The Bell-Buch Wedding Takes Place Last Night

The marriage of Miss Ada Buch, daughter of Addison C. Buch, contractor of 220 Locust street, to Wesley Harrison Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton A. Bell, of 820 North Third street, was a quiet event of last evening.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families at the residence of the Rev. Hilles C. Pardoe, a retired Methodist minister. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a modish traveling costume of dark blue broadcloth with Leshorn hat wreathed in roses and banded with white velvet. There were no attendants.

The young couple will go immediately to housekeeping at 319 MacLay street, deferring their wedding journey until later in the autumn, and will be "at home" to their friends after September 1. The pretty little bride, who was a student of the School of Commerce, has a host of friends in this city and Lebanon, her former home. Mr. Bell is a painter in business with his father.
