PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

MISS MORELAND'S QUIET MARRIAGE

Popular Uptown Folks Wed at Pine Street Presbyterian Parsonage

MRS. THOMAS E. HOFFMAN

Mrs. Effie Moreland, of 414 Hamilton street, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Emma Rose Moreland, to Thomas Elwood Hoffman, of 412 Muench street. The ring ceremony was performed last evening at the parsonage of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, North Front street, by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge.

The bride wore a dainty gown of ivory white satin with a corsage of rosebuds and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Laura Elizabeth Moreland, who wore blue crepe de chine and carried a shower of sweet peas. The best man was Irwin D. Moreland, the bride's brother. After a wedding supper served at the bride's home Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman left for a brief wedding trip east and will make their home in this city on their return. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman have a wide circle of friends. Mr. Hoffman is a machinist with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in Roundhouse No. 2.

AT DELAWARE WEDDING
Miss Mary Kathryn Jackson, of 1618 North Second street, who spent the past week with relatives in New York city, is motoring to Wilmington, Del., to attend the Chambers-Smedley wedding. Dr. and Mrs. John Price Jackson are leaving this city by automobile to-day to also be guests at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Day, of Wormleysburg, announce the birth of a daughter, Louise Marie Day, at the Hartman Hospital, Sunday, June 18, 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grimm, Jr., of Germantown, Philadelphia, former Harrisburgers, announce the birth of a son, William Rodearmel Grimm. Mrs. Grimm was Miss Helen Rodearmel prior to her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Bowen, of Brooklyn, announce the birth of a daughter, Helen Elizabeth Bowen, Thursday, June 22, 1916. Mrs. Bowen was formerly Miss Grace Marie Stewart of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fairley Ross, of Pittsburgh, announce the birth of a son, Wilfred Winston Ross, Tuesday, June 20, 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Ross resided in this city for a time, leaving about a year ago for Pittsburgh.

Attention War Brides! Free Wedding Ceremonies

Not to be outdone by Recorder Lentz, who has agreed to furnish marriage licenses free to the "war brides," two ministers of the city promise to marry all couples with the necessary credentials to prove that the bridegroom is going to war free. These big-hearted pastors are the Rev. Thomas Relsch, of Christ Lutheran Church, the parsonage, 1311 Derry street, and the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker, of the Stevens Memorial Methodist Church, the parsonage at 1811 Vernon street. Presumably these ministers will get the bulk of the war weddings, as this is the time young couples will want to save money.

Hemmer-Wertz Wedding Ceremony Last Evening

Miss Ruth Wertz and Norman Hemmer of Wormleysburg, were married last evening in the United Brethren Church of this place. The Rev. G. E. Kenschaw performed the ceremony, using the ring service. The wedding march was played by Miss Ruth Hummel and Mrs. Charles Sparrow, the recessional. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, wore a gown of white satin and Georgette with pearl trimming, and her veil, worn in cup effect, was a net-work in her father's family. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Mary Lutz, of Chambersburg, was maid of honor, and wore white taffetas and net and carried white roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Wertz, of this city, and Miss Nerissa Sackey of Wormleysburg, who wore pink silk messaline gowns and carried Killarney roses. Miss Mary Igenitz, of New Kingstown and Miss Genevieve L'etite of this city were flower girls and wore white frocks with pink sashes and hair ribbons. Edward Foster, of Hershey, was best man. Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bridegroom, and to-day Mr. and Mrs. Hemmer left for a trip to eastern cities. After July 1 they will be "at home" in Wormleysburg. The guest list included people from Harrisburg, Chambersburg and the towns through the Cumberland valley.

MOTOR FROM MICHIGAN

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sherwood and son, of Marquette, Mich., spent yesterday in the city with friends on their way to the White Mountain via Gettysburg. The party came east by automobile. Mr. Sherwood was born and lived for a time in Northumberland, Pa. His father was Speaker of the House in the Legislature of 1840.

with their artillery on the French in the Champagne region and at night attacked three times on a 1200-yard front near Maisons-de-Champagne. They failed, however, according to the afternoon bulletin of the French War Office to obtain a permanent footing in any of the French positions.

Before Verdun, only minor infantry operations are reported but the heavy bombardment east of the Meuse where the direct assault on the fortress is being pressed, is being continued. Paris last evening described the artillery fire here as of unprecedented violence and to-day reports the bombardment as having been kept up in considerable volume during the night, shells producing eye irritant gases being freely employed.

Rome reports progress for the Italians on some sectors of the front in the Trentino, notably in the Arsa valley.

Three German armies, made up largely of troops from the western front are on the offensive on a sixty-mile line in region of Kovel, Vladimir Volynski and Sokal in an effort to break the Russian advance and save the Austro-Hungarian army, Petrograd reports.

It is reported that Field Marshal von Mackensen, regarded as one of the most brilliant soldiers in the German army, has been ordered to take charge of the Austro-German operations in Volhynia and Galicia.

Although the right flank of General Brusiloff's Russian armies is meeting with serious resistance, the left wing in Bukovina, is moving forward rapidly, having advanced more than 35 miles since the capture of Czernowitz on the 17th.

General Planzer, the defender of Czernowitz, and a large section of his army, are reported to be surrounded and in imminent danger of capture. His troops are said to have crossed the border into Rumania where they will be interned.

At the northern end of the line artillery duels continue.

KEEP TO THE RIDGES

When tramping through a country that has many streams it is usually better to get up on the nearest ridge and follow that than to try to make your way along the course of some stream. The ridge will give you a better outlook and drier walking, while the stream may have to be crossed a number of times and, if its waters are followed, will add miles to your journey.—July Outing.
