

The Joy of a Vacation may be turned to the sorrow that comes from indigestion. The battle with hotel menus is a losing one for the man with a weak stomach. Happy is the man who listens to the call of the wild—who goes fishing, hunting and canoeing—who takes with him Triscuit, the Shredded Whole Wheat wafer. Triscuit is made of the whole wheat steam-cooked, shredded and baked. A tasty Summer snack for the warm days, supplying the greatest amount of nutriment in smallest bulk. Delicious with butter, soft cheese or marmalades. Made at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Resolutions Passed Today by C. E. Convention

The report of the committee on resolutions was as follows: "WHEREAS, under the providence of our Heavenly Father we have been permitted to meet in this great convention enjoying the hospitality of the Harrisburg Christian Endeavor and their friends and being bound closer together in Christian fellowship and receiving a renewed and enlarged vision of our opportunities and responsibilities as Christian Endeavorers in the work of the kingdom of our Master, be it therefore resolved: "First: That we express our appreciation to the officials and citizens of Harrisburg for their warm welcome and thoughtful concern for our comfort; to the general committee for their tirelessness and efficiency in the management of the details of the convention; to the various churches, for the use of their Churches and their constant effort to make successful each meeting; to the musicians and musical directors and the Harrisburg Christian Endeavor Choral Union for their beautiful and inspiring music; to the local press for the carefulness of their reports and the amount of space they have devoted to the convention; to the presiding officers and speakers for their diligence and their inspiring and helpful addresses; to President C. H. Chain, to Secretary Macropy, to Treasurer K. "Fourth: That we commend the splendid state publication 'The State Bulletin' and recommend that our societies strive to have at least one subscription in each family represented in the society; that we push forward the Campaign for Millions, achieving as rapidly as possible our State goals and faithfully co-operate with our County Union and State Secretary in this forward march. "Fifth: That we pledge to Christian Endeavor; that we pledge to our officers, and department superintendents and committee members our continued loyal support in all their plans. "Sixth: That we will pray for and work for and vote for a 'Saloonless Nation in 1920' and that we pledge ourselves to abstain from drinking to bring about local option in our Keystone State, using the ballot and our influence for a hasty extermination of this great evil in our midst; that we record our approval of every measure opposed to saloons and urge such opposition and education as will lead to a complete discontinuance of their use. "Seventh: That we recognizing the horrors of war and feeling that Christian Endeavor is to have a large part in bringing about world peace pledge ourselves to a preaching of the Gospel of Brotherhood—and the introduction of a foundation alone a lasting peace can come and work forward to the day when 'wars shall cease unto the ends of the earth.' Resolved: Submitted by your committee. W. E. Peffley, Grace D. Reimer, George A. Long.

Livewire Workers

A. J. Shartle, of the United Society of Christian Endeavor who has been elected the speakers and conference leaders of the State C. E. convention here this week is noted as an efficient financial manager. In his work as treasurer of the U. S. E. he has handled the various world-wide activities of this organization upon a firm basis. Recently the manager of an institution in New York loses annually more than a million and a quarter dollars in credit business, said: "He is more and more a marvel to me. As a financial executive he is unsurpassed; he leads us all, and his platform work grows in power from year to year." Shartle is also publication manager of the United

Convention Sidelights

The Rev. E. C. Curtis, general chairman of the convention committee announced last night that in reply to a request that the doors should be open before 7:15 o'clock it was decided that it did not work well. The ushers, instead of that, were hurried to the front, rush home, wash, hurriedly swallow their supper quickly and come to this place for service. When the ushers are not here the registered delegates are crowded out of their privileges. Doors will be opened in the afternoon at 1:15 o'clock, in the evening at 7:15 o'clock. Luzerne county is represented by a delegation of fifty Christian Endeavor experts. Each morning they gather at the Capitol for a quiet hour service, which is very helpful and starts the day right for all. This delegation left, Wilkes-Barre Tuesday morning over the Lehigh Valley railroad in a special Christian Endeavor coach and their headquarters is the Crystal Hotel, Main street. Luzerne county issued a challenge to all other counties in expert Endeavor men won by a lead which is credited for this is due the county president, the Rev. C. H. Frick, of Firwood Church of Christ, Wilkes-Barre, and the expert superintendent, N. G. Gries, of Memorial Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre. Frick entering the contest, Shartle made it possible for Luzerne county to make good its challenge.

PENNA. ENDEAVORERS MEET IN CLOSING SESSIONS ENDEAVORERS TO WAGE WAR ON CIGARETTES; TO FIGHT FOR LOCAL OPTION AND PEACE

[Continued From First Page] of any State and Pennsylvania's young people refused to be anything except optimistic with regard to the chances for a parade this afternoon. The sessions of the day began with the 45-minute "Quiet Hour" in Market Square Church. This was led by the Rev. W. Tomkins, of Philadelphia. The Rev. Tomkins' three meetings have been great inspirations to the delegates, giving at the very beginning of each day's work the spiritual tone that marks the fun and play of an Endeavor convention. Sectional Conferences The sectional conferences this morning were given up the discussion of the work of the State departments as planned by the departmental superintendents for the coming two years. Dr. B. W. Swazey, of Allentown, led the conference on citizenship and temperance. In the Fine Street Church the important Junior conference was conducted by C. C. Culp, State Junior superintendent. A department which has great strength in Great Britain but only a few in this country carry out—the Floating Endeavor work among the sailors—was discussed by State Superintendent H. P. McHenry, of Philadelphia, where most of this work is done. The Press conference was led by Rev. W. B. Greenway, of Philadelphia. Miss Carrie M. Rhoades, of Reading, took up the work of the Introduction. Another somewhat unusual, although well known branch of C. E. work that was discussed was the work in the prisons. Miss Anna B. Cunningham, of Uniontown, directs this work.

Perhaps the most important conference as regards the results in efficient organization in the State during the coming two years was that on the work of the county and local union officers. General Secretary Vanderhall, of the Ohio C. E. Union, which is according to A. J. Shartle, the United States Society for Christian Endeavor most efficiently organized of all the State Unions, led this conference. Mr. Shartle himself was director of the conference on Christian Endeavor. In the afternoon, the Rev. W. E. Peffley, of Allentown, State Superintendent, was particularly able to speak of, having been for years the publication manager of the U. S. C. E. The Christian Citizenship conference was held in the afternoon, directed by Dr. Burton W. Swazey, C. E. E., of Allentown, State Superintendent, a member of the Society of Sanitation and Moral Prophylaxis, the American Social Purity Association, the Purity Federation, and so on, spoke. He said in part:

"There has been a tremendous awakening in our State these past few years and the fruits of the evangelistic work of 'Billy' Sunday, Stough, Biederwolf and a host of evangelists who are so strenuously preaching the old standards of righteousness, but dressed in new language are being shown in the greater accession to the churches of men who have voluntarily placed themselves under the instruction of the Gospel, and they will learn the true spirit of brotherhood. "The greatest evil we have been combating for several years, is that represented by the liquor business. After wearing the yoke of debauchery for centuries it appears as if these later years will witness the freedom of the masses from the curse that has impoverished them by the millions, and new freedom secured through which the family will be united and the family altar once more established in the home. "It is gratifying that we can report to this great convention that distinct gains have been made against the liquor business in our State, and that while two years ago there were but seven counties in which dry laws were in force, Green, Lawrence, Bedford, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Juniata and Venango—yet at this present time there are eleven dry counties—Green, Bedford, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Juniata, Union, Wyoming, Jefferson, Venango, Mercer and Crawford. "Christian Citizenship is also showing its hand in the many other evils that surround our young people. The reports which have been received from one-half of our county units shows that our Endeavorers have been taking an active stand against community evils, such as dance halls, movies, Sabbath breaking and the introduction of baseball, theatrical performances and the like."

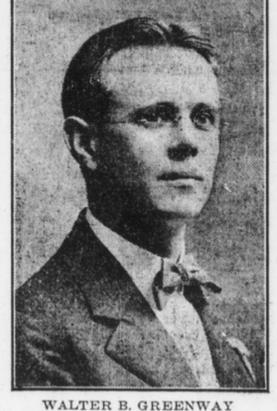

The business session of the convention opened this morning with State Treasurer H. W. Keller, of Pittsburgh, presiding. Assisted by Miss Katherine D. Heikes, of Harrisburg, pianist of the Harrisburg C. E. Choral Union, sister Brewster led in short song service. Prayer was made by State Vice-President Weiland, of Bedford. Mr. Brewster and Cornetist Wiest rendered a beautiful vocal and instrumental duet. A feature of the opening moments was the introduction to the convention of pretty little Miss Nellie Ford, of Pittsburgh, office secretary of the Pennsylvania Union. Many of the delegates were already acquainted with the U. S. E. and they were not surprised to have seen the mysterious Miss Ford from whom they so frequently hear concerning C. E. work. An unofficial but very important State worker was introduced—and the introduction brought applause—Mrs. H. B. Macropy, the wife of the State general secretary. The little Macropys were also called for but were not present. Secretary Macropy read the list of those societies to which "front" certificates were awarded during the past two years. He also exhibited the beautifully engraved certificate of honor, and read the society and county standards which the winning societies had attained. Certificates were awarded to "front line" and banner societies. The only banner society in the State is the Olivet Presbyterian Church of Easton, Northampton county. Western Pennsylvania leads with the largest number of "front line" organizations. The certificates were awarded as follows: Adams—St. James Lutheran Church, Gettysburg. Allegheny—Mt. Washington Presbyterian, Pittsburgh; Sharpsburg Presbyterian, Sharpsburg; St. John's Lutheran, Swissvale; Knoxville Presbyterian, Pittsburgh; Fourth Presbyterian, Pittsburgh. Beaver—First Presbyterian, Freedom. Fayette—Central Presbyterian, South Brownsville. Lehigh—Grace Reformed Church, Allentown; Dumb Memorial Reformed, Allentown. Luzerne—Firwood Church of Christ, Wilkes-Barre; Elm Congregational, Plymouth. Northampton—Olivet Presbyterian Church, Easton; Moravian Church, Easton. Philadelphia—Scott's Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

MISS ANNA B. CUNNINGHAM Uniontown State Prison Work Superintendent.

Schuylkill—Second Presbyterian, Pottsville. Washington—Central Presbyterian, Canonsburg; Mt. Prospect Presbyterian, Hickory; Third Presbyterian, Washington. Westmoreland—First Presbyterian, Monessen; Pine Run Presbyterian Church, Markle. The report of the resolution committee was presented. Mr. Wiest then rendered a solo, "The Rosary," on the cornet. The report of the Press department which had been held over from yesterday was read by the Rev. W. B. Greenway, of Philadelphia. He presented to the delegates a new set of "Ten Commandments" which they should observe in their publicity work. Miss Anna B. Cunningham, State Superintendent of Prison Endeavor, made a brief report outlining the work of her department. The session closed with prayer by the Rev. C. E. Boughton, of Harrisburg, pastor of the Church, and the benediction by General Chairman Curtis. The report of the nominating committee was delayed in committee and will not be made until very late to-day.

Election Late To-day

The nominating committee will meet for final business at 2:30 p. m. The election of officers will take place at a late hour this afternoon. Considerable interest is stirring among the Endeavorers about the officers to be elected, and the matter will be thrashed out this afternoon.

Joke on the Press Chairman

State Press Superintendent Greenway, of Philadelphia, is a funny man. After the conclusion of his report this morning when he had concluded his praise of the local papers for their service he added, "Then there is another who should not be forgotten in this connection. One of our general committee here—Press Chairman—Mr. Skilling or Willing—Oh, Skilling, is it? Well if he is a shilling he ought to be half-a-dollar by now for the work he has done. He is not present at the time and this is published without his knowledge."

Afternoon Session

This afternoon's session was featured by an address on the "Millions Campaign" by A. J. Shartle of Pittsburgh, connected with the United Society of Christian Endeavor. He urged Pennsylvania's Endeavorers to do their part in the campaign of procuring a million new members in two years. H. B. Macropy, State Secretary of Pittsburgh, presided. N. Astley Brewster led the song service and the Rev. H. Grove, pastor of Green's Church of God, conducted devotions. The Rev. Dr. George Edward Hawes, pastor of Market Square Presbyterian Church gave an address on "Prayer and Efficiency" which was followed by a musical number. Mr. Shartle's name was read. The Rev. Edgar E. Snyder, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, this city, pronounced the benediction. Mr. Shartle said in part: "This is a convention of consecrated, Christian millionaires. You are not millionaires in money, but you are in numbers, and in opportunities. We think in millions, work for millions, achieve millions. Our first effort in anticipation of coming evening is to mobilize our my, vitalize our my, certify and evangelize the masses in order that we may enlist millions for Christ. In the vast army of Christian Endeavor, this State represents but a brigade, your county union a regiment, each local society a company, and every Endeavorer a member. The command has been given for the brigade to move forward. "Million New Endeavorers "From the shores of Cape Cod to the great Chicago convention came this inspiring challenge from our beloved Dr. Clark. 'Millions, millions of Endeavorers, as millionaires, to mobilize, vitalize, evangelize the millions. Endeavor to secure if possible in two years a million new Endeavorers. "When we think of the nearly four million Christian Endeavorers scattered throughout the world, belonging to more than 75,000 societies, what a tremendous opportunity it is for the millions already enlisted to

Million New Converts

This leads us to Dr. Clark's second challenge to secure a million new converts in the next two years. If there ever was a time in the history of the church when the harvest for souls surely was ripe, that time is now. There are men and women to-day in the slums of our cities that need men to be saved. There are men and women at the office desk, the workshop bench in the factories, in fact everywhere, that are ready to listen to the call coming from the Kingdom.

Million New Dollars

Then Dr. Clark also speaks of another great feature of this campaign, and reminds us that it would be well to raise through the old standards of righteousness a million new dollars for missions. The greatest need in America and the church to-day is for consecrated men and women, and one of the greatest needs of the church is for money. A million new dollars over and above what they formerly had contributed, but it does mean that Christian Endeavor Societies are to raise a million dollars over and above what they formerly had contributed, but it does mean that Christian Endeavor Societies are to raise a million dollars over and above what they formerly had contributed, but it does mean that Christian Endeavor Societies are to raise a million dollars over and above what they formerly had contributed.

The Song of the Guns

"On the battlefields of Europe to-day, there are members of Christian Endeavor Societies fighting for what they think is a just cause, enlisted in the army of their country, as loyal citizens of a nation, determined if necessary to lay their lives on the altar of their country that its peace may be preserved. One need not go into the details of the horrors of war. General Sherman has already told us what it is. God spare the day when the call shall come to us, but listen to the song of the guns as it was written by someone and let it come to us across the waters of the Atlantic. "Send your sons, send your sons, all your near ones, all your dear ones. Give us food, give us food. Give the song of the guns, give us the song of the guns, give us the song of the guns, give us the song of the guns. Let us feed, on the bravest that you breed. Give us meat, give us meat, O, the blood of Valour's sweet."

"With God's help this is not to be the song of America's guns. Look to the old flag, Endeavorers. See these red stripes, red with the blood of your fathers who staked them red for principle. Look at the white stripes of the old flag and know that they are white with the virtue of holy motherhood of America. Your mother, my friends, our mothers. Then look again! See those glorious stars. These stars that shine in the everlasting blue of God's eternal truth! It stands to-day as the real flag of peace. It stands for unity of purpose towards the peace of the world, and we pray that the day may speedily come when peace shall reign among all the peoples in all the world. "Keeping this in mind, there should go out from this convention in two years a person here present to-day, the strong desire for peace, and the full determination that it shall be a lasting peace, all of which can be stimulated by the signing of the Christian Endeavor Union Peace Pledge Cards, as they will be distributed by the officers of your societies and unions. "Ten Thousand New Societies "Again, Dr. Clark asks us to organize in two years ten thousand new societies of Christian Endeavor. Here again Christian Endeavor needs but to repeat its wonderful achievements of a few years ago, when 10,245 societies were organized in two years. In every section of every county in the country, there are still churches that do not have Christian Endeavor Societies, and there are tens of thousands of young people belonging to the church to-day who do not have the

C. E. Notes

Experts certainly showed their colors at the banquet held at Harris Street United Evangelical Church last evening. The Rev. C. H. Frick, of Wilkes-Barre, and the Rev. Stanley B. Vanderhall, delivered a striking address on "Expert Endeavor." He said Expert Endeavorers could gain considerable knowledge of a book word by this way, so full instructions and helpful suggestions by some author. Luzerne county, with Mr. Grice, the county expert superintendent, was introduced, but he declined the invitation to win in the Expert increase contest. Luzerne has 400, Allegheny second, Philadelphia third and Lehigh county following. The Endeavorers are pure in every sense of the word and claim that they could not afford to let the "Brewers' Big Horses Run Over Me." "The warblers of Harrisburg" with Prof. McCarrell as chorister, included George Ashley Brewster, "Rody's" assistant led the music last evening. How much fact and conviction was conveyed in fine trim until the program was opened. Venango Endeavorers were delighted to reach Harrisburg yesterday. They were on the way via Pittsburg and Bedford. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Persons, Harry Osborn and Susan Adams. Robt. Matthews, of Kentucky, has been unable to attend the convention on account of sickness. Prof. Frank A. McCarrell, of this city, is taking Matthews' place at the piano, assisted by Miss Katherine D. E. Heikes, pianist of the Harrisburg C. E. choral union.

20,000 New Quiet Hour Comrades

"Then realizing that one of the greatest needs of the church to-day is the deepening of the spiritual life of both the old and young people, Dr. Clark again suggests to us another feature that will meet this requirement, namely, the securing of twenty thousand new comrades to the Quiet Hour as the one outstanding feature that will deepen the spiritual life of the young people in the church; that they may learn to pray and read their Bibles every day. To some efficiency in the early hours of the morning spend at least fifteen minutes in getting in quiet touch with God in prayer, Bible reading, and quiet meditation. "In order that missions may be stimulated. In order that the matter of financing the church as a whole may be met, a matter of standard business policy, it is further suggested, efficiency while engaged in this great campaign, we endeavor to secure 10,000 new members of the Tenth Legion.

"This splendid department of Christian Endeavor was first organized in the New York Union and later was accepted by the United Society of Christian Endeavor for its more powerful advocacy. Since that time the Tenth Legion has grown at the rate of nearly 200 members a week, so that to-day thousands of Christian Endeavorers are enlisted in this special phase of systematic Christian giving. "The new increase of efficiency Campaign brought us face to face with a proposition that is to-day one of the principal factors in the development of the young people of our societies. The bringing of 200 new members into the societies of Christian Endeavor in the past few years has meant to us also the teaching and training of these young people, to be made more efficient in the larger service of the church. Consequently, we are asking for ten thousand new Christian Endeavor Experts.
