Birthday Celebration For Miss Helen Pierce

Miss Helen Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Pierce, 446 South Fourteenth street, was given a twin party in celebration of her eleventh birthday. Festoons of pink and white, flowers of the same colors and blooming plants gave the lawn a festive air, and in the center of the refreshment table was a large cake iced in white and bearing eleven pink candles.

Pretty gifts were presented to Miss Helen by her guests, who included the Misses Mildred Arbegast, Nellie Lack, Marie Wolfarth, Marion Orr, Jean Orr, Maryemma Orr, Blanche Isele, Evelyn Smith, Ellen Holbert, Edith Holbert, Cathrine McCloskey, Jessie Stone, Violet McLane, Doris McLane and Louise Downing, Charles Downing, Wilbur Arbegast.

Assisting in entertaining the little folks were Mrs. E. A. Arbegast, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Mahon, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Arbegast, Mrs. N. W. Downing, Mrs. George McLane and Mr. and Mrs. George Pierce.

PERSONAL—SOCIAL

PLEASANT TO TAKE YOUR DINNER ON PORCH

AT CEDAR CLIFF FARMS

How would you like to eat a splendid dinner, served on a wide porch shaded by sweet-scented locust trees in full bloom, with the lively strains of an orchestra nearby, and in view of a swirling crowd of dancing men and women? You'd like it!

Well, you may do it, if you desire, on the evening of May 29, at Cedar Cliff Farms, Yellow Breeches creek, where the members of the Pure Milk Society will hold a Locust Blossom Fete to raise money for the purchase of milk and the providing of nursing and medical care for hundreds of the needy babies of Harrisburg this summer.

And after the dinner you may swim, boathouse, stroll in the splendid grounds or join the merry throng that will be dancing in the locust grove from 4 until 11 o'clock.

Tickets for admission cost $1.50, good for the entire day's entertainment. Open at 3 o'clock. Supper tickets for a full course meal, will cost $1. Both are on sale at Rose's, Walnut and Second streets.

ENTERTAINMENT BY MUSIC PUPILS

Little Bo-Peep and Other Mother Goose Characters Will Take Part in Program

MISS LEANOIRE SOURBIER

There's quite a varied program for the entertainment to be held in the Board of Trade to-morrow evening by music pupils of the Mercy Home, so the taste of every one will be satisfied.

Dances, songs, recitations, Desarte movements, drills and a pantomime will all be given in delightful fashion, showing the progress the children have made during the past year's instruction.

"Little Bo-Peep" and her story always arouse interest, and with her to-morrow evening will be five other "Mother Goose" characters, including old Mother herself. Miss Leanoire Sourbier will take the leading role in this little playlet, assisted by Little Miss Maschiel, Mary Wolz; Little Boy Blue, Francis Russ; Mother Goose, Sara Maloney; Old Man in Leather, Loma Sites; Red Riding Hood, Alice St. Peter; Jack Horner, Joseph Smarsh.

JULIUS CAESAR AS THE SENIOR PLAY

Central High Class Aims High in Producing Shakespearean Play This Year

The senior class of the Central high school is rehearsing for "Julius Caesar" these days and planning to give the play at the Chestnut Street Auditorium early in June. The nationwide celebration of the Shakespeare tercentenary originated with the Drama League of America and the pupils of the Central high school are not one bit out of date even if their building is not so modern. Despite the difficult and heavy tragedy for amateurs, in keeping with the celebration which the year demands for the death of "the myriad-minded Shakespeare as well as in accordance with the talent which this year's graduating class evinces along these lines, backed by the efficient training of Miss Anabelle Swartz, the class of 1916 of the Central high school will give as its commencement play "Julius Caesar."

Judging from the success of former plays, "Jedburry, Jr." presented by the class of 1914 and "The College Widow," given by last year's class, the success of this play is assured.

A synopsis follows: Act I, scene 1, Rome, scene 2, a public place. Caesar and his train en route to witness the races. Scene 3, a street during a storm. Act II—Scene 1, Rome, Orchard of Brutus. Meeting of conspirators. Scene 2, Caesar's house. Scene 3, street before the home of Brutus. Act III—Scene 1, Rome, before the capitol. The assassination. Scene 2, the Forum. Act IV—Scene 1, a house in Rome. Meeting of the Triumvirs. Scenes 2 and 3, camp near Sardis. The tent of Brutus. Scene 1, the plains of Philippi. Meeting of Antony and Octavius with Brutus and Cassius. Scenes 2 and 3, a place near field of battle. Scenes 4 and 5, another part of the field.

Well-Balanced Cast

The cast of characters comprises: Julius Caesar, Vernon Widder; Octavius Caesar, Marcus Antonius and Lepidus, triumvirs after the death of Julius Caesar, Homer Kreider, James Minnaugh and Edward Wallower; Cleo, Stray Wagon; Marcus Brutus, Cassius, Casca, Trebonius, Ligarius, Decius, Brutus, Metellus Cimber and Cinna, conspirators against Caesar, Charles Segelhorn, Horace Nunemaker, Emil Hill, Jay Smith, Herbert Remmer, Ezra Strohm, Stanley Wengert and Robert Michael; Flavius, Marullus and the cobbler, tribunes, Jay Smith, Daniel Burkholder and Lloyd Marcus; soothsayer, Paris H. friends of Brutus and Cassius, Titinius, Messala and Volturnus; servants to Brutus, Strato, Lucius and Clitus, Howell Becht, Sara Maloney and Ezra Strohm; Pindarus, servant to Cassius, Paris Rapp; servant to Octavius, William Meyers; Calphurnia, wife to Caesar, Miss Gertrude Wilson; Portia, wife to Brutus, Miss Gertrude Wilson; citizens, guards, attendants, etc., Miss Sara Faunce, Miss Ethel Fisher, Miss Nita Spangler, Miss Eva Selheimer, Miss Lillian Koch, Daniel Burkholder, Edward Wallower, William Meyers and Homer Kreider.

The opportunity to see and come into touch with Shakespeare, especially when his works are now in the limelight in this tercentenary celebration, is the high school play, and the door is open—your enter with a mere ticket. By all means do not allow the door of opportunity to swing in your faces.

Complimentary Musicals by Fager School Pupils

The ninth grade, Fager building, taught by Miss Minnie E. Sample, under the direction of Miss Ella S. Vest, gave a musical in honor of the eighth grade, Miss Anna Bender, teacher, yesterday afternoon. The programs, shaped like a thirty-second note, were made by the pupils and were quite unique.

Following is the program: (a) "Corn Song," (b) "O Vales With Sunlight," school; piano duet by Mary Levin and Margaret Reel; (a) "Bird Song," (b) "Song of Home," school; piano solo, Margaret Worley; (a) "Lift Thine Eyes," (b) "May Song," school; piano duet by Mary Harris and Emily Sites; "Forget-Me-Not," song by nine girls; "To Thee, O Country," school.

GUESTS AT NARBERTH

Miss Carrie Gerberich, of Dauphin, left yesterday for Narberth, Pa., to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Graw and piano duet by Mary Harris and Emily Sites; "Forget-Me-Not," song by nine girls; "To Thee, O Country," school.

Miss Sara Lackey, of Enola, visited friends in town yesterday.

George Sutton Sings Solo Part in Several Oratorios

George Sutton, baritone soloist at the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, will sing the part of Sir Olaf in the "Erl King's Daughter," by Gode, which will be rendered by the Middletown Choral Society in the Realty Theater in Middletown to-morrow evening. This is Mr. Sutton's seventh appearance as a soloist for the Middletown Society. Mr. Sutton will sing the baritone part in "The Rose Maiden" at Brookville, Jefferson county, on Friday evening. The other soloists in this oratorio will be Pittsburgers. Mr. Sutton will not sing at the usual Friday evening service at the Ohev Shalom temple but will return in time for the Sunday services in the Pine Street Church.

WORKING IN FRANCE

Letters received by relatives in this city from Jackson Herr Boyd, who has taken up work with the American ambulance corps in France, are full of enthusiasm for work he hopes to do at the front. Under the French government he has instructed a score of men in assembling automobiles for use as ambulances.

William J. Bryson, of Chicago, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sanford D. Coe, North Second street.

Gifts and Good Wishes on Their Golden Wedding

One of the anniversaries, always looked forward to by married pairs is their golden wedding, when the strenuous part of life is past and they can quietly watch the shadows lengthen together. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallis of 238 Hummel street, have reached this point in their lives and to-day are receiving beautiful flowers, gifts and good wishes from many old friends.

Miss Margaret W. McLinn and Robert Wallis were married in Thompsonstown, Juniata county, May 24, 1866. Since Mr. Wallis' retirement from an active business life 20 years ago, they have made their home in this city. Their children are Frank J., Ralph M., Miss Jean M., and E. Earl Wallis, all of this city. There are no grandchildren.

Pretty Costume Dances Seen in May Festival

A May festival will be held in St. Andrew's parish house, Nineth and Market streets, to-morrow evening, with general dancing from 8 to 9:30 o'clock, cabaret at 9:30 and ribbon cotillion from 10 to 12, danced by forty couples, with ribbon favors. During the cabaret refreshments will be served and the May pole dance, the lancers, Dutch dance and Irish all done by young girls in costume. The Misses Grace Selkman and Lola Heiser will dance to Dvorak's humoresque and Louis Munnell will give a solo.

Shuey and Delone will play and the dancing will be directed by C. O. Sharr, of Camp Hill. This May festival promises to be the largest event of its kind ever held in the city. Subscriptions at a quarter each entitle the holder to see the special dances and participate in the general dancing.

Summerdale Park

Two orchestras Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Band and orchestra Saturday evenings.—Adv.

Mr. C. T. Ferry, Professor of Modern Dancing, and who is dancing at the Savoy Hotel, will open his school of instruction of the latest up-to-date dances, on Friday evening. MEMORIAL CHURCH LADIES GIVE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Memorial Lutheran Church, Fifteenth and Shoop streets, will hold an ice cream and strawberry festival at the church Friday evening, May 26. A cake and candy sale is also being arranged in connection with the festival. The committee of the society in charge is busy planning and working for the fete, which it is hoped many members of the church and their friends will heartily co-operate in making a success. The proceeds will be for the benefit of carrying on the work of the Home and Foreign Mission Society.

Alricks' Men to Entertain Wives and Sweethearts

Members of the Alricks Association will hold their annual "ladies' night" on Friday at St. Andrew's parish house. It will be the time for the regular monthly social meeting of the club, but the executive committee has arranged a more than usually elaborate program in honor of the ladies.

Will A. Kitchen, of Lycoming county, a professional entertainer, who is employed in the Star Fire Marshal's department, will be the star of the program and will appear twice during the evening.

Instrumental music will be furnished by the orchestra of the Mount Bible Class of the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church. Vocal solos will be rendered by I. B. Dickerson and C. Howard Reel, and recitations will be given by Parker Thayer Barnes and Daniel E. Taylor.

A stereopticon will be used for lantern slide songs and moving pictures supplied by a pathoscope. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the evening.

You Needn't Always Wear Glasses--

If you'll act promptly when those faithful servants, your eyes, first send out their signals of distress. That headache, the burning, itching eyes are but "S. O. S." signals for relief. Properly fitted glasses will relieve the tension on the optic nerves and unless your case is bad, you may, in a short while go without your glasses. At any rate, see Belsinger.

A Mistake in the Policy of the Bethlehem Steel Company

To the People:

The Senate of the United States has passed a bill to spend $11,000,000 of the People's money to build a government armor plant. The measure is now before the House of Representatives.

It is said that manufacturers of armor have "gouged" the country in the past, and that a government plant is necessary to secure armor more cheaply.

The mistake of the Bethlehem Steel Company has been that it has kept quiet. We have allowed irresponsible assertions to be made for so long without denial, that many people now believe them to be proven facts.

We shall make the mistake of silence no longer.

Henceforth we shall pursue a policy of publicity. Misinformation will not be permitted to go uncorrected.

It is and has been the policy of our Company to deal with the American Government fairly and squarely.

We shall henceforth place the details of our relations with the Government before the American People.

The United States has for twenty years obtained the highest grade of armor and has paid a lower price for it than has any other great naval power.

Figures officially compiled for the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs from the Naval Year Book show that under conditions prevailing just before the European war, the chief naval powers of the world were paying these prices for armor:

England, $503 per ton; France, $460; Germany, $490; Japan, $490; UNITED STATES, $425

A government plant cannot make armor any cheaper than we can do it; and—

We are prepared to manufacture armor at any price which the Government itself shall name as fair. THAT BEING SO, SHOULD $11,000,000 OF THE PEOPLE'S MONEY BE WASTED TO BUILD A GOVERNMENT PLANT?

CHAS. M. SCHWAB, Chairman,
EUGENE G. GRACE, President.
