COURT ASKED TO END CHAUTAUQUA

Stockholders of Mt. Gretna Institution Bring Quo Warranto Proceedings

Lebanon, Pa., Aug. 2. — Yesterday quo warranto proceedings were instituted before Judge C. V. Henry of the Lebanon County Court to bring about the dissolution of the Pennsylvania Chautauqua Association of Mt. Gretna. In 1892, the association opened a summer school at the Mt. Gretna grounds with a capital of $30,000. Dr. Wilmer R. Bott of Harrisburg, a stockholder, declares that the Mt. Gretna summer school has been discontinued and with the exception of Sunday services the Chautauqua is doing practically nothing to carry out the purposes of its incorporation — the advancement of literary and scientific attainment among the people and the promotion of popular culture in the interest of Christianity. Complaint is also made that the Chautauqua has undertaken to exercise rights and privileges not granted nor permitted under its charter in its recent acquisition by purchase of land not necessary, the construction of water works and a sewerage disposal system in that it has levied a tax upon the 140 cottagers who own properties on the Chautauqua reservation, but has failed to assess the Chautauqua holders. The writ was made returnable by Judge C. V. Henry president of the Lebanon county court on September 18.

A separate suit has also been instituted by Andrew Dotter of Lebanon who as a cottage owner seeks to have the Chautauqua managers enjoined from enforcing the collection of a special "debt liquidation tax."

RUSH TROOPS TO REPET INVASION

 the cavalry column said three hours search of the hills disclosed no trace of bandits.
 The infantry, transported in motor trucks is being held at Fort Hancock together with a motorcycle squad also sent from El Paso to reinforce the cavalry, should the trail of the bandits be picked up.
 Reports to General Bell estimated the number of bandits variously from 50 to 175.
 A thorough search of the territory between Finlay and Fort Hancock by United States regulars failed to disclose any Mexican bandits. This information was contained in reports to General George Bel, Jr. Troops had been sent to the district early to-day upon receipt of advices that approximately 150 bandits had crossed the Rio Grande.

Discolored or Spotty Skin Easily Peeled Off

The freckling, discoloring or roughening to which most skins are subject at this season is readily and painlessly removed. Mercolized wax, spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed the morning with soap and water, completely peels off the discolored skin. Get an ounce of the wax at any drug store. It is a more effective way of banishing tan, freckles or other cutaneous defects. Little skin particles come off each day, so the process itself doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and one soon acquires a brand new, spotless, girlish beautiful face.
 Wrinkles caused by weather, worry or illness, are best treated by a simple solution of powdered saxolite, one ounce, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this produces a truly marvelous transformation.

LIKE A DRAFT OF COOL AIR ON HOT SWOLLEN FEET

C. Kennedy or any drug store and ask for EZO, the wonderful new foot balm. Rub it into your tired, swollen or aching feet before you go to bed and you'll be sorry you didn't try it long ago.
 No matter how many fussy foot remedies you have tried, there's only one that's absolutely certain — that's EZO — Advt.

MAYOR TO "JITS"; STRIKERS' PARADE

 diately left the union headquarters, according to Mr. Thorpe and applied and obtained his old job. The check was stopped at once by the union. That Keifer is one of the "strikers" who has been re-employed was admitted by the company's headquarters. Hurdy Gurdy Earns $700.
 Joe Pollock, the genial grinder of the hurdy gurdy, who is tramping over the city daily in the interest of the strikers' fund, has been working at this job less than a week, he said, and he has already collected more than $700. The money is to be used in assisting strikers' families.
 The greatest single day's receipts, he said, totaled $198.56; the smallest was something more than $56. Money is contributed in sums that vary from the $5 bill of the wealthier strike sympathizer to the pennies of the sympathetic children. In one street in Steelton Pollock said he collected $38.32. It varied with the crowd of old men and young women offered to play the piano and nearly every evening the hurdy gurdy has to grind out music for impromptu dances in the street.

Insulted Car Conductor; Arrested by Detective

Elmer Gentzler, who says he resides on Allison hill, was arrested last night by Detective George Shuler for making insulting remarks to a street car conductor. Gentzler was given a hearing this afternoon by Alderman James DeShong.
 Detective Shuler was en route to his home on a Hill car. The car stopped at Cameron and Market streets. Elmer Gentzler got aboard. Instead of boarding the car the conductor was called vile names. Detective Shuler ordered the car to stop and he got off and arrested Gentzler.

Chairman McLaughlin Issues a Statement to the Public

The following statement was issued to-day by Hugh L. McLaughlin, chairman of the executive committee of the trolley men's union:
 "Public sentiment is one of the strongest assets that any person or body of men can have bag of them, and the striking trolley men are proud of the support given them by the people of Harrisburg and suburbs.
 "Even when cars have been run by strike-breakers or those willing to take the jobs of the men who have gone out as a protest against Mr. Musser's methods, over 90 per cent of the people have refrained from riding on the trolley cars, even when there has been no riot or disorder. If the solution of the street car strike was left with the public, it would decide almost unanimously in favor of the striking trolley men and will continue to ride in the jitneys until snow flies, if permitted to do so by the Mayor and City Commissioners.
 "Last Fall, an ordinance was passed, at the request of the railways company, to tax the jitneys out of existence.
 "The arbitrary action of the company toward its employees and its refusal to arbitrate the issues involved, is the appreciation the railways company shows for receiving a jitney ordinance to suit its own ideas. If the railways company proposes to rule with an iron hand, the people may give them a taste of their own medicine and insist on a repeal of the jitney ordinance, and let the public choose its own method of transportation. If the company deprives the men of a decent living wage, why shouldn't the public deprive the company of its income? If the public should divide to the extent of putting it in the hands of a receiver, the city might issue bonds and buy it at a bargain figure, the way you try to buy labor. It was an easy matter for you to have that jitney ordinance passed last Fall, but it is just as easy for this commission, or another, to repeal it. You may have a perpetual franchise, but to-day it is possible to put rubber-tired competitors on the streets any time the voter chooses to break your monopoly. The city can run its own water works and other cities operate other public utilities with profit and reduced rates to the public, possibly if Harrisburg will see its opportunity for acquiring municipal ownership of its street car lines.
 "We ask for nothing unreasonable.

34 CONDUCTORS AND MOTORMEN HAVE RETURNED TO WORK

Only 39 1/2% of Our Employes Went on Strike

More facts about the street car strike.

This Company regularly has 448 employes. On July 16 last, 177 of these employes walked out without notice and insisted that you stop riding on the cars, for the reason that they were not satisfied with their jobs.

What about the remaining 271 loyal employes?

The real truth is that you were asked to prevent the large majority of our employes (271) from working and earning an honest living under conditions and with wages that were and are satisfactory to them.

34 of the 177 who stopped work are now at their old jobs.

To-day, but 29 1/2%, or 133 men, are still requesting you to prevent the large majority, 70 1-3% or 315 men, from working regularly, when and for whom they choose to work.

FATIMA
 A Sensible Cigarette

Here's cigarette-comfort

FATIMA may never become the only cigarette smoked by keen, substantial men of this type. But Fatima has already become more popular with such men than almost any other cigarette.

This is because men who smoke wisely want a SENSIBLE cigarette—a cigarette that is comfortable to the tongue and throat and that leaves a man feeling "fit" and clear-headed even after smoking more often than usual. You should try Fatimas.
