

NINE-Y-SECOND MAN LAST DRAWN FOR SHUMAN JURY

Special Panel of 25 Necessary to Chose Twelve in Murder Trial

COURT SETS PRECEDENT

President Judge Kunkel Excuses Man Who Has Been Accepted by Attorneys

The twelfth man selected this morning to try William H. Shuman, ex-policeman charged for the murder of his daughter Margaret E., was the last man called from a special panel of twenty-five.

He is John B. Koch, a cigar dealer, Second street, Walnut street. Until 6:30 o'clock last evening, President Judge George Kunkel and a jury of seven men and two women examined every one of the sixty-seven names who constituted the regular panel of February criminal term. And the jury still lacked the twelfth man.

Then for the first time in nearly twenty years, the court directed Sheriff W. W. Caldwell by special venire to empanel twenty-five more of Dauphin's good men and true.

During the earlier and then the latter hours of last night Sheriff Caldwell made a quick trip through cigar stores, the moving picture shows, offices, stores, barber shops—even on the streets—and quickly read the court's order.

The twenty-five chosen were Earl M. White, Elmer E. Gottshall, Walter Keister, Robert V. Fairbank, Edward McGeehan, Charles Slesnick, Edward R. Seidel, Calder B. Shammo, H. Howard Hartman, Edward Halbert, Robert Hartman, Edward Halbert, Robert Hughes, Joseph H. Wallaz, John W. Rodenbier, William S. Fisher, Lawrence F. Kreidler, Frank M. Critzman, Benjamin W. Campbell, William H. Kohler, John E. Koch, H. George Keiser, Fred L. Throne, Edward M. Winters, Alexander L. McElhenny, Harry Genster and Charles B. Stucker.

With the selection of Koch, the jury consists of J. Frank Sourbent, city; John Reigle, Wisconsin township; John Renshaw, Lykens; John M. Woodrow, city; Alpheus Kraut, Steelton; C. Brooke Keon, Charles Bolan, Swatara; John Dubs, Derry; John C. Deen, city; and George E. Eldridge, city.

Judge Kunkel's precedent The examination of the special panel is a precedent.

Several Against Whom True Bills Have Been Found Offer to Surrender

By Associated Press

San Francisco, Feb. 10.—No delay is expected in the returning by the federal grand jury of the flood of indictments voted by that body charging violations of the neutrality laws against consular representatives of foreign governments, prominent businessmen and firms of San Francisco and representatives of steamship companies.

Several of those against whom true bills were reported to have been found appeared at the office of the United States marshal and offered to surrender but were informed that no warrant had been issued for them. It was announced that German Consul General F. Bopp, Vice-Consul Baron Eckardt Von Schack, Maurice Hall, consul general for Turkey and the other representatives of foreign governments would be served with warrants of arrest at their offices, but would be exempted from being brought into court to have bail fixed. Bench warrants, it was said, would be issued for the other men indicted.

Virginia Beats Bill to Ban Silhouette Skirts

By Associated Press

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—Declaring that short skirts and low cut waists have had more to do with the downfall of young men than anything else, Delegate William Myers, of Richmond, yesterday offered an amendment to the Browning anti-light bill which provided limitations on woman's dress as follows: "No dress, hat or skirt shall appear in public within this Commonwealth with a skirt which does not reach within four inches of the ground, with a waist or bodice which exposes more than three inches of the chest or back, and that no transparent skirt shall be worn."

Mr. Speaker, complete nudity is more decent than the silhouettes one sees in the summer time when the women walk up and down the streets of this city.
