Will Go Ahead and Prepare For Any Emergency; Mexico Must Establish Firm Military Control; While It Is Lacking, President Is Determined by Force, if Necessary, to Employ Army to Insure Safety; Mexican Ambassador-Designate Issues Statement

El Paso, June 29.—Twenty-three negro troopers of the Tenth cavalry and Lem Spillsbury, Mormon scout, captured by the Mexicans at Carrizal, and confined in the Chihuahua penitentiary, were brought to the border at noon today to be turned over to American military authorities.

A shout of laughter rose from the thousands of Mexicans who had gathered to witness the arrival as the negroes filed from the special train. The prisoners were dressed in the scantiest and most nondescript garb. Some had on only trousers. One wore a shirt while a towel encircled his waist. Heads were decorated with bandanas.

Glad to Get Back

All the troopers were worn and drawn from their experience, and all were serious save one who wore a broad smile. This one negro made himself the impromptu spokesman for his fellows.

"We sure are glad to get back," he said. The troopers refused to discuss the Carrizal fight, their imprisonment or their return to the border.

"We are soldiers, not plain citizens," they said. "We will have to report to our superior officers and receive their instructions."

Washington, June 29.—Official announcement of Carranza's order for the release of the American troopers captured at Carrizal reached the State Department early to-day from Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City. When he sent the message last night Mr. Rodgers expected to be handed a reply to the American note at any moment.

Danger of an immediate break with the de facto government had been relieved last night by press dispatches saying the prisoners had been started for the border from Chihuahua City. Until Carranza replies to the demand for a statement of his attitude toward the American expedition in Mexico to protect the border, however, the crisis is only less imminent than it was before.

Will Pursue Bandits, Regardless

High officials of the administration let it be known that the United States would proceed with its military operations to adequately safeguard its citizens and territory and would continue to pursue bandits in Mexico whenever there was hope of overtaking them, regardless of any action Mexican military commanders may take.

Secretary Baker carried to the White House early a copy of Consul Garcia's message to General Bell at El Paso stating that the men were enroute to the border last night. Soon afterward came the dispatch from Mr. Rodgers. Elisco Arredondo, the Mexican ambassador-designate, was advised by Foreign Minister Aguilar in Mexico City of his government's action.

No Effect on Guard Mobilization

It was apparent about the War and State Departments to-day that release of the prisoners had made the situation less critical. It had no effect, however, on efforts to speed up the mobilization of the National Guard along the international line and to furnish an adequate supply of war material to meet any emergency.

Even should the Mexican reply dis-

Sir Roger Casement Is Found Guilty of High Treason in Irish Revolt

By Associated Press

London, June 29.—Sir Roger Casement was found guilty to-day of high treason. The ending of the historic trial came shortly before 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the jury, which had been out less than an hour, brought in its verdict against the Irish knight.

To-day's session of the court was given over to the arguments of counsel and the charge to the jury. Sir Roger's chief counsel, Alexander Sullivan, who collapsed in court yesterday, was unable to appear to-day and his argument was taken up by Artemus Jones, assistant counsel for the defense. The attorney general, Sir Frederick Smith, summed up the case for the prosecution, after which the lord chief justice delivered his charge.

After Sir Roger had been sentenced, Daniel J. Bailey, the private soldier who had been held as his accomplice, was placed in the dock. The chief justice directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty and Bailey was discharged.

Sir Roger received the death sentence with the utmost composure, smiling at friends in the court room. His statement, which occupied a half hour, was a plea for the right to be tried by Irish and for Irish Nationality.

MAKE YOUR PATRIOTISM PRACTICAL; GIVE TO THOSE WHO ARE LEFT BEHIND

Williamsport reports $12,000 thus far; Geneva, N. Y., has subscribed $20,000, and other cities and towns are engaged in the good work. Harrisburg must not fall short in this work. Subscrip-

Camp Brumbaugh, Mt. Gretna, Pa., June 29.—Every effort is being bent to get the Second Brigade of Pennsylvania infantry ready for departure for the Mexican border within the next 48 hours. This brigade is to follow the First which expects to get away to-day. The First Brigade is composed of Philadelphia regiments and was delayed by medical examinations and recruiting. The Fourth Brigade will follow the Second. These brigades have been treated against typhoid and smallpox.

A weary group of youths composing Company A of the engineer battalion of Scranton and Company B of Philadelphia, are lying in a completely made-up troop train on the tracks which flank the encampment site, waiting through nerve-racking strain their orders to depart for the front.

Sleep in Crowded Cars A score of times they have been told their train will leave within an hour. So undetermined were the series of orders which flew around the camp last night that the entire battalion slept on the crowded trains ready to depart the instant the directing heads of the camp issue the long delayed order. When the engineers do leave, which is now promised officials
