, John H. McIlheny, W. H. Earnest. After the election the directors enjoyed a turkey dinner at the National Hotel. They will meet on the 31st of January to elect officers.

WILL REDEDICATE CHURCH

Special to the Telegraph. Shippensburg, Pa., Jan. 18.—Plans are being made for the rededication of the Memorial Lutheran Church next week. For six months the church has been undergoing improvements, and it is now about completed. The result is much more light and beauty to the handsome edifice. The program contemplates the dedication proper on Sunday morning, January 23, with the sermon by the Rev. T. C. Billheimer, the pastor from 1881-1873. Several former pastors will speak and the services will continue all week. On Friday evening Prof. McCarrell, of Harrisburg, will give an organ recital.

SHOCK KILLS FATHER

Special to the Telegraph. Gettysburg, Pa., Jan. 18.—Sorrow and shock over the death of his son, the Rev. U. A. Hankey, at New Kingsport, on January 3, caused the death of John A. Hankey, aged 83, at his home here yesterday. The funeral of the son was held in Gettysburg ten days ago and the father, who up to that time had been in his usual health, sank rapidly since then.

Vagrant Is Detained as Murder Suspect

Special to the Telegraph. Souderton, Pa., Jan. 18.—Suspected of possible connection with the murder of Thomas Barrett, the aged Civil War veteran, early yesterday morning, John Hart, claiming South Bethlehem and Phoenixville, Pa., as places of residence, is being held at the Oregon police station. Technically, he is charged with vagrancy, but the authorities have requested that he be held pending the outcome of an investigation now being made.

Chief Lever was put to work on the case, and finger print reproductions made from photographs of the marks of bloody hands on the stable wall in the building where Barrett was killed will play an important part in the conviction of any suspects arrested in connection with the murder. Barrett, more than 74 years old, was beaten to death with a heavy bolt, the crime having been, presumably, committed for purposes of robbery.

NO CASES FOR TRIAL

Special to the Telegraph. New Bloomfield, Pa., Jan. 18.—Court opened here yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Judge W. A. Meiser, the newly-elected judge, took his seat as associate. The constables made their reports and were all discharged as there were no cases for trial at this term of court. The grand and traverse jurors had been notified not to appear for the session.
