CLEVER PLAYLET IN DEMOSTHENIAN

Amateur Actors and Actresses Make a Hit at Last Evening's Presentation

The Demosthenian Literary Society held a meeting last night at the home of Miss Sarah Maloney, 1819 Green street. An interesting program was presented with a piano and violin duet by Miss Helen Hampton and William Myers. The first comedy "Ralph Roister Doister" was produced by the following: "Dame Custance," Gertrude Edwards; "Madge Mumblecrust," Ethel Fisher; "Lippit Rolster Doister," Harold Houtz; "Galen Goodluck," Stanley Wengert; "Merry Greek," Horace Numemaker; and "Ralph's Faithful Servant," Jay Smith. The play was given in a creditable manner.

A business meeting was held during which two new members, Miss Jeanette Nachman and James Minnaugh were elected.

The audience was most appreciative of the efforts of the players and applauded frequently. In attendance were: Miss Mary Orth, Miss Engle, the Misses Helen Becht, Anna Bender, Catherine Brooks, Mary Huston, Sarah Morgan, Lucille Smucker, Miriam Goho, Gertrude Wilson, Mary Kinzer, Edith Hall, Esther Selsam, Mary Jelly, Dorothy Duncan, Jeanette Claster and Sarah Hoffman, Horace Numemaker, Harold Houtz, Jay Smith, Robert Michael, Stanley Wengert, Howell Becht and William Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Booth of New Haven, Conn., is the guest of Mrs. James Russ, of the Rodemal Apartments.

Mrs. George Hoffman of Powells Valley, Halifax, left today after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Ziegler of 1411 Thompson street.

P. H. Keane of 1845 Market street, is spending a few days in New York City.

Miss Edna Ziegler of Halifax, has returned home after visiting at the home of her brother, Charles Ziegler, 1411 Thompson street.

Miss Blanche Bryan of 709 South Front street, is confined to her home on account of illness.

Today's Aid to Beauty

An especially fine shampoo for this weather can be easily made at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. Pour slowly on scalp and massage gently. This creates a soothing, cooling lather that dissolves and removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on a glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem very much heavier than it is. After a canthrox shampoo arranging the hair is a pleasure.—Advertisement.
