SPEND HONEYMOON AT THE SEASHORE

MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE WILBUR ECKARD

MISS STRICKLER WEDS C. W. ECKARD

Quiet Ceremony Performed in Presence of the Immediate Families

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Manse of the Stevens Memorial Methodist Church, when the pastor, the Rev. Clayton Albert Smucker united in marriage Miss Elva M. Strickler and Clarence Wilbur Eckard of this city. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives, and following the service, the newlyweds left for Reading, Philadelphia and Atlantic City to spend the honeymoon. They will be at home to their many friends after September 1, in their apartments at 1938 New Fifth street.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strickler, has a wide acquaintance in the city, and has been a milliner with the D. P. & S. stores. Mr. Eckard, who has resided at 117 Sylvan terrace, is connected with the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company and has a host of friends.

PENBROOK ALUMNI MEET IN BANQUET

First Annual Normal Event Attracts Large Numbers to the Ludwick Home

Members of the Normal Alumni of the Church of God at Penbrook held the first annual banquet at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ludwick, with music and speeches to vary the informal program.

Supper was served on the porch, where summer flowers were used in decorating. The Rev. G. W. Harper, pastor of the Pleasant View Church, led in prayer, and C. G. Miller, president of the association, acted as toastmaster, speaking of "Preparedness"; Miss Lydia A. Forney, missionary organizer of the Churches of God; A. O. Hamilton, financial secretary of Findlay College, and the Rev. Jay C. Fornaker, pastor of the Penbrook Church, all spoke delightfully on various subjects, receiving hearty applause of the guests.

Mrs. A. O. Hamilton in a clever reading, told of the trials of an inventor's wife and after a vote of thanks to the hosts for their gracious hospitality, sociability resigned. This association was formed April 30 of this year, with 24 members in the classes of J. W. Hicks and the Rev. Mr. Fennick, and now numbers 33. The officers include C. G. Miller, president; J. W. Hicks, vice-president; Mrs. H. L. Brightbill, secretary; Miss Elva M. Strickler, assistant secretary; William E. Inover, treasurer. Other members are Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Elser, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Garman, H. L. Brightbill, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Higgins, G. W. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bobb, Mrs. E. E. Sites, Mrs. O. E. Houston, Joseph Cooper, Mrs. J. THIN OR WRINKLED

Just one jar of Am-o-nized cocoa, the new beautifier, will prove that you can remove your wrinkles and fill out hollows in face or neck. Rubbed into the skin before retiring, it does its work while you sleep — nourishing the tissues back to health. Don't be thin — Don't be wrinkled! A 75c jar of Am-o-nized cocoa, which you can get from any druggist will bring you a delightful surprise and make you look young. Thousands of women are now being sold daily. Everyone is praising it. Made by a special process it is the one thing that will remove wrinkles — fill out hollows in face or neck and bring real, natural color to the cheeks. Sold and recommended by first class druggists everywhere.
