Sexton at St. Stephen's For 51 Years, Thinks Father Huntington Best Ever

Henry Stees, veteran sexton of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church, remarked casually to a member of the congregation after last night's evangelistic service that "Father Huntington certainly can preach."

"I think he's the best preacher I've ever heard," continued Mr. Stees. "I suppose you've heard not a few, the visitor suggested to the old sexton. "Yes, I've been here fifty-one years," said Mr. Stees, "and there's been a lot of fine preachers. But he's the best."

A feature of Father Huntington's mission to-day was that the intercessory service at noon was attended in a body, by the executive committee of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions of the Diocese of Harrisburg, which is in session here to-day with Mrs. James F. Bullitt, the president, at her home in Bellevue Park. Following business sessions this morning, the women went to St. Stephen's for the noon service, later returning with Mrs. Bullitt for luncheon.

TO FORTIFY THE SYSTEM AGAINST GRIP

There is only one "BROMO QUININE." E. W. GROVE'S signature on box. 25c.—Advertisement.
