JOHN A. CLARKE WEDS MISS VIOLET ALBRIGHT

One of the most attractive weddings was that solemnized Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Derry Street United Brethren Church, when Miss Violet Albright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Albright of 1327 Kittatinny street, became the bride of John A. Clarke of Easton, formerly of this city. The church was profusely decorated with palms, ferns and phlox, carrying out a color scheme of green and white. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the church, who used the ring ceremony.

The bride wore a simple and charming gown of white Georgette crepe, over white tulle and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. Miss Margaret A. Clarke of Hackensack, N. J., sister of the bridegroom, who acted as maid of honor, wore a gown of blue crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses. The little Misses Valentina and Shirmetta Reble, who were the flower girls, wore dainty little white dresses with pink sashes and carried ivory baskets tied with large pink bows filled with roses, sweet peas and maiden hair fern. Ralph Manley of this city, acted as best man. Miss Mary Hench played for the bridal party using Lehner's Wedding March as a professional and Mendelssohn's Chorus as a recessional. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the house of the bride which was prettily decorated with palms, ferns, phlox and gladioli, with only the immediate members of the families present.

The bride, who has a wide circle of friends in the city, is a graduate of the Harrisburg High School of the 1911 class and was employed as a stenographer in the Legislative Reference Bureau at the Capitol. Mr. Clarke is an alumnus of the Jenkintown High School class of 1905 and of the Temple University in class of 1908. W. C. T. U. HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Local Organization Holds Outdoor Meeting at Paxtang Park

Members of the Harrisburg W. C. T. U. held their annual outing at Paxtang Park to-day. A specially fine out of doors meeting was held this afternoon in the theater of the park with Mrs. W. H. Cooper county superintendent of the open air meetings presiding, and Mrs. Violet Hollar Bollen, Mrs. John De Gray, Mrs. Harry Leonard, Mrs. Charles King and Le-ray Bowers Harnish as participants in the program. Mr. Harnish, the principal speaker of the afternoon and State superintendent of the Pennsylvania Federation, took as the subject of his address, "Leper Spots," in which he describes the work of World's Purity Federation in overcoming the white slave traffic. In an inimitable and eloquent speech he plead for sex instruction and an uncompromising attitude against this terrible and systematized crime. Mr. Harnish said, in part: "The World's Purity Federation and the committee out of which it grew have been at work since 1900, and represents the first real organized effort in North America, in a national and international sense, for the eradication of the traffic in women, of white slave traffic, the annihilation of public vice, for a higher and single standard of morals, and the safe and sane instruction of our young in social hygiene."

The slogan of the World's Purity Federation is that, "The white slave traffic and public vice can and must be annihilated."

The federation employs three methods of attack on this problem: Education, law enactment and enforcement, and remedial work.

By means of education the federation aims to have the parents teach the child sex truths properly before he is taught the vile and ugly aspects of these truths by his ill-taught companions. It aims to have the State provide a man and a woman to teach these truths to the parents of the next generation, now in the colleges, nor bring the instruction down into the high schools as soon as the public is willing to sympathize and co-operate with such a plan.

The principal cause is the double standard of morals. The boy must not see a fallen woman ostracized and a man whom he knows to be immoral admitted to the hearthstone, invited to tea, allowed to have the State to the theater and finally marry her. Such conduct on the part of the parents says to the boy, "You can be and may do just as you please, but your sisters must be as pure as an angel."

Another cause is dress. Would that parents would see to it that their children were properly dressed. The good and virtuous girls and women are not different in appearance than the great cosmopolitan company of those gone wrong. Many good and virtuous girls and women are accosted for denizens of the underworld because of the similarity of their dress, paint, and earrings.

The child does not know the pitfalls and dangers, because of lack of sex instruction. Young girls who dance at home are attracted by the great white way, the blaring lights, gaiety, and apparent happiness of the immoral dance halls, which in many instances lead to the girls' downfall. At dances given by lodges, charity balls, literary societies and National Guard fairs, the speaker has seen the modern dance halls, which in many instances, ill-positioned, sin-tempting way to hell through the door of the dance.

The man who believes in a segregated district, let him invite the district to be placed near door to his home, rather than in the slums among the poor people of the city. Any man who favors segregation is one of three things: He is ignorant, misinformed, or vicious. What right has any man to say whose sister shall be compelled to live that life? Now then let us show
