Undercurrent of Sentiment in Congress That Embargo on Arms Should Be Enforced

Washington, April 14. — In both Houses of Congress Mexican developments were watched closely and there was an undercurrent of sentiment, chiefly among Republicans that the embargo on munitions of war everywhere in Mexico should be enforced.

ARBOR DAY; NO PLANTING received the notices too late to send word to the teachers. It is understood, however, that April 28, the date of the second Arbor Day, will be given closer attention.

Thieves Enter Wallower Home With Rope Ladder; Steal Jewelry and Bonds

Thieves, who gained entrance through the transom over the kitchen front at the home of E. Z. Wallower, stole silverware from the dining room, a medallion ring and a Masonic watch chain, valued at $200, and two second mortgage bonds, Nos. 16 and 37, of the Harrisburg Academy, each issued for $500. The bonds were stolen from a desk drawer in Mr. Wallower's den and the bond numbers have been reported to the banks. The silverware loss is covered
