

RECEPTIONS, PARTIES, WEDDINGS AND WIVES' SALARIES

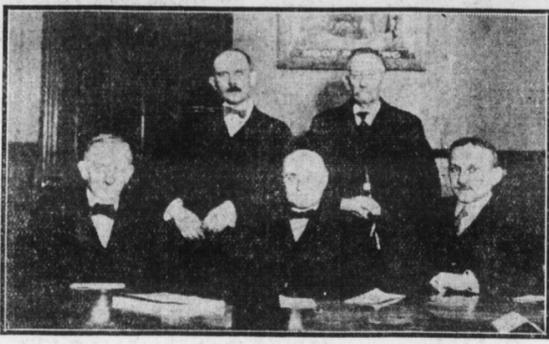

SWAMP FEVER AT MOUNT UNION

Two Powder Works Employees Believed to Have Contracted Dangerous Malady

FIRST THOUGHT TYPHOID

Young Girl Has Concussion of Brain Caused by Fall at Her Home

ANNVILLE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

Left to right, standing, Dr. D. M. Shaud, Nathaniel Light and H. L. Kinports. Rank, D. T. Brighton; seated, M. H. H. Kinports.

Birthday Dinner Given in Honor of Miss Ethel Laird

Lewisburg, Pa., March 4.—Pupils of the south point school, taught by H. M. Sutton, who did not miss a session during the month, were Pauline Stettel, Margaret Snyder, Sara Stetter, Mary Reiff, Gordon Parthemore, Chas. Snyder, Francis Deardorff, Bruce Attkins and Harvey H. Fetrow. A birthday dinner was given on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth U. Laird, in celebration of her daughter, Ethel's, anniversary. Those present were Miss Mary C. Rudisill, Miss Evelyn Harlaicher, Miss Marjorie Emswiler, Miss Ethel Laird, Mrs. E. U. Laird, Paul Schubauer and near H. Hudson. Miss George Ottmyer, of York, spent several days at the home of her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Frankenberg. The Rev. and Mrs. Marshall E. Bartholomew and daughter, Irene Bartholomew, are spending a week at York, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parks and are attending the United Evangelical conference sessions. Miss Mabel Yinger, who is attending a business school in Harrisburg, spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Yinger. Mrs. Frank Cony, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Emma Bell of Mechanicsburg, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Bell. Dean R. Hudson, of Harrisburg, spent several days with Mrs. H. M. Sutton. The adjourned conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held Saturday afternoon, March 11. The following Monday the pastor will leave for Altoona, where the annual conference will be held. Frank Nesbit, of Mt. Airy, was a recent guest of his mother and sister, Mrs. Nesbit and Mrs. H. M. Sutton. Jacob C. Parthemore and Roy Miller who were confined to their homes with sickness are both able to be out again.

Masquerade Party Given at Best Home in Montandon

Montandon, Pa., March 4.—Mrs. Arthur Best and Miss Mary Garber gave a masquerade party at the Best home on Wednesday evening. The guests were beautifully decorated with flags and bunting and the costumes of the guests were attractive and amusing. The evening was spent with games and the guests were entertained with a supper by Mrs. Garber; a solo by Mrs. Elmer Shaffer, and a select reading by Martha Reigel, and refreshments were served. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. James Best, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Furman, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burrey, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Best, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Fairchild, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Fairchild, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Johnson, Mrs. Alice Garber, Mrs. Lizzie Wenzel, Mrs. Frank Cox, Mrs. Lee Grimes, Mrs. Charles Garber, Myrtle Pfeleor, Grace Frey, Lee Pfeleor, Montandon; Pauline Beiber, Paul Albright, Misses Mary and Jennie Phillips, Elsie Gembling, Sunbury; Messrs. McLaughlin, Bowen and Duffy, of Bucknell University; Mrs. Elmer Kooner returned from Rebersburg on Monday, where she attended the funeral of her sister, Miss Susan Stitzer. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas, of Williamsport, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ritter. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder spent Sunday with his parents at Millburg. Mrs. Charles Kaler and Mrs. Emerson Katherman, of Millmont, were visitors on Sunday at Elmer Beiber's. Edith Beiber has returned from a visit at Northampton and attended a meeting of the No-License League at Sunbury. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reed and son, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Harry Crawford and daughter, Dorothy and Ruth, were entertained on Sunday at Hotel Wenzel. Mrs. Flora Conly, of Lewisburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. Alice Garber.

Gratz Aid Society Builds Its Own Place of Business

Gratz, Pa., March 4.—A Ladies' Aid Society was recently organized by the women of the Reformed and Lutheran churches in town. The building headquarters in the building recently vacated by the First National Bank. In two months' time they have accumulated enough money to erect a building of business in the most prominent section of town, and the new place will be open for business this evening. They will have all sorts of eatables and many elegant articles of wear on sale. Many promises were made to devote much of their time to this cause and through sewing and quilting by the members much of the building fund has been secured. Officers of the society are: Mrs. W. O. Rodgers, Mrs. Clara Hess, Miss Ella Hartman, Mrs. George Hepler and Mrs. Joseph Umholtz. Joseph Hepler has charge of the baking and distributing of doughnuts throughout the town. The young women of the society will give a play in the latter part of March for the benefit of the society.

Mount Joy Bible Class Has 108 Members Present

Mount Joy, Pa., March 4.—The Crusader's Men's Organized Bible Class, of the United Brethren Sunday school, had an attendance of 108 members on Monday evening. The Rev. Mr. Lantz, of Shrewsbury, president of the Lancaster Conference, who spent the winter at Sarasota, Fla., has gone to Miami, where he will remain for several weeks. George H. Brown has been drawn as secretary for April 17. The United Evangelical church, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Lantz, on Tuesday reapportioned the Rev. Mr. Johnson, pastor of Mount Joy United Brethren church, as pastor of the church at Salunga, and his niece, Miss Light, of Lebanon, were in town on Wednesday. The Rev. Mr. Lantz, of Shrewsbury, who spent the winter at Sarasota, Fla., has gone to Miami, where he will remain for several weeks. George H. Brown has been drawn as secretary for April 17. The United Evangelical church, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Lantz, on Tuesday reapportioned the Rev. Mr. Johnson, pastor of Mount Joy United Brethren church, as pastor of the church at Salunga, and his niece, Miss Light, of Lebanon, were in town on Wednesday. The Rev. Mr. Lantz, of Shrewsbury, who spent the winter at Sarasota, Fla., has gone to Miami, where he will remain for several weeks. George H. Brown has been drawn as secretary for April 17. The United Evangelical church, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Lantz, on Tuesday reapportioned the Rev. Mr. Johnson, pastor of Mount Joy United Brethren church, as pastor of the church at Salunga, and his niece, Miss Light, of Lebanon, were in town on Wednesday.

Save Your Voice

At the first sign of huskiness, irritation, cough or voice-fatigue—slip into your mouth—immediately—one of

Advertisement for Drown's Bronchial Troches, featuring an illustration of a man coughing and text describing the product's benefits for voice and throat issues.

Personal News Items From Nearby Towns in Central Pennsylvania

By Special Correspondence. Bindwages Church.—Mrs. John Rooman, of Palmyra, visited her brother's family on Tuesday. John Rooman and wife, and their children, greeted friends here this week. William Gerberich visited friends at Landisburg on Wednesday. Mrs. Gerberich, wife of Levi Florry, of Grantville, visited friends at Palmyra this week. Professor Snyder, of Grantville, returned to his home in our midst on Monday.

Members Are Well-Known Businessmen of Borough

Annullville, Pa., March 4.—The board of township commissioners of Annullville township is composed of some of the most widely known and influential business men of the town. The present council is presided over by Dr. Rank, who has been a member of council since its organization, in January, 1911. Dr. Rank is a native of Lebanon county. After attending the University of Pennsylvania, where he pursued a medical course, he started his practice here. He is one of the best known physicians in Annullville. Nathaniel Light is serving his second term in council and he also is a native of Lebanon county. He is a well-known business man, being director of the People's Bank and a director and manager of the Dauphin Turnpike Company for six years. Hedwig L. Kinports is serving his second term on the board. He was born in Annullville, his father being the late Judge Kinports. At the present time Mr. Kinports is in charge of the firm of Kinports & Bro., in Main street. Milton H. Shaud is a well-known jeweler of town and has been commissioner for the past two terms. Mr. Shaud came here thirty-five years ago and his present watchmaking establishment is the largest in Annullville. Daniel T. Brighton is a new member of the board. He was born in Lebanon county and for sixteen years has been a resident of Annullville. He is a retired farmer.

Bucket of Boiling Lard Spilled Over Man's Leg

Millsburg, Pa., March 4.—The Rev. George L. Grace, who has served as pastor of Grace United Evangelical Church of Millsburg for four years was appointed to a Wilkes-Barre church by the United Brethren church at Harrisburg this week. He will be succeeded here by the Rev. Mark L. Berger, now pastor of a leading church. The family of George H. Feidt, living east of town, were severely afflicted this winter, a son having died with typhoid fever, after which the father and a daughter became ill with the same disease, but are improving and now the oldest daughter has also contracted the malady. Miss Esther Dressler, who was operated upon for appendicitis at a Harrisburg hospital last week is said to be improving. Mrs. Catharine Flets, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Miller in Lenkerville, celebrated her 80th birthday on Tuesday. Mrs. Charles Burrows took her 3-year-old daughter to the University Hospital at Philadelphia Wednesday when the child will undergo an operation. Mrs. H. H. High and daughter Miss Ruth, have returned from a visit at Harrisburg. Mrs. "Dick" Bashore, who was seriously ill with rheumatism early in the week, is said to be improving. S. S. Piek and Ralph Dreibeiber were in Philadelphia this week. Ben Thomas, P. Neagle, Killinger has a badly burned leg and foot, the result of boiling hot lard spilling from a bucket which he was carrying and running down his leg into his shoe.

Wormsburg

Wormsburg.—Miss Maude Arney, of Altoona, was a caller here on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Smith spent Tuesday at Landisburg. Mrs. Mary Miller, of Harrisburg, was a caller here on Wednesday. Mrs. W. S. Miller, of Lenkerville, celebrated her 80th birthday on Tuesday. Mrs. Charles Burrows took her 3-year-old daughter to the University Hospital at Philadelphia Wednesday when the child will undergo an operation. Mrs. H. H. High and daughter Miss Ruth, have returned from a visit at Harrisburg. Mrs. "Dick" Bashore, who was seriously ill with rheumatism early in the week, is said to be improving. S. S. Piek and Ralph Dreibeiber were in Philadelphia this week. Ben Thomas, P. Neagle, Killinger has a badly burned leg and foot, the result of boiling hot lard spilling from a bucket which he was carrying and running down his leg into his shoe.

Supervisor Repairing Streets at Union Deposit

Union Deposit, Pa., March 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keiffer and daughter, Kathryn, spent Sunday at Annullville. Mr. and Mrs. John Etter and son, Paul, of near Sand Beach, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Etter on Sunday. A. H. Hamer, of Harrisburg, visited his father at Warren. Paul Miller spent day at Harrisburg. Miss Mary Lane of Palmyra is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. William Phelps. Mrs. Edna Kautz spent Sunday at Royalton visiting her brother, Harvey Kaufman. H. D. Peiffer and family of near Shellville were the guests of his brother-in-law, Henry Peiffer on Sunday. Preaching services will be held in the United Brethren church on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, by the pastor, the Rev. Geo. W. Hallman. Lewis Curry spent Sunday at Stoverdale visiting his mother, Mrs. Edward Stover. Miss Lucia Rambler and Miss Dorothy Miller, of Harrisburg, spent a short time with the former's mother, Mrs. Lizzie Rambler. Miss Sarah Etter spent a day at Annullville. Supervisor W. R. Clay has begun repairing Main street. The Rev. A. M. Kuhns after spending several weeks at Heidelberg has now returned home. Mrs. Ella Groff and children, of near Sand Beach, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Groff, of near Sand Beach, on Saturday at Palmyra.

TURKEY DINNER ON RETURN HOME

Seventy-five Guests Welcome Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Shank at Waynesboro

WED AT PHILADELPHIA

Pastor of Church of Brethren Entertains Twenty-seven Young Women

Waynesboro, Pa., March 4.—Mrs. H. H. Walpole has returned from an extended visit to relatives in East Orange, N. J. Mrs. Samuel Dreyfus and daughter, Miss Joan Dreyfus, have returned from Washington, D. C., where they spent some time as the guests of Miss Hortense Dreyfus. Miss Madeline Warhine has returned to Frederick, Md., after spending several days with her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. J. W. Warhine. Albert Scott was a visitor to Baltimore this week. Miss Katherine Shook has returned from Baltimore. The Rev. J. Edgar Washbaugh, of Railway, N. J., spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. Harper Washbaugh. Twenty-seven young women of the Church of Brethren were entertained by the Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Jacobs. Nathaniel Funk has gone to Panama, where he will spend six months. Mrs. A. Barr Snively entertained a number of friends at a bridge party. Guy Gilbert has returned from a visit to Richmond, Va. Mrs. C. H. Stickle has returned from a visit to her son, Guy Stickle, at Harrisburg. A social function was given by the Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Jacobs, on which occasion Mrs. Anna Kirsch, on which occasion Mrs. Lottie Kirsch, of Baltimore, and Sydney Hopkins, of Wadesboro, N. C., were announced. The wedding will take place in June. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Shank, who are returning to Philadelphia and who returned to Waynesboro were tendered a hearty reception at the bride's home. An elaborate turkey dinner was enjoyed by 75 guests at the home of Mrs. W. B. Sheets, of Staunton, Va., was taken ill two weeks ago, and is now recuperating at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stickle. Mrs. J. W. Coolidge, postmaster of Ten Mar, has returned from a five weeks' sojourn in Miami, Fla.

Postcard Shower Given Miss Shirk on Birthday

Ephrata, Pa., March 4.—On Wednesday, Miss Florence Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, of Lincoln avenue, went to the General Hospital at Lancaster, where she will take a course of study with a view of becoming a trained nurse. Miss Miller has for several years been teacher of grade No. 3 in the Washington school building. Miss Miriam K. King assumed charge of the school on Wednesday evening. Tuesday, the relatives and friends of Mrs. Emma Shirk, who lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shirk, in East Franklin street, tendered her a postcard and handkerchief surprise in recognition of her birthday. In the evening, twenty or more of the young lady's friends called at her home in Church street. Harvey Fisher, a member of the Senior Fishbowl in the Ephrata High School, entertained a number of his schoolmates and friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher, on Wednesday evening. The trip in two special cars over the Ephrata and Lebanon street railway. A banquet was a feature of the evening, a check being laid for more than $300. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher, Philadelphia, gave an interesting address in the United Brethren Church on Sunday evening, on "China," in which country he was formerly engaged as a missionary. Mrs. Fisher came to Ephrata on the invitation of the Otterbein Guild of the congregation.

CELEBRATES 80TH BIRTHDAY

Thompson, Pa., March 4.—Mr. and Mrs. William Himes, of Lewisburg, spent Sunday with their parents. Mrs. David S. Funk, of Harrisburg, was a guest of Mrs. Nancy Herr on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Himes and family, of near Millersburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Samuel Leonard. Miss Esther Himes, of Harrisburg, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Zeigler. Mrs. D. H. Spotts is visiting Mrs. J. Frank Patterson at Millersburg. Mrs. John Ludwig, of Harrisburg, spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Long. Mrs. Arthur Thompson and daughter, Viola, of Tuscorora, were guests of Miss Annie Patton on Wednesday. George Keiser, of Harrisburg, spent Wednesday with his father, Jonathan Keiser. Miss Margaret Deitrich, one of the oldest residents of the town, celebrated her eightieth birthday on Monday. Mrs. John Deitrich and children, of Altoona, were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colger.

POSTMASTER IN HOSPITAL

Jonestown, Pa., March 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zartman, of Lebanon, spent Sunday with Mr. Zartman's uncle, Simon J. Kroy. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Zeigler, of Newmans town, spent Tuesday with relatives here. Clark G. Long spent Tuesday at Philadelphia and while there called on Postmaster Adam E. Herbert, who is in the German Hospital. The condition of Mrs. Charles E. Henry, who was operated upon on Tuesday is somewhat improved. Joseph Minnich was removed to the Good Samaritan Hospital at Lebanon. Robert Smith bought a horse at John A. Brandt's sale near Fredericksburg on Tuesday. Thomas M. Brock crossed the Dauphin river near Lattasburg on Tuesday.

Well-Known Manheim Woman Active at 92

Mrs. FANNY STEHMAN. By Special Correspondence. Manheim, Pa., March 4.—Mrs. Fanny Stehman, of Manheim, is hale and hearty at the advanced age of 92 years. She is possessed of all her faculties and is a pleasant conversationalist. She received a letter from her son, some dole, working thereon lilies of the valley in colors, with the year of her birth, 1824, in one corner and 1916 in the other. On Tuesday she started to knit a pair of stockings.

Visitors Enjoy Winter Days at Many Dauphin Homes

Dauphin, Pa., March 4.—Mrs. Harry Young and children, of Atlantic City, and Mrs. Walter Garman, and children, of New York city, have returned to their homes after visiting their father, T. G. Sweitzer. George Heie is visiting his daughter, Mrs. David Novinski, at Philadelphia. From there she will go to Lancaster, where she will spend some time with relatives. Mrs. George Kinter and grandchild, Helen Hoaninger, spent the week-end with Mrs. Charles Bowman, at Renovo. Mrs. Albert Koons and daughter, Helen Lucille, of Altoona, returned on Monday after a visit with Mrs. Clara Garman. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McKissick, of Hershey, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Reed. Harry B. Lyter was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Banks, at Harrisburg. William Shafer, of Harrisburg, spent Wednesday with his aunt, Mrs. W. B. Sheets. Thomas Hawthorne, of New York city, spent the week-end with his wife, Paul Harsh at Harrisburg. Ruth Shaefer was the week-end guest of her cousin, Miss Ruth Zimmerman, at Milton. Miss Ore Bickel, of Philadelphia, returned home on Monday after spending several months with Miss Carrie Elizabeth Gerberich. Mrs. Howard Bayley, of the Touraine, New York city, arrived here on Monday to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Sheets. Mrs. Emory Wierman, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Samuel Maury spent several days with their daughters, Mrs. Grover Glass and Mrs. Paul Harsh at Harrisburg. Roy McKissick is confined to his home in South Erie street with pneumonia. The Rev. S. N. Dissinger, of Kutztown, spent Tuesday in town. Mrs. R. B. Kell, of Harrisburg, spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Mattie Miss Annie Hinkle spent Wednesday with Miss Henrietta Dewalt at Harrisburg. Mrs. William Miller and daughter, Julia, of Enola, were week-end guests of Mrs. J. Williams. Mrs. Smith, of Herndon, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Williams. G. Max Williams left on Thursday for Harrisburg where he will spend the week-end. Mrs. W. E. Williams spent several days with her daughter, Mrs. Norma Herman, at Harrisburg.

Iowa Farmer Will Move Back to Pennsylvania

Blain, Pa., March 4.—Mrs. John Sautman and Battle Blair, of Landisburg, visited the former sister, Mrs. Grace Sheaffer. Newton Kerstetter has been re-elected principal of the high school for the next year. Following a dinner at the home of Mrs. Annie Hinkle spent Wednesday with Miss Henrietta Dewalt at Harrisburg. Mrs. William Miller and daughter, Julia, of Enola, were week-end guests of Mrs. J. Williams. Mrs. Smith, of Herndon, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Williams. G. Max Williams left on Thursday for Harrisburg where he will spend the week-end. Mrs. W. E. Williams spent several days with her daughter, Mrs. Norma Herman, at Harrisburg.

"New Invention"

Men Have You Lost Your Hair? LISTEN. PATENT APPLIED FOR TOUPEE. Our specialty, gentlemen, is Toupees and Wigs, which we make and send on approval with privilege of 24 hours' examination. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Our new invention is a toupee that will not lift up off the head in front where the part is as all other toupees will. Manufactured only by us. Write for our price list of these toupees and wigs.

Welles Mistratar & Co.

125 MAIN STREET, EAST ROCHESTER, N. Y. For the Sick Room. We have the necessary helps for every sick room. Helps that relieve the patient, the doctor and the nurse. Helps that render work easy and help hasten recovery. Many styles of bed and doctile pans, sheeting, urinals, air pillows and cushions, feeding cups, etc. Agents for Worthington Quality Wheel Chair for invalids and cripples. Also commode chairs. FORNEY'S DRUG STORE 31 N. Second St. Try Telegraph Want Ads here.

WILL BEAUTIFY HERSHEY TOWN

Plans For Spring Work to Include New 18-Hole Golf Course

MEXICAN LEOPARD AT ZOO

Chocolate Sent to English and Belgian Soldiers Greatly Enjoyed and Appreciated

Hershey, Pa., March 4.—With the approach of Spring plans are under way to increase the landscape development of the "Chocolate Town," already noted for the beauty of its lawns, yards and gardens. The work will consist chiefly in amplifying and filling out the plantings in the town and the park. The asphalt and macadam roadway from the Philadelphia and Reading bridge to the entrance of Highland Park drive has been planted with shrubbery and will soon be one of the most beautiful boulevards in this section. This is stick, who is also preparing the new 18-hole golf course on the heights. The 9-hole course in the town will be greatly improved, giving Hershey an unusual facilities for the sport. The chocolate sent to the soldiers in Europe was thoroughly appreciated, according to letters received from the trenches by the Hershey Chocolate company. The Hershey Chocolate and Belgium troops. A handsome specimen of the Mexican leopard, a wild animal, similar to the lynx in appearance, has been added to the Hershey Zoo. The Rev. W. R. Funk, manager of the United Brethren Publishing House, will address the union meeting at the Central Hotel tomorrow on "The Different Levels of Life." In the evening pictures showing the work of the publishing house will be shown. Mrs. B. F. Y. Graeff, of Columbia, visited her son, Dr. Graeff and family. Mrs. J. E. Sentz, of Harrisburg, has returned to her home after a week's stay. Mrs. Charles Smith, of Lancaster, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank L. DeVerte. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McKissick visited their son, Dr. Dauphin, and attended the banquet given by the P. O. S. of A.—E. L. Bomgardner inspected the schools at Beaver and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Bomgardner. Mrs. George Skivington, of Harrisburg, spent several days with her son, William Skivington. Dr. J. Landis Zimmerman entertained Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Enrich, of Harrisburg.

DILLSBURG BAND BAZAR

Dillsburg, Pa., March 4.—Mrs. Robert Spahr sustained severe injuries in a fall down the cellar steps of her home in South Baltimore street. Robert Nelson, teller of the Dillsburg National Bank, transacted business at Baltimore on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wiley who were recently home from the Dillsburg Bazaar in the Ritter home in South Second street, now occupied by John Baker. Albert Cook, a student in the High school is confined to his bed with inflammatory rheumatism. William Karnas was at Harrisburg on Sunday. Daniel Altland, who has been ill with inflammatory rheumatism, is now able to leave his bed. John Boose who for a number of years has been an employe of the New Era office will remove to the E. N. Shapley farm in Carroll township April 1. The new invention is a toupee that will not lift up off the head in front where the part is as all other toupees will. Manufactured only by us. Write for our price list of these toupees and wigs.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Dr. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This remedy also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.—Adv.

Advertisement for Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, featuring an illustration of a man in pain and text describing the medicine's effectiveness for kidney issues.

Advertisement for The American Government and The Panama Canal, featuring a coupon for a free book and text promoting the educational value of the books.