PARDON BOARD IS GIVEN PETTY WORK

Objection Voiced in Strong Terms to Trivial Character of Cases

The State Board of Pardons adjourned for the summer recess last night with a protest by Lieutenant Governor Frank B. McClain against the trivial character of many of the cases being sent before the board and a flat turnout of several murder cases which have been attracting attention.

Mr. McClain said that too much maudlin sentimentality was being displayed in the cases sent to the board. This came after appeals had been made that men were model prisoners and in one case that a man, if liberated, would take the place of a useful artisan who might be called to war.

Toward the end of the session Mr. McClain and Secretary of Justice Commonwealth Woods several times commented upon the kind of the cases coming up and Mr. Woods said that the board was being asked to sit in cases which the law never contemplated. "If this continues we will have to have the board sit in cases where life and death were concerned and in grave issues which might arise when the cases left the courts" said Mr. McClain. "It keeps on being asked to sit in cases of appeals from men sentenced to thirty days by justices of the peace for corner loafing."

The decisions of the board were as follows:

Recommended — John Zakaluk, Lackawanna, burglary; Charles E. Weeks, Warren, second degree murder; Tony George, Armstrong, assault and battery; Alfred F. Jones, Fayette, murder (commuted); Leonard Wyming and Ralph Emmerich, Lehigh, larceny; Earl Garis, Northampton, assault with intent to rob; George Garis, Chester, impersonating an officer; Charles Wilson, Schuylkill, burglary; H. M. Gibson, Dauphin, attempted larceny; Silas Gibson, Beaver, felonious assault; Joseph C. Lye, Lycoming, breaking and entering; Charles Samone, Luzerne, manslaughter; Aloyd Jackson, Philadelphia, assault and battery, robbery; Paul Caulford, Chester, rape.

Refusals — H. E. Miller, Westmoreland, murder; Jacob Miller, Philadelphia, murder; Gaspar Marturana and Thomas Chickarell, Cambria, murder; Adolph Blas, Lackawanna, embezzlement; John and Anthony Bartlinski, Northumberland, assault and battery; Robert Beswick, Montgomery, larceny; Mike Kupper, Lehigh, trespass; Carl Dougherty, Carbon, rape; Richard Miller, Montgomery, burglary; Mendel Gross, Dauphin, pandering; Albert Heagy, Dauphin, robbery; Albert Moore, Allegheny, robbery; Andrew Brown, Allegheny, perjury; William Barnes, Franklin, manslaughter; Frank Minnich, York, felonious entry and larceny; Dmytro Haurilian, Luzerne, felonious wounding; Robert Ryan, Luzerne, breaking and entering; Raymond Kienle, Philadelphia, rape; Edgar C. Hess, Philadelphia, adultery; John Gallagher, Philadelphia, assault and battery; Joseph Morrelle, Philadelphia, larceny; Frank Tactel, Philadelphia, rape; Louis O. Hise, Philadelphia, murder (commuted); James McCullough, Philadelphia, larceny; Dominic Peter, Philadelphia, larceny; Clarence Heitzman, Philadelphia, larceny; James Gellispe, Montgomery, burglary. Refused — Andrew Beeze, Westmoreland, murder; James E. Foye, Philadelphia, forgery; Harry Jacobs and George Jacobs, Perry, breaking and entering; Thomas E. Patterson, Cumberland, burglary, etc.

SOUNDS DEATH KNELL OF MOOSE

quent grave risks to the national life of the United States.

For the Progressive party and the course it has followed since its birth, four years ago, Colonel Roosevelt has neither excuses, explanations nor apologies. It came into being, he holds, at a time when the Republican party had become the party of reaction and ceased to be the party of Lincoln and the plain people.

In the four years that have elapsed the Republicans have come back to the ancient landmarks, have enacted into laws in the several States many of the most important reforms for which the Progressives stood and have placed their candidate upon a platform to which every Progressive can subscribe, the Colonel contends.

No Reason to Remain Out

The Progressive yeast having thus leavened the entire Republican lump, there is no reason, he in substance says, why for the sake of party name or personal pride those who left the Republican party to protest against Bourbonism should not now return and make common cause against what he believes is a national menace.

So far as justice Hughes is concerned, Colonel Roosevelt's endorsement is unqualified, he finding in him a candidate whom he believes every man, regardless of former political creed or racial origin, can support.

confident that the best traditions of America will be maintained under his administration.

In taking this position Colonel Roosevelt abandons none of the principles for which he stood in 1912, or has since advocated. In the present position of the Republican party the reforms not yet accomplished which the Progressives set out to obtain can be accomplished better by working with them than fighting without the ranks.

These views, he believes, will be acceptable to the committee, the majority of which has been in touch with him and expressed its approval directly or through proxies.

Powerful Document

Members of this committee who know the general terms of the Colonel, say that it is one of the strongest documents that ever came from his pen. It is particularly strong, they say, in its arraignment of President Wilson and his policies of his administration, but, above all, they say, it is a call to the American people to get together, forget their differences of the past and make common cause against dangers of hyphenates at home and possible enemies abroad.

Emphasis, they say, is also laid upon the needs for economic preparedness against the depression which is certain to follow the end of the war in Europe if the American people are to meet regardless of former political creed or racial origin, can support.

All these, it is maintained, can be had only from an administration which stands for everything that President Wilson has not practiced; therefore, to do otherwise than to exert every effort to insure his defeat, it is maintained, would be unpatriotic, and the end fraught with grave dangers.

Rub Out Rheumatism with WONDEROIL

Stiff Joints Loosen Up Like Magic; Lumbago Relieved Over Night

Antiseptic Wonderoil draws all the painful stiffness, soreness and swelling from rheumatic joints, and does it so sure and speedily it seems almost like magic. It takes little more than a 25-cent box bought from George A. Gorgas or any leading dealer here in Harrisburg to prove it in almost every case.

First heat Wonderoil, then rub in gently and bind up with flannel. It never just drives pain from one spot to another, but draws it right out of the body.

Wonderoil is a physician's prescription and has been in successful use for over 50 years. It is pure and antiseptic. It never blisters and is pleasant to use. A generous sample will be sent on request by M. E. Raymond, Inc., Ballston Spa, N. Y.

diana county, and New Alexandria and Export in Westmoreland county.

At Wilkesburg monument is to be erected from the funds provided by public subscription. The details of this monument will be worked out at a meeting of the governors, to be held in Philadelphia within a few days.

Branch route from Harrisburg to Washington passes through either Gettysburg or Chambersburg. The Reading cut-off to New York will touch Allentown and Easton.

The official marker will be a blue keystone on a white background inscribed with the letters "W. Penn." W. L. Plack, of Philadelphia, participated in the governor's conference. William Jennings, of Harrisburg, president, presided.

The Pennsylvania Railroad will fill in for a mile and a half the old canal route near Speeceville, Dauphin county.

The following honorary members of the association were elected: Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh, Senators Boise Penrose and George T. Oliver; William Penn, Terre Haute, Ind.; E. M. Book, Philadelphia; Lewis A. Park, Pittsburgh, and E. J. Stackpole, Harrisburg.

The following governors were present: William Jennings, Harrisburg, president of the Association; Dr. Joseph D. Findley, Altoona; W. L. Plack, Philadelphia; Senator William Manbeck, Ciffin; James Macklin, McVeytown; E. M. C. Africa, Huntingdon; David Barry, Johnstown, treasurer; Frank M. Graf, Elizaville; B. H. Jackson, Wilkesburg; J. W. Donohy, Pittsburgh, and J. G. H. Rippman, Millersville.

PETERSON'S OINTMENT BEST FOR ECZEMA

First Application Stops Itching of Eczema, Salt Rheum and Piles

"Live and let live is my motto," says Peterson, "and I say to these druggists, if anyone buys my ointment for any of the diseases or ailments for which I recommend it and are not benefited give me their money back."

"I've got a safe full of thankful letters testifying to the mighty healing power of Peterson's Ointment for old itching scabs, eczema, salt rheum, ulcers, sore nipples, broken breast, itching scalp and skin, blind, bleeding and itching piles."

John Scott, 283 Virginia St., Buffalo, writes, "Peterson's Ointment is simply wonderful. It cured me of eczema and also piles, and did it so quickly that I was astonished."—Advertisement.

WITHOUT MOTHER

It's awful lonesome at our house 'Thout Mother;

It's just as quiet as a mouse 'Thout Mother;

An' Father looks so lonely there Of evenin's, sittin' in his chair; It just ain't cheerful anywhere 'Thout Mother!

It's awful hard to get along 'Thout Mother;

It seems like everything goes wrong 'Thout Mother;

'Course, Father does the best he can; But then, you know, he's just a man, An' don't know how to fix an' plan Like Mother.

Seems like I don't enjoy my play 'Thout Mother;

Things just get worse every day 'Thout Mother;

There's no one now to mend my doll, Nobody's sorry when I fall— Oh, home just ain't no place at all 'Thout Mother!

But Father says we must be brave 'Thout Mother;

'Cause him an' me, we only have One 'nother.

An' if we're brave, an' strong, an' true, We'll go up Home, when life is thrgh, We'll go up Home, when life is thrgh, To Mother.

REAL ESTATE

NEW HOTEL ON DOEHNE PLOT

Five-Story Structure of Brick, Stone, Concrete and Steel

New hotel for Harrisburg is described in the Philadelphia Public Ledger this morning. The proposed building is to be built by Charles E. and George L. Doehne, and will occupy the big tract at Fourth and Chestnut streets, now owned by the Doehnes.

It is to be a thoroughly modern hostelry, five stories high with basement, of brick, stone, concrete and steel, with a frontage on Chestnut street of 107 feet and on Fourth street of 96 feet.

Among the companies estimating on the contract are the Roydhouse-Arey Company and James H. Wells, of Philadelphia. The bids will be opened July 10. C. Harry Kain is the architect.

ASTHMA

Simple Harmless Remedy Brings Quick Relief. Makes Breathing Easy

Many cases of immediate relief and rapid recovery from Bronchial Asthma of throat and lungs are being credited to a discovery made by Dr. Eugene Howard, of Worcester, Mass. Dr. Howard's prescription, which is totally different from all usual methods of treatment for these afflictions, is called Oxidaze and comes in the form of a tablet which the patient allows to dissolve slowly in the mouth. Its curative, healing juices thus mingle with the saliva and enter every crevice of the irritated bronchial membranes, release the muscular construction of the bronchial tubes, open up the air passages and regulate the spasmodic lung action. These tablets, though pleasant to the taste, are so powerful and rapid in their action that many users who for years were obliged to sit up in bed gasping for breath and unable to sleep report that they now put a single Oxidaze tablet in their mouth when going to bed and can then lie down and breathe easily and naturally and get a good night's restful sleep. G. A. Gorgas and many other local druggists who handle Oxidaze tablets sell it on the positive guarantee of money back if it does not give immediate relief.—Advertisement.

Republican Candidate Is Back in New York

By Associated Press

New York, June 22. — Charles E. Hughes arrived here early to-day from Providence, R. I., where he attended the commencement of Brown University. He went to a hotel. Mr. Hughes had only one engagement which was to meet Franklin Murphy, formerly governor of New Jersey, to-morrow night.

Mr. Hughes will remain here until Saturday when he will go to his summer home at Bridgehampton, L. I.
