Victor Records for the Shakespeare Tercentenary

William Shakespeare
 Born April 23, 1564
 Died April 23, 1616

The songs of Shakespeare are now, for the first time, available to all

This year the world is honoring the memory of Shakespeare, and again the Victor demonstrates its supremacy by presenting a series of Shakespearean numbers.

These Victor Records bring back the long-forgotten music of Shakespeare and for the first time make it available to all. They are now a permanent memorial to the great poet and dramatist. A few of these interesting Shakespeare records:

Under the Greenwood Tree	Raymond Dixon
What Shall He Have Who Killed the Deer?	Victor Male Quartet
Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind	Raymond Dixon and Male Quartet
Airs Sung by Ophelia (from Hamlet)	Olive Kline
Jamaica (Old English Country Dance)	Victor Military Band
Row Well Ye Mariners (Old English Country Dance)	Victor Military Band
You Spotted Snakes	Victor Women's Chorus
Tell Me, Where is Fancy Bred	Marsh and Werrenrath
Midsummer Night's Dream—Nocturne	Victor Concert Orchestra
Midsummer Night's Dream—Intermezzo	Victor Concert Orchestra

Any Victor dealer will gladly play for you any Shakespearean music and demonstrate the various styles of the Victor and Victrola—$10 to $400.

Victor Talking Machine Co., Camden, N. J.

New Victor Records demonstrated at all dealer on the 28th of each month

Victrola

The instrument of the world's greatest artists

Important warning. Victor Records can be safely and satisfactorily played only with Victor Needles or Victor Stylus on Victrola or Victrolas. Victor Records cannot be safely played on machines with jeweled or other reproducing points.
