

STOMACH JOY, OR STOMACH MISERY---CHOOSE

Needless to Suffer the Agonies of Indigestion. Famous Mi-o-na Prescription Relieves Almost Instantly.

A good, strong, vigorous stomach; one that goes about its work of digesting the food sent down to it without a pain and with such efficiency that its owner is unaware of its presence, is indeed a priceless possession. It is the source of ruddy, glowing health and strength.

And, why shouldn't at least the vast majority of us have a good stomach? The law of Nature is perfection. It is unnatural to be sick and it is only when the stomach thru abuse or accident becomes weak and run down that it will refuse to digest your food as Nature intended. Then you suffer the untold miseries of indigestion.

In all such cases it would be a hard matter indeed to find a better remedy than the famous, inexpensive Mi-o-na prescription. Mi-o-na tablets give almost instant relief to all stomach distress and they do more.

They usually build up the stomach and put new strength in its weakened muscular walls so quickly that in a few days all belching, bloating, sourness, heartburn, heaviness, biliousness, sick headache and dizziness disappear. You sleep better, your appetite is improved and you are again on the road to perfect digestion and enjoyment of food.

Mi-o-na is sold by nearly all leading druggists under a positive guarantee to refund your money if it does not stop all stomach distress, in fact, do all it is advertised to do, and you can always buy it of H. C. Kennedy on such a plan without any restrictions.

Nothing lessens a man's success in his work or a woman's fascinating personality more than a weak stomach, with its attending evils. With such a guarantee back of Mi-o-na there no longer seems any need for anyone suffering or making their friends suffer from indigestion. It is an effort to make health and happiness.—Advertisement.

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

25 cent bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy just matted in a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

ALLEN R. SPANGLER DIES
Lemoyne, Pa., March 2.—Allen R. Spangler, aged 44 years, died yesterday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Spangler, on State Road after a year's illness. He is survived by his mother, four brothers, Harry and Charles, of Lemoyne; John, of Harrisburg, and George, of Columbus, O.; and two sisters, Mrs. John Hartman, of New York City, and Mrs. Clinton Packer, of Harrisburg. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning from the Lemoyne United Brethren Church.

HARRISBURG ASTONISHED BY SIMPLE MIXTURE

Harrisburg People are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Alder-I-ka. ONE SPOONFUL removes such surprising foul-matter it relieves almost ANY CASES—constipation, sour stomach or gas. Because Alder-I-ka acts on BOTH lower and upper bowels, a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. H. C. Kennedy, druggist, 321 Market street.—Advertisement.

CALL WINE ROOM SLEUTH NAMES

Order League came in for a goodly share of criticism. Dodge, however, was simply "mistaken" to the attorneys. Even the Rev. Harvey Klaer, president of the No-License League, was censured for his share in the investigation.

The argument followed the hearing of the last remonstrance—the objection filed by Middletown residents against the renewal of the license for John P. Snyder, a wholesale liquor dealer, on the ground that he sold whisky to a minor.

St. Charles and Harris House. Argument was heard this morning on a remonstrance against the St. Charles and the Harris House and a part of the Savoy case.

Harry D. Saussaman, counsel for the remonstrants, conducted the discussion in opposition to the licensing of the places; D. S. Seltz and C. H. Bergner represented the license applicants.

President Judge Kunkel stated from the bench that the court would consider the testimony as adduced but that the methods by which it was obtained was not in question.

The Snyder Protest. The hearing against Snyder's application was comparatively brief and was based on the contention that he had sold or permitted to be sold to Andrew McCurdy, a colored youth, whisky on various occasions. Both Snyder and his clerk declared that they believed the negro was a man of 25 or 28 years of age as he is a burly fellow who looks much older than his eighteen years. McCurdy, according to the stories of the witnesses, bought the whisky and then went to a moving picture show. During the showing of the pictures he made no pretense at concealing his desires to satisfy his thirst from the flask.

Then argument was begun on the St. Charles Hotel remonstrance. And in summing up the testimony of how the scarlet women and the yellow men of the tenderloin gathered in the wineromms of that hotel, of the disorder, of the serving intoxicants to drunken patrons, of the open soliciting of women to meet patrons—Attorney Saussaman pleaded to the court to refuse the applicant, Leslie E. Potter.

Bull Dog-Goat Fight
To clinch his argument, Mr. Saussaman mentioned the incident of the bull dog and the goat.

During the hearing, witnesses who testified as to the disorder in the St. Charles barroom told how a goat, the property of a patron, had been goaded into fighting with a bull dog.

"Surely," demanded Mr. Saussaman, "the court will not permit the licensing of a place where the proprietor, for the edification of his patrons, permits a vicious bull dog to attack a poor, innocent and defenseless goat."

Denounces Witnesses' Methods
Attorney D. S. Seltz in arguing for the applicant, bitterly denounced the methods which had been employed to detect the violations of the law. The fact that Dodge had purchased beer and other intoxicants for the women of the tenderloin for the purpose of getting them intoxicated in order to learn if the waiters would serve them while in this condition, was scathingly condemned by the lawyer. Incidentally, Mr. Bergner, counsel for the Harris House and Savoy applicants, added a bitter arraignment of the investigators on the same subject.

"That only goes to effect the credibility of the witnesses," observed President Judge Kunkel, "and doesn't relieve the licensee who is selling the liquor."

Calls Em Hirelings
Mr. Guyer, Mr. Seltz added was as bad as Dodge. Neither, said he, were the public-spirited citizens that a great many people seem to think they are. They conducted the investigations, he declared, for the money they were paid; for their stipend. They were "paid hirelings" the attorney insisted.

Mr. Seltz's reference to the Rev. Harvey Klaer's share in the investigation was brief. To conduct such an inquiry was his privilege, he pointed out, although he questioned the methods that were employed. "However," added the attorney, "that will be a matter for the court to determine, whether or not these methods shall be approved.

"However we may decide these cases," gravely observed President Judge Kunkel from the bench, "does not involve the question of our approbation or disapprobation of the methods."

Want to Know About Pilot
The city solicitor incidentally referred with biting sarcasm to the absence of Drury Lentz, the fellow-sleuth of Dodge. Guyer had declined to subpoena Lentz because he said he would not appear.

To Discard Aged or Weather-Soiled Skin
To free your skin of blotches, roughness, muddiness, over-redness, freckles or any cutaneous defect, the best thing to do is to free yourself of the skin itself. This is easily accomplished by the use of ordinary mercurized wax. Use at night as you use cold cream, washing it off next morning. Immediately the offending surface skin begins to come off in fine powder-like particles. Gradually the entire cuticle is absorbed in this way, causing no pain or inconvenience, and the face exhibits any evidence of this treatment. The second layer of skin now in view presents a sparkling beauty and youthful robustness obtainable in no other way we have ever heard of. The method of Dodge, Guyer had declined to subpoena Lentz because he said he would not appear.

Ask McColgin to Explain Penn Highway Plans
The Hollidaysburg Chamber of Commerce has invited E. L. McColgin, secretary of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, to take lunch with its directors and discuss the William Penn Highway conference to be held in Harrisburg, March 27.

On Friday afternoon, Secretary E. L. McColgin will address the meeting of the Pennsylvania Commercial Secretaries Association in Altoona on the subject of Trade Excursions. The secretaries' meeting takes place on both Friday and Saturday. The secretaries from a dozen or more Eastern Pennsylvania cities will assemble in Harrisburg to leave for Altoona at 7:10 to-night.

SUPERVISING NURSE QUILTS
Miss Frances L. Higgins, supervising nurse at the Harrisburg Hospital for a year, has handed in her resignation to the managers of the institution. Miss Besse Bonnell, of 122 North Second street, has entered the Harrisburg Hospital Training School for Nurses.

One of Leading Soloists in High School Concert

WILLIAM T. MEYERS
William T. Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Meyers, 1205 Green street, senior at Central High School and leader of the school orchestra, is one of the leading soloists for the High School concert to be given this evening and also for the Municipal Band Concert at the Orpheum Theater to-morrow evening.

He is one of Harrisburg's promising violinists, and is a post-graduate of the Harrisburg Conservatory of Music, under Madame Von Berghy. Mr. Meyers is at present taking a course in the Hiperton School of Music in Philadelphia, which he will complete in June. At present he is studying with Lucius Cole, a Belgian violinist and a member of the Philadelphia orchestra.

had only asked him to assist Dodge and that he had promised not to bring him into the case. "Where is this bill," for the Indiana newspaperman, demanded Mr. Seltz.

Mr. Bergner grew equally enthusiastic in assailing the methods employed by Guyer, Dodge and the Rev. Mr. Klaer in conducting their investigations of the Harris House side rooms. Nobody, he said, would presume to believe a man like Dodge against the word of Russel Robinson, the negro waiter of the Harris House. President Judge Kunkel observed that the testimony of Dodge and the other witnesses of course, would be scrutinized very carefully because the witnesses had gone into these places to find out which they declared they had found.

Bergner Strong For the Church
While Mr. Bergner criticized Guyer and Dodge, he also had a word to say of the ministerial investigator. Mr. Bergner admitted that he believes in the church, but deplored the fact that the Rev. Mr. Klaer, a minister of the church, should be engaged in such work to "make himself a record."

The attorney pleaded for the Harris house as "an old and reputable institution." Could the question of whether such acts as had been described by Dodge really be considered, he asked, in the face of the statements of the "perjurer" or "conspirator" of the "imported spy," Dodge.

Even if these allegations were true, Mr. Bergner asked, should they be given weight when the revocation of the license of an old and reputable house like the Harris house be at stake.

"Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum"
President Judge Kunkel observed that the question was not one of revoking a license, but a question of whether a license should be granted to a place which had not yet been licensed.

"Oh, well," observed Mr. Bergner, "there's not much difference between revoking the license of an old place and the license of a new one. There's little difference, your Honor, between 'tweedle dee' and 'tweedle dum.'"

Following the close of the Harris house argument, the Savoy remonstrance was taken up by Mr. Saussaman. Mr. Bergner asked the court's permission to reply this afternoon.

"Very well," said Judge Kunkel, "but we want to get along. We wish to finish this to-day."

Withdraw Schaffstall Objection
One more hostility in the county was assured of the privilege of selling liquor during the coming year when the remonstrance against A. P. Schaffstall, West ward, Lykens, was withdrawn yesterday afternoon.

The question that had been raised against this hotel related to alleged violations of the law in maintaining side drinking rooms. No witnesses were at hand, however, and although Harry D. Saussaman, counsel for the remonstrants, said the objections had hoped to show the court something of the conditions there "more," as he explained, "for the information of the court than anything else." The evidence at hand, however did warrant the objectors in pushing their appeal against the relicensing of the house, the attorney added, and accordingly withdrew.

And Then the Roadhouse
Schaffstall's case followed the hearing on Coxestown "roadhouse" remonstrance. Frederick Brossinger, proprietor, who only a recent week over the hostility, wants a relicensing.

Some remarkable tales were told of the "joy" parties who motored west from the city and made the Coxestown hostility their stopping point for drinks, etc. Neighbors related incidents of arousal from sleep in the wee sma' hours by the singing, the laughter of the women, the vulgarly shouting and profanity of the men in the loaded cars. That the majority of the people of the neighborhood do not want the licensed house at Coxestown was developed by witnesses who canvassed the community for the purpose. Furthermore it was shown that only a comparatively few people of Coxestown or surrounding country frequented the place—that it was used almost exclusively as a "halfway" for joy parties from the city.

The Hollidaysburg Chamber of Commerce has invited E. L. McColgin, secretary of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, to take lunch with its directors and discuss the William Penn Highway conference to be held in Harrisburg, March 27.
