Many Little Parties to Attend Magic Wheel

Plans are being completed through the efforts of Mrs. Homer Black for the entertaining of many children at "The Magic Wheel" on Saturday afternoon, January 29. The children from the Industrial Home are to be entertained by the local lodge of Elks. Truly they earn their title of "the best people of earth." William H. Seel will again form a party of more than one hundred children from the Sylvan Heights Orphanage. This is the third time Mr. Seel has acted as their host.

David Kaufman will send a happy party from the Nursery Home, and Edward R. Pierce has taken a box for Saturday matinee and will have as her guests several little crippled children. While "The Magic Wheel" will provide much from the stage, still all the attractive features will not be on the stage, as a strikingly costumed group will dispose of homemade candy in black and white boxes. These young ladies will be gowned in black and white striped skirts with black bodices and crowned with stunning bonnets made and donated by the Elough Manufacturing Company. The young ladies are Miss Dorothy Black, Miss Jane McDonald, Miss Ferol Stevens, Miss Anna Raven, Miss Margaret Hoffman, Miss Ruth Walzer, Miss Miriam Landis, Miss Margaret Boas, Miss Edith Troup and Miss Mildred Astrich.

Mrs. John S. Boas is in charge of this group of "candy girls."

Handsome libretos in black and yellow will be disposed of by another costumed crowd, white and yellow (Sunshine colors) being chosen for their gowns. They are Mrs. Joseph L. Shearer, Jr., Mrs. Andrew Patterson, Edgar Marks, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Frederick Downes, Mrs. B. Frank Nead, George L. West and Miss Miriam Galbraith.

Friday and Saturday, January 28-29, are the days for this event in amateur circles. Packed houses would cheer the heart of every Sunshine member, who are endeavoring to fill their treasury with funds for the coming two years.

It will be many a day before the many artistic and delightful features of the great Charity Ball will fade from the memory of the hundreds who participated in the interesting function.

It is regrettable that all of Harrisburg could not have seen the unique and attractive decorations, the unusual pageant of dances and the harmony of color which gave the whole event its remarkable character.

And those who did see it designed and carried out to brilliant success the whole scheme and program will likewise be long remembered. It was a real achievement, a creditable in every way. Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted was the moving spirit and inspiration of the occasion and with her on the general committee were Edwin S. Herman, who graciously handled the financial end; Frank J. Brady, Carl B. Ely, Miss Anne McCormick, Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, Mrs. Francis J. Hall and other members who contributed largely to the success of the ball in all its features.

The Sarah Lemer Orchestra

While the music of both orchestras received long applause, Harrisburg is proud that "our own" Sarah Lemer has been able to organize, just this winter, such a wonderful body of players in such a splendid way, leading them with spirit and energy and giving of her best to produce music equal to the best that has ever been brought to the city and far surpassing many that have been heard here.
