BOWMAN-McCASKEY WEDDING AT HIGH NOON

MRS. PAUL U. BOWMAN

One of the first June weddings took place at high noon today in the Reformed Salem Church when the Rev. Dr. Ellis N. Kremer officiated in the marriage of Miss Miriam Helen McCaskey and Paul U. Bowman, both of this city. The bride, who was unattended, wore a modish gold-embroidered gown of dark blue serge and tulle with milan hat faced and banded in old rose. Her corsage was of lilies of the valley and sweetheart roses. Following a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Bowman will occupy their newly furnished house at 2928 Briggs street. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCaskey of Pittsburgh, and is well known among the younger folks of the city. Mr. Bowman is connected with the Arcade Laundry of this city.

THE GRAHAM-BOYD OUTDOOR BRIDAL

Ceremony of This Afternoon in Old-Fashioned Garden at Oakleigh

One of the prettiest of June weddings is taking place this afternoon at "Oakleigh," the Boyd country estate, near historic Paxtang. The ceremony, uniting Miss Louise Evelyn Boyd, daughter of the late John Yeoman and Mrs. Eleanor Her Boyd, to John Graham of Philadelphia, will be performed at 5 o'clock in the old-fashioned garden near the house, amid masses of rhododendron, lilies, pink ramblers, peonies, iris and American Beauty roses. Uttley, who has charge of the decorations, has used the same flowers on the porches and throughout the house with exquisite effect.

The officiating clergymen will be the Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge, pastor of the "Pine Street" Presbyterian Church, this city, and the Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, of the Tenth Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia. Hertzberg's orchestra of Philadelphia, will play the wedding music during the reception following the service and Thomas L. James of Philadelphia is catering.

The charming bride, who will be given in marriage to her brother, James Boyd, has chosen a wedding gown of white satin draped in rare, old family lace, with tulle veil and orange blossoms worn by her mother at her own wedding. She will carry a bouquet of orchids, lilies of the valley and forget-me-nots.

The flower girl, Miss Mary S. Graham, the bridegroom's sister, will wear blue tulle, pink and white, and carry a basket of forget-me-nots and nidget roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Julia Marschall of Duluth, Minn., Miss Mary Schiefelin of Philadelphia, Miss Bent of Philadelphia, Miss Georgia Bailey, Miss Mary Mitchell and Miss Myrvinne Leason of this city, will be attired in girlish frocks of pink chiffon with blue sashes, green tulle hats, bronze slippers and hose, and carry blue chip baskets tied with pink ribbons, filled with snapdragons, pink and yellow roses and forget-me-nots. The best man will be Thomas G. Hirst, and the ushers include: John Dupuy Graham, Antony L. Geyelin, Richard Tikhman, Alden Lee and Thomas A. Egan, all of Philadelphia, and T. Gardiner Spinwall of Boston.

In Old Family Carriage After an extended wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Graham will be "At Home" to their friends at Philadelphia. An interesting feature of the wedding is that the bride will be driven to the station in the same family carriage by the same coachman who drove her father to the same station when he started away on their own wedding day. The bride was educated at the Dobbs Ferry school and since then has spent much of her time at Southern Pines, where she has a winter home.
