

GOVERNOR ROLLS UP SLEEVES AND WORKS

the upper end of the county, where he found a party of Millersburg Automobile Club members and Halfway people repairing the road near Baker's school house. Harry M. Fairchild, of Millersburg, assisted by O. H. Watts, H. H. Hoy, John Klingman and H. W. Bowman, was in charge of operations at this point, and so efficiently and energetically was the work being pushed that the Governor took a hand and for an hour handled a shovel, drove a dirt wagon and guided a plough. On leaving he shook hands with Foreman Fairchild, with the remark:

"If we had ten men like you in every district, good roads would be assured for the whole State."

About twenty ladies who were in the party at this point, good-bye to the Governor as he departed and gave him the chautauqua salute.

Doing a Big Job

At Mattis farm the Governor found another party of volunteers under State Highway direction tearing away a big knob in the road and the work of a large American flag that had been floated from a tall pole. He congratulated J. R. Seal and George O. Loomis, in charge of the work, and took off his hat to Cornelius Waldron, aged 89, the oldest good roads advocate to wield a shovel in this county to-day.

Near Halfway the executive party found large numbers of farmers on the roads and at one place he was presented with a huge shovel bearing the sign:

"We want a bridge across the river at Millersburg."

The Governor read it, smiled, and said: "I am with you, on that; you ought to have a bridge."

The party made a stop at the bungalow of Harry M. Fairchild, where a party of Millersburg ladies were preparing lunch for the workers, and the Governor made a speech to them. Near that place he found a repair gang of Pennsylvania Railroad employees using a drag on the river road and hundreds of farmers out all the way to Millersburg. At that point he took the ferry for Perry county.

Governor Makes Speech

The Governor found over 100 representatives of the Millersburg Motor Club and others at work with five teams near Elizabethtown and made his first speech there, congratulating them on the spirit of service they showed and the enthusiasm displayed for good roads. Among those who were in charge there were Dr. W. L. Stevens, W. S. Weiland, D. M. Swab, C. E. Keefe, C. G. Romberger, W. J. Daniels, Otto E. Enders, W. A. Boulder and Joseph and Henry Shultzbach, all of Elizabethtown; Isaiah Swab, D. M. Bechtel and Fred K. Chance. Fred is only 5 years old, but he hustled about with pick and shovel and received smiling congratulations from Governor Brumbaugh. At this point also the party found at work Ira E. Ush, Republican candidate for the Legislature, "Jimmy" Lentz, County Recorder, was "boss of the job" in this district.

A party of Elizabethtown school teachers were out in sunbonnets breaking stone and the Governor tried his hand at a considerable success. He tried to teach the art to Private Secretary Ball, who broke no stones, but ruined one perfectly good hammer in the effort.

The young women were "shot" by a moving picture man and all of them kept pounding steadily away as the "movie" maker fired broadsides at them.

From there the party went to Berrysburg and Killinger and thence back to the ferry.

CAN'T ANCHOR BOAT-HOUSES ON 'FRONT STEPS'

anchors above and below these points along the wall and it is understood that rules to govern this phase of the question will be taken up by Mr. Gross with council.

Mr. Seitz's Opinion

The boat-house problem has been a subject of more or less discussion since the completion of the "Front Steps" but the matter was brought to a head when one of the boating enthusiasts, Commissioner Gross whether a permit of some description would be necessary to locate his craft. The point he sought was within the limits of what is known as the "Harris grant"—the frontage set aside by John Harris, the founder of the city, as the original city water front.

In the last few weeks three or four new boat livery have appeared along the water front and while it is the park department's desire to allow ample facilities for boating enthusiasts it is not the intent to allow the water front to be lined with floating bathhouses.

To Use Boat Ferriss

Just what plan will be adopted can better be determined after Mr. Manning's views have been obtained but it is probable that a scheme whereby the floats can be anchored in the stream off shore, will be decided upon. If this plan be adopted, it is quite likely that the boat liverymen will have to devise means for transporting patrons from the wall to the floats.

FILE EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

Primary expense accounts filed today included the following, all of which were for less than $50: Harry Hertzler and Charles E. Land, Washington national delegates; George D. Herbert, Democratic Senator; Joseph B. Martin, Second District, Washington Republican Assemblyman; John K. Royal, State Democratic committee, and W. L. Grogan, Democratic national delegate; Charles Price, Democratic-Republican Mining Inspector, and J. L. Yoder, Socialist candidate for Assembly.

WILLING FOR U. S. TO BE PEACE MEDIATOR (Continued From First Page.) will undoubtedly be willing to consider such suggestions as he may offer. Peace Move Must Rest on Mutual Understanding By Associated Press Washington, May 25.—President Wilson told callers to-day that the intervention of a neutral in behalf of peace in Europe could rest only on a mutual understanding by the belligerents that terms to be arranged are to conserve the interests of all and of the world at large, rather than those of a particular nation or group of nations among the warring powers. Mr. Wilson did not disclose any definite plan of action he may have formulated in regard to peace, nor authorize a formal statement of his attitude. His callers gained an impression, however, that the President would entertain suggestions that he extend his good offices to the belligerents to bring about peace only when the conditions he outlined were likely of fulfillment.

You Can Nurse Your Baby Longer Instead of weaning him at five or six months, you can nurse him the full nine months that you should if, when he is little, you substitute lone feeding a day of Nestlé's. It is like mother's milk that the baby will feel no difference. Nestlé's gives him just that little extra food he needs to help along his growing little body. And when weaning time comes, he will change to the bottle gradually and easily on Nestlé's Food (A Complete Food—Not a Milk Modifier) It is better for the baby and is better for you. Your own health will be better because you are allowed to miss a nursing or two and go out into the fresh air. When you wean your baby on Nestlé's you know he is safe, because Nestlé's is always the same, always free from germs, always contains the same things that your baby needs. Don't wean him on cow's milk. You can never be sure of cow's milk even if you know it comes from a clean dairy, even if you know it is free from sickness. It has a tough curd the baby can't digest, and home modifying is uncertain. You cannot modify it with such scientific care as Nestlé's does it for you. In Nestlé's—milk from healthy cows, purified, free from germs—the calf needs are modified, the baby needs are added. Reduced to a powder—it comes to you in an air-tight can. No hand has touched it—no germ can reach it. It is a complete food, so you add only water and boil one minute—and you know that you are giving your baby the food that his little body needs.
